Mr. TALBOT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not know the reason for the interrogation by the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, insofar as the Treasurer and the Auditor General's Department are concerned. It seems it is only fair to say to the members of this House that the State Treasurer from the beginning accepted the cut with good grace and was frankly willing to cut salaries and if need be to let a few employes out, but this conference committee in meeting Tuesday last felt that in all fairness to the State Treasurer that if these appropriations to the other departments were being reinstated, that it was only fair that the same thing should be done as far as the State Treasurer was concerned.

Mr. KLECKNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I was fully prepared to concur and vote for this conference committee report until the gentleman from Philadelphia this morning informed me that the administration had set up a new set of figures. For that reason I shall oppose this and I must ask you in the interest of fairness to vote against this conference report.

May I call your attention to a press article which yesterday His Excellency the Governor broadcasted through the press. Yesterday the Governor said, "There is just one thing for the General Assembly to do, and that is to look the facts in the face and do the duty for which it was called together and which it has been dodging for seven weeks."

I rise to challenge that statement and also challenge the statement of the administration budget secretary, who attempted, as we have attempted for the last two weeks, to get an honest statement of what the State receipts and expenditures for the biennium would be. And I challenge the budget secretary's estimates, which I say appear to be presented in bad faith and who has been juggling the figures that are before this body so that we have not been presented with a readable bank statement, a statement that could be reconciled between the departments.

Let us face these facts as individuals ready and willing to take it on the chin, and take a stock account of our position.

We are mired in the mud of misunderstanding with the popular misconception of our position and power as agents of the people clamoring for two kinds of relief; first, food and work or direct relief, and secondly, a tax reduction by increased efficiency in governmental activities.

Ham-strung as we are, on the rack, if you please, with our hands tied, I wonder why any of us submit ourselves for public office and weakly take it one the chin without reply. Certain leaders have shed crocodile tears for home consumption of political preferment, and last night in the Senate one of the gentlemen said there were no taxation bills, and I challenge him to look into the Finance Committee and see what bills have been passed over from the House to the Senate and are lodged there, and I think that House Bills Nos. 37 and 38 may give him his information.

We are at the crossroads in this political complication seeking signs for the road back to prosperity to get our beloved State and constituents out of the mud, and out of this misunderstanding. Perhaps our constituents and critics are entirely wrong in regarding the Legislature as a two-ring circus with a master of ceremonies or a Simon Legree slave-driver, whip in hand. Certainly we cannot picture him as purging the temple of the money-changers or chasers, if the whispering of nepotism and bartering of political appointments by secretaries can be substantiated, and which should be investigated, as the gentleman from York yesterday indicated. Remember the old adage of "people living in glass houses," and the scriptural admonition of "let him without sin cast the first stone."

I challenge the Governor as one who voted for him to show me and to show us in the Legislative Assembly where you, my colleagues, failed to face the facts and consider the welfare of our beloved Commonwealth. Technically Mr. Pinchot, our Governor, is correct; practically, he is hiding behind a limited call with constitutional limitations until our patience as well as the patience of the taxpayers of this Commonwealth are well nigh exhausted. When I charge the Chief Executive with failing to utilize the last seven weeks for the intended object of considering immediate unemployment relief and call your attention to the presentation of another inquiry on the second day of this session, on June twenty-eighth, you know to what I am referring.

I should like to see the birth of a new era of individual reponsibility in the halls of the Legislature with a new constitution to eliminate the necessity of continual constitutional amendments. Rather should we have a session of this Legislature every year than have these pernicious Special Sessions which never accomplish anything but merely put the Legislature on the spot.

If the Highway Department is the greatest relief organization in Pennsylvania, then its title is a misnomer and the elimination of the Welfare Department should follow, in the endeavor to concentrate the most effective branch of the State government service.

What has this Special Session accomplished? We have, if it may please my colleagues, maintained our poise and our balance; we have refused to be stampeded into passing an avalanche of proposed additional taxes to build up a Greater Pennsylvania Council for preferred politicians. We have reached an impasse, if you please, where further consideration of the Governor's call is of no avail, for our constituents demand that we stand adamant for tax reduction instead of tax extension, and is it not true, we only await a motion for adjournment, sine die, lacking the power to put into effect the requisite departmental economies.

Now, we stand today on the spot. Some of us will be fried and most of you men who have the abdominal investure to go back to your constituents and state the question clearly and frankly will come back here at the next general session, when I predict the greatest session of this century will be presented for the taxpayers in reducing governmental expenses.

We stand today, I repeat, on the spot. I charge the administration with bad faith and for that reason I ask that you vote down this motion to concur.

Mr. LUCAS. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The motion was seconded by the following members:

Messrs. Nothnagle, Haws, Spangler, Philip M. Myers, Weaver, Cooke, Witkin, Burns, Green, Greeby, Heffernan, Fleisher, E. P. Brown, Mathay, Tahl, Lynch, Peters, Dwyer, Bell, Hagamier, and others.

On the question,

Shall the main question be put?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

On the question recurring,

Will the House insist upon its non-concurrence in the amendments made by the Senate and that a Committee of Conference be appointed.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House insist upon its non-concurrence in the amendments made by the Senate and that a committee of conference be appointed.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. TALBOT. Mr. Speaker, relative to the motion of the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee that a committee of conference be appointed the present conference committee as I understand it has not been discharged.

The SPEAKER. The report of the Conference Committee, when that is rejected, the opinion of the Chair is, that it discharges that Committee of Conference.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE

The SPEAKER. The Chair appoints as a Committee of Conference on the part of the House on House Bill No. 129, Messrs. Steedle, Flynn and Talbot.

LEAVE GRANTED COMMITTEE TO SIT DURING SESSION OF HOUSE

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I now renew my request that the Committee on Ways and Means be permitted to meet immediately while the House is in session in the House Caucus Room to consider those bills which I previously mentioned.

The SPEAKER. Will the House grant permission to the Ways and Means Committee to sit during the session of the House? Is there objection?

Mr. STEWART. Mr. Speaker, it is not my purpose to object to giving the Committee on Ways and Means the right to retire at this time, but before that permission is given I should like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STERLING. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. STEWART. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Philadelphia in making his request a while ago, which request was withdrawn and is now renewed, stated, I believe, that it was his intention to lay before the Committee on Ways and Means three bills covering what are commonly known as "nuisance" taxes. The question is this: Is there any reason why the activities of that committee at this time should be confined to those three bills, or is it the chairman's intention to lay only those three bills before the committee at this time?

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, that is my intention, very definitely.

Mr. STEWART. Mr. Speaker, I believe that all of us are well informed as to the temper and opinion of this House with respect to the various tax-raising or revenue-producing measures. The three bills which the Ways and Means Committee—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is discussing, as I understand it, the three bills which the Ways and Means Committee propose to consider and is not discussing the matter before the House, which is the permission for the Ways and Means Committee to sit while the House is in session.

The SPEAKER. The Chair rules that the point of order is well taken.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. STEWART. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. STEWART. Mr. Speaker, my idea at this time is to try to impress on the members of the Ways and Means Committee that there are other revenue-producing measures before that committee which this House, I believe, want an opportunity to act upon. If I was permitted by you to proceed, I would do so.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. STEWART. I said, Mr. Speaker, it was my intention to call to the attention of the Ways and Means Committee that there were other bills that were before them which I am convinced this House wants to consider.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman rises under a question of personal privilege. That privilege strictly construed, extends only when the integrity of the House, or the integrity of a member is assailed. The Chair is of opinion that if we strictly construe the question of personal privilege, the gentleman would not be in order at this time.

The SPEAKER. The Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee has asked permission of the House for that committee to sit while the House is in session. Are there objections? The Chair hears none and permission is granted for the Ways and Means Committee to immediately sit.

SENATE MESSAGE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented extracts from the Journal of the Senate which were laid upon the table.

RESOLUTION

EXTENDING SYMPATHY ON DEATH OF HONORABLE JAMES FRANCIS BURKE

Mr. JOHN A. RHODES asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer the following resolution which was twice read and unanimously adopted:

In the House of Reprsentatives, August 10, 1932.

The members of this House in sadness take cognizance of the death of the Honorable James Francis Burke on the evening of August 8th, at Washington, D. C., shortly after a conference with the Nation's President.

James Francis Burke was born October 21st, 1867 in Petroleum Center, Venango County, Pennsylvania. Throughout his life he was identified with the City of Pittsburgh, Allegheny Count. He was in truth and in deed a native son of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Burke was graduated from the University of Michigan, with the degree of Bachelor of Law in 1892. He was thereafter a member of the bar of the States of Michigan and Pennsylvania, practicing principally in the Courts of Allegheny County.

On April 15th, 1895, Mr. Burke was married to Mrs. Josephine B. Scott of Detroit.

Public recognition of his peculiar and outstanding abilities came early in life, and continued during his very active career.

Mr. Burke served as a member of Congress from the Thirty-first Pennsylvania District from 1904 to 1915, and while in that body served on many of its outstanding committees. He represented the United States in the Parliamentary Peace Conference in Brussels in 1905. He was at one time counsel for the Department of Agriculture of the Commonwealth, and first counsel for the United States Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Burke's National activities in the political party of his choice lasted during his entire life, and were most outstanding. He was a friend and confident of every President of the United States since Benjamin Harrison. He died while rendering service to the present incumbent of that exalted position.

Mr. Burke was intensely active and immaculate in person; loving the smoke and fire of political battle, he was a fiery orator, a colorful figure. He was an enthusiastic golfer and yachtsman.

The sixty-five years of his active life have been spent in the service of his country and his State, therefore be it

Resolved, That the death of James Francis Burke has deprived his native country, his native State and the great party of his affiliation of a wise counsellor, an able leader, a fearless fighter, a splendid sportsman and a lovable personality.

That little we may say or do can add to the nation-wide realization of the Nation's loss or alleviate the sorrow of those who knew him and loved him.

That a copy of this resolution shall be sent by the Chief Clerk of the House to his bereaved widow, Mrs. Josephine Scott Burke.

REPORT OF SECRETARY OF REVENUE PRINTED IN JOURNAL

Mr. TALBOT. Mr. Speaker, as Chairman of the sub-committee of the Committee on Appropriations, I hold here statements from the Secretary of Revenue in conformance with resolution of the House of Representatives, Serial No. 20, which I feel should be printed in the Journal and be made a part of the record. I therefore ask unanimous consent that it be printed in the record.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent to the printing of the Statement in the Journal? Is there objection? The Chair hears none and the Statement will be printed.

In answer to House Resolution, Serial Number 20, adopted June 29, 1932, the Secretary of Revenue submitted photostat copies of a statement showing Actual Operating Fund Revenue and Receipts for the bienniums 1927-1929 and 1929-1931 and estimated for the biennium 1931-1933, and photostat copies of statement showing Summary of General Fund estimate of receipts, biennium 1931-1933, as of June 1, 1931 showing, also combined estimate of receipts of the General Fund for the year ending May 31, 1932, $78,816,663.00, and for the year ending May 31, 1933, $76,224,149.00, or a total estimate for the 1931-1933 biennium of $155,040,812.00. These statements show the detail of estimates by sources.

REQUESTING INFORMATION FROM AUDITOR GENERAL

Mr. SHEELY asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

Whereas, The Legislature has attempted to reduce appropriations made to different departments of the State government in order to save the money that is necessary at this time for the relief of the unemployed, and

Whereas, Its attempt has been met with the strenuous objection of His Excellency, the Governor, who persists that the reductions made by this House would result in crippling the necessary activity of the departments affected, and

Whereas, The Governor has dwelt at length upon the savings effected in his own department without itemizing the same, and this Legislature is ignorant of the different purposes for which money appropriated to the Executive Department is used, and therefore unable to intelligently criticize the spending thereof, therefor be it

Resolved, That the Auditor General shall submit to this House, as soon as possible, the following:

(1) A statement of the total amount of appropriation made to the Executive Department for the biennium of 1931-1932

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. Christian H. Shirk, offered the following prayer:

Thou God of loving kindness and tender compassion, we rejoice in the belief that love is at the center of this universe and extends throughout its bounds. We know that hate introduces confusion, and is the source of so much of our trouble and distress.

We ask that the nations of the world, as well as all individuals, may discover the advantage of accepting the divine plan in their human relationships. May all seek to promote peace and good will among men. Teach them the supreme art of loving their neighbors as themselves, and thus engage in mutual helpfulness.

May we be guided by this high ideal in all we do this day, and to Thee we shall ascribe our most exalted praise eternally. Amen.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO INVESTIGATION OF PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

Mr. HARRIS offered the following resolution which was twice read:

In the Senate, August 11, 1932.

Whereas, The Special Session of the Legislature has witnessed serious charges against W. D. B. Ainey, Chairman of the Public Service Commission, as the result of which, the Chairman of said Commission has resigned; and

Whereas, Following said resignation, the committee which was constituted for the purpose of investigating said charges asked to be relieved from proceeding further; and

Whereas, The Governor in an address before the Senate on August 10th, stated that "The revelations in the Ainey case have aroused the State as nothing of the kind has done in years. Among the people the demand that the investigation shall not stop,—that the facts shall be known in full,—that the people shall learn the whole truth,—is unanimous; and

Whereas, The press of the Commonwealth joins in this demand, that a full investigation of the relationship between members of the Public Service Commission and public utility companies shall be made; therefore be it

Resolved, That a committee of seven members of the Senate be appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate with power to fully and completely investigate the affairs of the Public Service Commission, particularly with the respect to the influence of public service companies with members of the said Commission gained by corrupt and other improper means, for the purpose of influencing members of the Commission in rendering decisions in favor of public service companies and against the interests of the public.

Resolved, That said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman, requiring and commanding any person or persons to appear before it and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person, and shall have the same force and effect as subpoenas issuing out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of the committee shall have power to administer oaths or affirmations to witnesses appearing before it. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to appear and testify before said committee, or to produce any books, papers, records and documents, shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of this Commonwealth in such cases;

Resolved, That the committee be authorized to request the Attorney General to act in a legal capacity for the committee;

Resolved, That the committee be authorized to employ such accountants, experts, stenographers, clerks or other agents as may be necessary in conducting the said investigation and to pay the same out of any appropriation which may be made for that purpose;

Resolved, That the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate be directed to attend the said committee, to serve subpoenas issued by the committee, and generally to enforce all orders which the said committee may make;

Resolved, That the said committee shall make a full report of its investigations and findings to the General Assembly at the Session of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three as early as may be.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires that all resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. FREEMAN. Mr. President, I am not unmindful of the importance of this matter; but, we have a light Senate here this morning—and, furthermore, many members of the Senate have been exceedingly busy during these last twenty-four hours in conferences. It seems to me, therefore, that we ought to have time to reflect and think this question over, and decide just what is the best way to handle this proposition. We cannot gain anything by acting today. We can well afford to wait until next Monday, when we will have a full Senate; and, with all courtesy to the Senator, from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, I therefore regret that I am obliged to object.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, this resolution is presented in the same manner and perhaps the same form that the other resolutions bearing on the acts of the Public Service Commission were presented. I believe that it is necessary for quick action. It is commonly reported, with no definite knowledge on my part, that we will adjourn next week. If this is true, then it will be necessary for this committee to hold some preliminary meeting; and I think there should be immediate action on this question, because of its vital importance. No delay will profit us anything. And I press my request for immediate action on this resolution.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection, and the Resolution is referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

CONSIDERATION OF THE CALENDAR

Mr. FREEMAN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate proceed with the consideration of the calendar and that bills on second reading only be considered this morning.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO THE DEATH OF HONORABLE JAMES FRANCIS BURKE

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. HARRIS offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, August 11th, 1932.

James Francis Burke is dead; the City of Pittsburgh that knew him so well is in gloom, and the Commonwealth mourns the loss of an honored son.

Although born in Venango County, he belonged to Pittsburgh where he spent most of his life and grew closest into the hearts of those he loved so well.

His service in Congress made him nationally prominent and his rare ability as an advisor and counsellor brought him close to those who sat in high official places.

While he advised with Presidents and assisted in directing the affairs of the Republican Party, his great heart, filled with a genuine love for his fellow man, made him the eager counsellor of those in the humblest walks of life.

The gift of oratory was his to a high degree and he used it freely at the command of every project to aid humanity. The good he accomplished is beyond estimate, but the memory of his readiness to serve remains a striking and lasting memorial to his kindliness, his friendliness and his true greatness.

He lived a life of helpfulness, filled with the joy of service and with the glory of many friendships.

The innumerable throng of those who called him friend best epitomizes the respect in which he was held and the extent of the loss his passing means, therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of James Francis Burke, this Commonwealth has been bereft of a son who added lustre to the long list of accomplishments of sons of Pennsylvania, and the City of Pittsburgh has lost its "Special Ambassador" whose proudest boast was his close connection with what he called "My City of Wonders."

That his life is one to be emulated by those sons of the Commonwealth whose desire it is to serve her well and to add to the happiness of their fellowmen.

That we extend to the widow of him who has gone, after a life so well lived, our deepest sympathy.

That this Resolution be spread upon the pages of the Journal of the Senate and that a copy thereof be forwarded by the Secretary of the Senate to the widow of the said James Francis Burke.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. EARNEST, from the Committee on Judiciary General reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 189 (House Bill No. 234), entitled:

An Act to amend section five hundred and twenty-three, as added to the act approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. As we this day engage in the business before us may we breathe the atmosphere of truth and goodness. Keep, we pray, our hearts pure, our visions clear, and all our actions upright. May the best that is within us rise up in answer to the needs that cry to us for remedy. Thus may we after all prove to be good laborers in the vineyard of our Lord.

We ask it in Thy name. Amen.

Extraordinary Session of 1932.

Vol. 14 HARRISBURG, PA., MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1932. No. 26

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MONDAY, August 15, 1932.

The House met at 8.00 o'clock P. M.

The SPEAKER (C. J. Goodnough) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. O. B. Poulson, offered the following prayer:

Our father's God, to Thee we raise our voice in humble prayer. All that is best within us cries out "O give thanks unto the Lord; for He is good; for His mercy endureth forever."

Just when the night seems darkest Thou has let Thy sun of righteousness arise and shine in all his beauty, making mankind forget the darkness through which he has been called to pass, into the glory of the dawning day.

Whatever the tasks be that confront us here this night, dear Lord, we ask Thee to arise with healing in Thy wing and bring us safely on to the dawning. Though all hell oppose, may righteousness, and mercy, and truth prevail here and throughout all the land.

Not that we are worthy Lord, to ask any favors at Thy hands but for the sake of those Thou has loved and for whom thou hast suffered and died. Amen.

Mr. KLECKNER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of the resolution.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of the resolution? Is there objection? The Chair hears objection and consent is not granted.

The resolution lies over for printing.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I have a resolution that I desire to present, but before doing so I would like to ask a point of information from the Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, last year we heard a great deal about mandates. That was a word that came into prominence, of course, during the World War and right after the Peace Conference, and I would like to know whether a mandate is something that only the Executive can have or whether Legislators, members of the House, can also have a mandate.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is of opinion that a mandate extends to any constituted authority.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, thank you. I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I have not received my retaining fee.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia declines to be interrogated.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, knowing that the gentleman from Philadelphia has a very large and a generous heart and knowing that in the past, and especially last week, he worked so hard for other members of this House so generously and believing him to be from things he said last week—our greatest constitutional lawyer in this House, I would like to again ask the gentleman from Philadelphia whether he will not permit himself to be interrogated.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman having declined to be interrogate the Speaker could hardly be expected to repeat the request.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, if the question is not too hard I may try.

Mr. TURNER. I am sorry, Mr. Speaker, that I did not have an opportunity to prepare the gentleman from Philadelphia for this so that he could have brought with him Mr. McElwee's legal book in answering the question, but I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia this: Whether it would be proper and whether it is within the constitutional powers of a member of the Legislature to send out a letter at the expense of the State government?

Mr. SOWERS. Will the gentleman from Delaware repeat that question?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I want to know whether it is proper and within the constitutional powers of a member of the Legislature to send out a letter at the cost of the State government.

The SPEAKER. The Chair understands that the gentleman from Philadelphia has declined to be interrogated. The Chair will be glad to be informed if we are in error.

Mr. TURNER, I will take no appeal from your decision, Mr. Speaker, because as far as I am concerned I would not care which way the gentleman answered the question. I was prepared to settle the constitutional question myself.

The SPEAKER. The Chair merely desires the correct information itself.

Mr. TURNER. Yes sir; that is all I am asking; something to back me up a little.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and member of the House, during the year 1931 a great many of us received numerous letters from our constituents from all over this State and from the people back home, on almost every subject that was before us. It seems that the Executive sent out letters to the people all over the State of Pennsylvania, telling that the Legislature was doing this or it was not doing that, and urging them to write to their Representatives and urging them to do something about it.

During this session, when the economy program was first up, I remember that———

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I feel that the remarks of the gentleman from Delaware must be important and may I ask him to use the microphone or speak louder?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I accept the insult of the gentleman. I have spoken a great many times in my life, and this is the first time that I have ever had anybody impose the "mike" on me.

Good evening, everybody, I hope that you will appreciate this is the twilight hour.

And now, as I was about to say before I was interrupted by my constitutional friend, that there were letters sent out. I recall that when the economy program came before this House that letters were sent into my county and that I recieved a frantic appeal from a very eminent lady who is interested in welfare and relief work in our county, that all of the people in the hospitals and the insane institutions and so forth would be sent back to Delaware County—all of those assigned to Delaware County would be sent back to Delaware County if the econony program went through. Of course, I replied to that in my own way, and paid very little attention to it, as I think most of the members of the House did, because they voted for the economy program, and then last week I received from the Secretary of Highways, and this habit does not seem to be a habit alone of the Executive, but it has gotten into the other department—the Secretary of Highways sent out a letter to all of the members of the House last week with a list of roads on which no work would be done if the twelve million dollar bill was passed by the House. Of course, that letter did not take into account that there would be some income coming in during the next eight months, nor did it take into account that a million and a half a month would be taken as, if and when needed. I really considered that that letter was quite an insult to the intelligence of this House, but I hope it has served one purpose: I think we ought to take that letter and have it framed and put in some place on the walls of this House, so that future generations of legislators may read it, and from that know what happens to legislatures who give away their power over the purse strings, when legislatures build up great bureaus over which they have no control, and it will clearly demonstrate to future legislatures the exact amount of respect that any secretary of an Executive Department has for the Legislature and give an estimate or measurement of the intelligence of the members of the Legislature.

The purpose of the resolution that I wanted to introduce tonight is to send out a letter. I felt that if the Executive could send out a letter, certainly any member of the Legislature ought to be able to send out a letter, so I want to send out this letter, in order that there might be nothing rash and no camouflage, and you fellows will understand what you are voting for in this resolution. Of course, it is addressed to a taxpayer: "Dear Sir:" or "Dear Madam."

"Dear Sir:

"As a taxpayer you undoubtedly have together with others, asked for a reduction in the cost of municipal, State and Federal Government, so that the tax burdens may be lightened. You have opposed any new taxes.

"Now a substantial majority of the members of your House of Representatives have heeded your demands and have cut the cost of your State Government, and have opposed new taxes.

"We believed that economies could be effected sufficient to appropriate $12,000,000 for relief without new taxes.

"We have demonstrated to our own satisfaction that there will be enough revenue to afford relief without new taxes after we reduced the cost of government about $14,000,000. But the Governor says, 'no,' there is not enough money.

"Then we tried to borrow $12,000,000 from the Highway Funds, with the proviso that we would only take it, if, as and when, needed. This would not be more than $1,500,000 per month, which I assure you we would never need.

"Again the Governor says, 'No.' 'If you do this all road work will cease.'

"Of course, that's just one of the Governor's scarecrows. If the Highway Department is in such shape that $1,500,000 a month out of its revenues will put it out of business, it's out of business now. For it will take that much to pay for overhead, sinking fund, motor patrol, etc. There would be nothing left for building roads.

"The situation, therefore, is this, if each of us holds out we'll be here for months and there will be no unemployment relief, and people may go hungry.

"If we retain our views, there will be no taxes.

"If the Governor co-operates with us, we can get along on present revenue and there will be no taxes.

"So to carry out your wishes, will you please write or telegraph the Governor at once to let the unemployment receive relief without taxes being imposed on you.

"Respectfully yours,"

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

REQUESTING USE OF MAILING LIST

Mr. TURNER offered the following resolution which was twice read and laid over under the rules:

In the House of Representatives, August 15, 1932.

Whereas, There is an apparent deadlock in this Session of the Legislature between the legislative and the executive branches of the Government as to whether relief can be effected by economies or new taxes must be levied to provide relief; and

Whereas, The Members of the Legislature have a mandate from the people to oppose taxes; and

Whereas, It is essential to submit the matter to the people;

Resolved, That the Chief Cerk of the House of Representatives be authorized to secure the Governor's mailing list and to send to each person thereon a copy of the letter which is attached hereto.

Dear Sir:

As a taxpayer you undoubtedly have together with others, asked for a reduction in the cost of municipal, State and Federal Government, so that the tax burdens may be lightened. You have opposed any new taxes.

Now a substantial majority of the members of your House of Representatives have heeded your demands and have cut the cost of your State Government, and have opposed new taxes.

We believed that economies could be effected sufficient to permit the appropriation of $12,000,000 for relief without new taxes.

We have demonstrated to our own satisfaction that there will be enough revenue to afford relief without new taxes after we reduced the cost of government about $14,000,000. But the Governor says, no, there is not enough money."

Then we tried to borrow $12,000,000 from the Highway Funds, with the proviso that we would only take it, if, as and when, needed. This would not be more than $1,500,000 per month, which I assure you we would never need.

Again the Governor says, "No." If you do this all road work will cease."

Of course, that's just one of the Governor's scarecrows. If the Highway Department is in such shape that $1,500,000 a month out of its revenues will put it out of business, it's out of business now. For it will take that much to pay for overhead, sinking fund, motor patrol, etc. There would be nothing left for building roads.

The situation, therefore, is this, if each of us holds out we'll be here for months and there will be no unemployment relief, and people may go hungry.

If we retain our views, there will be no taxes.

If the Governor co-operates with us, we can get along on present revenue and there will be no taxes.

So to carry out your wishes, will you please write or telegraph the Governor at once to let the unemployed receive relief without taxes being imposed on you.

Respectfully yours,

HOUSE BILL No. 254 MADE A SPECIAL ORDER

Mr. WITKINS. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 254, Printer's No. 264, entitled:

An Act authorizing the transfer of money from the Motor License Fund to the General Fund for the payment of appropriations for unemployment relief, and for the retransfer of such moneys from the General Fund to the Motor License Fund during the fiscal biennium beginning June first, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, and making an appropriation necessary to effect such transfers.

on page 2 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed be made a special order of business on Tuesday, August 16, 1932 at 11 o'clock A. M.

The motion was agreed to.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. KLECKNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. KLECKNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I received a communication from the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Patterson, which demands some explanation, and I would like to inquire whether the gentleman from Beaver would be kind enough to consent to be interrogated on his communication, in order that this communication may be read into the Legislative Journal of the House.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Kleckner, rises to a question of personal privilege and desires to interrogate the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Patterson. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PATTERSON. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. KLECKNER. Mr. Speaker, and with the kind indulgence of my colleagues, the members of the House, to give the gentleman from Beaver their undivided attention on his statement which seems to me demands some explanation, may I inquire of the gentleman from Beaver, whether the first three columns in his statement are taken from the Budget Officer's report?

Mr. PATTERSON. Yes, I received from the Treasurer's Office a pamphlet, in which there were figures that showed the appropriations expended to July 31 and balances, and from that paper I had all of the figures copied into this form. Of course, the other two columns make comparisons as to what would be the expenditures for the next ten months.

And now, I may add to the gentleman's question some information. I have given this matter of finances considerable study, and during that time I became convinced that the finances are not as they have been reported to the members of this House. I believe, and I have heard too, to confirm my belief that the Administrative Officers recognize that there is lacking about $20,000,000 or more of available cash that they do not want to get out. I do not want to place any aspersions on them now, but I know the natural tendency of officers is to keep all the monies they have under their control.

I felt that we have had so many statements made to us about the condition of our finances that if any member of the House attempted to give his views, he is doing a good act to the members, so I thought that perhaps we should look a little further into the affairs of our government than we have been doing. I have read this statement, and I saw an opportunity to take advantage of it and I did. I believe that I took thirty of the departments. By going down the first column on your paper you will see how much each department was appropriated. And now, for instance, to the Governor there was appropriated four hundred and forty-seven thousand one hundred and fifty dollars.

Mr. KLECKNER. Mr. Speaker, may I interrupt the gentleman from Beaver, and ask him to explain to me whether his fifth column calculation includes any of the building contracts of the Department of Property and Supplies to which His Excellency, the Governor, has referred?

Mr. PATTERSON. It does not.

Mr. KLECKNER. Is that last calculation of yours your determination of the excess over the normal operating costs based on the first fourteen months experience?

Mr. PATTERSON. It is.

Mr. KLECKNER. And that amounts Mr. Speaker, practically to twenty-three and a half million dollars?

Mr. PATTERSON. Yes.

Mr. KLECKNER. Thank you.

Mr. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I would like, while I am here, to call your attention to a few of these items.

I was about to refer to that of our Governor. As I said, there was appropriated $447,150, and he has expended $233,430.59 during the first fourteen months. If that expenditure is divided by fourteen, you will get a sum—I don't remember what that is, but if you will multiply it by ten you then have $166,736, and deducting that from $213,964, it will leave in the Governor's appropriation $47,228.

It seems to me that when a matter like this comes before us, it is our duty to look a little further into it to see whether I am correct. It will be an easy matter to have the Budget Officer and the Officer for the Treasury Department interrogated as to whether the paper I have is authentic and reliable. I have the paper over here on my desk from which I took this information. If you will bear with me a monent I will get it out for you.

Mr. KLECKNER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the statement of the gentleman from Beaver be spread upon the Journal.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman refer to the statement he has just made or is about to make?

Mr. KLECKNER. The mimeograph statement presented to each member of the House.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Kleckner asks unanimous consent that the remarks of the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Patterson, together with the mimeograph statement be spread upon the Record. Are there objections? The Chair hears none and the remarks of the gentleman, together with the statement will be spread upon the Journal.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have just read the figures pertaining to the Governor's Office, and you have the same figures on this paper that I received from the Treasurer's Office. From what I understand it was given to the Clerk, Mr. Russell Milliken. So I want to impress upon you that what I have here are reliable figures.

Four hundred forty-seven thousand, one hundred and fifty dollars is the appropriation liability. This is for fifteen months, I haven't that paper here, but this is the one I had for the same report put in the Journal. There were three columns, and these are taken from the sheets of this pamphlet. So that I want you to feel that what I have put down here was taken from the records of the Treasurer's Office. I recognize that the Treasurer's Office and the Auditor General's Office are our only fiscal officers; they are legally there. I merely request you to study the paper I left upon your desks. I think that this House, before it adjourns, should go into this matter and ascertain whether or not there is the amount of balance that I have indicated on the paper.

I think I have made a sufficient statement.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILL No. 172

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, August 15, 1932.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mrs. DENMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The lady from Westmoreland, Mrs. Denman, will state her question of personal privilege.

Mrs. DENMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think it is not necessary for me to preface what I have to say by saying that we are now near the eighth week of this Special Session. Certainly the passing of the weeks has been called to our attention sufficiently.

On Wednesday of last week, following the postponement of consideration of House Bill No. 254 calling for a transfer of twelve million dollars from the Highway Department to a fund for direct relief, there was something in the atmosphere of this House that seemed that things were looking better for the needy of the State, there was something in the atmosphere that seemed to indicate that something would be proposed that would be satisfactory to all concerned. Once more we believed that an agreement had been reached.

But on the heels of that came the refusal of this House to concur in the conference report on House Bill No. 129, known as the Steedle bill or the economy bill. Following that came the report of the House Ways and Means Committee placing on our calendar one revenue bill, which admittedly, if enacted into law, would produce less than one-half of the amount which we desire for direct relief.

Since we adjourned last week this House has been caricatured in almost every conceivable means. We have been called a "Leaderless Mob." We have been pictured as a "squirrel in a cage," frantically racing, but getting nowhere. We have been accused of playing political foot-ball with human misery. We have been taunted with the suggestion that we are more interested in our own re-election in November next than we are in the sufferings of our fellow-citizens.

Yet we know that the members of this House are seriously and earnestly laboring on the problems before them. We know that members who through memberships on committees or subcommittees to which has been delegated the task of working out this program—we know that those members have given time and effort and sincere thought to the task before them. I believe that their work should be known and appreciated.

I also believe that the membership of this House is anxious that a reasonable and adequate relief program should be adopted. More than that I believe that the people of the State of Pennsylvania are looking to us, expecting that we shall adopt a reasonable and adequate relief program, and I refuse to believe that there is a citizen in the State of Pennsylvania who is enjoying an income, and has a roof over his head and three meals a day for himself and his family, who is unwilling to share with his needy neighbor, whether that neighbor be in his own county or down in Philadelphia or out in Allegheny County.

This is not a sectional or a factional or party matter. This question is bigger than mere political expediency. There is a demand on the part of the people of this State that a relief program shall be enacted. There is a desire on the part of the membership of this House that such a program shall be enacted.

The fact that we are here now, beginning the eighth week of this Special Session, is evidence of the fact that there is a desire on the part of the membership of this House to enact such a reasonable and adequate relief program. The bills that remain could have been speeded up, they could have been enacted into law and this House could have adjourned. The only reason that we are here now is that we still think we will be able to enact such a relief program.

This House is committed to an appropriation for direct relief. On August 1st, by a vote of 163 to 3, we passed the twelve million dollar Talbot Relief Act. I believe that the members of this House who voted for that bill expected then and are willing now to support measures that will produce the money necessary to provide that relief.

I cannot see how we dare to adjourn without providing the means whereby the State can provide direct relief to the districts so sorely in need.

To say to them, "We have given you the right to tax yourselves," or to say to them, "We have given you the right to borrow and perhaps we will pay you back in the future," is certainly no answer to the problem in hand.

The "Philadelphia Ledger" yesterday published an editorial entitled "They ask for Bread and get Adjournments." I, for one, do not believe that we dare think of adjournment until we have supplied the bread, nor do I think we dare to adjourn until we have made certain that the abated appropriations for State-aided hospitals, homes and to the mother's assistance fund have been restored.

About five weeks of the Special Session was spent in revamping the appropriation bills of 1931. I doubt if the members who were not on the sub-committee of the House appropriations committee realize what a tremendous task it was.

House Bill No. 129, known as the Steedle bill or the economy bill, and the companion bills, are supposed to reduce appropriations by approximately twenty-two million dollars. The Senate and the conference committee have restored to those reductions nine million dollars.

Last Wednesday morning this House refused to accept the report of that conference committee. It is my opinion that this bill right now is one of the most important measures for our consideration. We dare not risk its defeat, we dare not risk its veto. There is a larger issue at stake than proving that one set of figures is right and that another set of figures is wrong. There is a larger issue at stake than merely asserting the right and prerogatives of one House of this General Assembly over the other.

The issue is whether or not all over this Commonwealth the hospitals, that are supplying service so very badly needed, shall be able to continue to do so.

The issue is whether or not the State-aided homes can continue efficiently to give the service that they must render, particularly the care of homeless children, a need that is growing every day.

The issue is whether or not the funds for mothers assistance will be restored, whether or not this agency, which is outstanding among the public welfare agencies in the United States, will be able to continue the splendid work that it is doing, maintaining and keeping families together, keeping them self-respecting, or whether this service shall be crippled in this work and whether those families that it maintains shall be turned back on county relief.

The restoration of those abated appropriations depends entirely on the passage and approval of that Steedle or economy bill. I think we are faced this week with these two things: We must make sure that abated appropriations are restored, we must provide relief, we must provide the revenue to make up that twelve million dollars of relief.

Upon the final enactment and passage of House Bill No. 129 upon the final enactment or failure to provide the direct relief so sorely needed rests the success or failure of this session.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the lady under her question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

The SPEAKER. This report shows that it is as previously offered, is printed and upon the desks of the members, and the question is:

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Mr. TALBOT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I feel that an explanation is due from me, due to the fact that I did not sign the conference report on last Tuesday.

At a Conference Committee today, realizing that the Secretary of the Budget has stated last week that there would be an additional deficit of $2,800,000, the problem confronting that Conference Committee was to take one of two courses. The first, if this deficit were to exist, would be to find $2,800,000 additional of economies. The second course we might pursue would be an assurance on the part of the Executive of this Commonwealth that if the deficit did exist there wuold be no further abatements.

The Chairman of the Appropriations Committee on the part of the House and the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee on the part of the Senate visited the Chief Executive this afternoon and I desire to read a letter from His Excellency, which I will ask be made a part of the record.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, August 15, 1932.

Hon. Joseph G. Steedle, Chairman, Committee on Appropriations, House of Representatives, Harrisburg, Pa.

Dear Doctor Steedle:

You have just asked me whether, in case the conference report on House Bill No. 129 is adopted as was agreed in my office some time ago, I will undertake to see that no abatements in mother's assistance, State-aided hospitals, State-aided educational institutions, etc., will result. My answer is yes.

Sincerely yours,

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

That makes it final, members of the House, that even though this deficit may exist there will be no abatements insofar as state-aided hospitals, mother's assistance or State-aided educational institutions are concerned.

I, therefore, feel that we have added to the economy program this sum of two million eight hundred thousand dollars, and my sincere trust now is that this House will concur in the amendments made by the Senate.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STEEDLE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Allegheny what the purpose was of a further conference of the Conference Committee, and what it was for, if it was not to replace the reductions that were made on the part of the Senate?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, in answer to the gentleman from York, I would only say this; that on last Wednesday morning when this conference report was before this body under the information which I had before me at that time, and which at that time I thought was the most asinine think I know of that could occur, I refer to the statement by the budget officer setting forth the fact that $2,800,000 were really necessary to balance the budget. At that time from the information received by me, which was that the members of the House felt that if that were true, then why pass the present bill at that particular hour and not rearrange for the $2,800,000.

At the conference committee today that was given very thorough consideration but in view of the fact that the Governor was satisfied to go on record and place such a record in writing and finding it a very hard task to raise $2,800,000 we decided to accept his word, in writing, and accept the report as it was reported out the last week; and since we are assured that no abatements will come either to State-aided hospitals or the Mothers Assistance Fund or to State-aided education institutions or the so-called non-preferred appropriations, we felt we were justified in consenting to take the report providing for about $14,000,000 and allow the $2,800,000 deficit that was created in balancing the budget for the Governor and the executive officers of the Commonwealth to make up that money, which they agreed to do.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman further; has the gentleman attempted at all to reconcile the figures of the budget officer with the figures submitted by the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, which would seem to be in absolute and entire conflict, I mean has he been able to balance them with the figures of the budget officer.

Mr. STEEDLE. The only answer I can give to the gentleman from York, Mr. Spangler, is this: That the Appropriations Committee in its wisdom does not have any jurisdiction over revenues and therefore the best authentic information I can get and which we have received recently and from week to week is that the budget officer's figures vary every week we come here. So I think we had better get out of here before we find a deficit of $17,000,000.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, may I inquire further from the chairman of the Appropriations Committee, whether he has made such an examination of the deficit referred to by the budget officer as to inform the House, or so that he can inform the House definitely whether the budget officer's figures are correct?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from York, I can only say no; we have not.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it seems to me that when the House last week refused and noncurred in the report of the Conference Committee, that that was tantamount to saying or to giving to the new committee on conference a mandate on the part of this House to the effect that the conference report as submitted is unsatisfactory and that it was the desire of this House that the reductions that had been made by the Senate and sent over to this House were not to the satisfaction of the House, and that before this House would adopt those reductions that the Senate would have to change its position and readjust its reductions and revise them upwards. Apparently that has not been done.

There has not been anything stated by any member of this committee on conference that would lead us to believe that the position of the House with respect to this matter has been changed. There has not been anything said there is no information given by any member of this conference committee that would lead us to believe that the original position of the House was not correct and that additional savings could not be made over and above those as submitted in the original conference report. Until I am convinced by some member of this committee that it is impossible to effect further reductions than those that appear now in this conference report, I feel inclined to vote against the new conference report.

It seems to me that in a matter of such vital importance as the economies that are to be effected in the several departments of the State government, that this House should have the most specific and the most ample information why the reductions should not be revised in accordance with the direction of the House as expressed last week. I, for the life of me, cannot understand this about-face on the part of our Appropriations Committee.

When the original bill was before this House the members of the Appropriation Committee gave us the absolute assurance that after the most careful and most thorough examination into the expenses of the various executive departments of this government that a saving could be effected of at least twenty-two or twenty-three million dollars. There were no ifs or ands or buts about it. And then later on that bill was passed upon the assurance of this sub-committee that these savings could be effected, and now for some unknown reason the bill goes to the Senate where it is practically cut in half; where the savings as made by the House are effected, are almost eliminated, and the House tamely submits to this revision without any explanation.

It seems to me that in a matter of such importance as this that we should have the amplest kind of explanation on the part of the members of this conference committee by their telling us why they acted as they did; why they changed their minds; why they said to the House one thing at one time and now retract that position about those statements that they so specifically made to us. I think we are entitled to have that information and before I am willing to vote away eight million of dollars of the revenues of this State, which could be used for unemployment relief, I certainly should like to hear some reason advanced for this failure on the part of our committee to stand up to its original position.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, for the benefit of the gentleman from York, and for the benefit of the other members of the House, may I be permitted to attempt to give him the information which he requests.

This whole controversy hinges around a difference of sixteen million four hundred and some odd thousands of dollars. Now, Mr. Speaker, that is entirely a matter of estimating revenue and everyone knows, everyone must know, that the revenues of the State have fallen off very sharply and will continue to do so under the present business conditions. It has been estimated by members of the House that we have available for appropriation about $13,600,000. Now, the administration contends, the administration and the budget officer maintains, that there is a deficit, or will be a deficit, of $2,800,000. The difference between the figures would indicate a dispute of some sixteen million dollars. In estimating on the nigher figure the revenues, or estimated revenues, for the year are given as $62,400,000 plus $9,600,000 to be acquired from the sale of the Delaware River Bridge bonds, making a total of $72,000,000 for the last half of the present biennium. The administration and the budget officer estimate that the revenues for the present biennium will be $55,614,000, and say that that includes in that figure any returns from the Delaware River Bridge bonds, so that the difference of $16,400,000 can be accounted for wholly on the strength of a decreased income.

Now then, when it is said that House Bill No. 129 now under consideration does not make a sufficient saving, the fact is that we are making a saving, a saving of $16,600,000, counting the $2,800,000 which the Governor today indicated that he will recover through economy. And now, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if that is not worthwhile out of ten months operations of this government, then I have never seen in my experience in this Legislature anything that was worthwhile. I believe that this report should be adopted; I believe that it is one of the most constructive things that can possibly be done; to adopt this report which restores the abated appropriations and balances the budget.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STEEDLE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask, why were the words of the Governor put in writing?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, so that we could inform the House without a question of doubt of the sincerity of our motives and purposes.

Mr. TALBOT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think the gentleman from York is entitled to a statement from the sub-committee on appropriations which I have had the honor to serve on as chairman, and if he will recall on Wednesday last I stated that our original economy bill provided for about twenty-two and one quarter million dollars with the understanding that about one million dollars would be deducted when it went to the Senate. I further said, members of the House, that due to the fact that, as I stated last Wednesday, we did not have a stenographer with the committee when we called the heads of the departments in, it was found that the statements that were made to the sub-committee on appropriations on the part of the House were not the same kind of statements that were made when they met the Senate sub-committee on Appropriations. The two sub-committees did finally agree on a sum of $18,800,000, but due to the fact that we could not declare a moratorium on the Teachers Retirement Fund of $2,500,000, this brought the net results of our work down to about sixteen and a half millions of dollars, and the conference committee report as submitted to the House for its concurence or non-concurrence, carries an amount of about $13,700,000.

With the letter read into the records from the Chief Executive declaring there will be no further abatements, it now brings it back to about the original figure less the Teachers Retirement Fund money we expected. We cannot, neither must we, lose sight of the fact that as soon as this House adjourns, the Attorney General, in my opinion, can do exactly what he did last April, regardless of whether it is right or wrong, and again abate the State-aided hospitals, the Mothers Assistance Fund, and other State-aided institutions.

I sincerely trust that this answers insofar as figures are concerned the gentleman from York on his question regarding the action on the part of the sub-committee.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I would like further information on certain portions of this Conference Report.

I voted against House Bill No. 129, when it came before this House, because it cut the appropriation for welfare purposes of the Department of Labor and Industry and also the Teachers' Retirement and certain other funds that I did not think should be abated in the name of economy.

Some of those have been remedied by the action of the Senate and the Conference Committee, but some of them have not been remedied.

Last week I interrogated the Chairman of the Appropriation Committee as to the cuts that were made in the Auditor General's Department and the Department of the State Treasury. He informed me that the cuts that were in the original bill, as it passed the House, had been taken out in the Senate and by the Conference Report, and I asked him what cuts had been made in the Department of Labor and Industry, and he said about three hundred thousand dollars, and that approximately was the same amount that was taken from that department by the original economy bill as it passed the House. In other words they restored the appropriations to the Auditor General and the State Treasurer, but they left the Department of Labor and Industry cut the same as it was cut when it went through the House in the first place.

Our friend, Mr. Patterson of Beaver County, has given us some very interesting figures, as to the amounts of money which have been appropriated to various departments and the amounts which had been spent in the first fourteen months and the balance which is available for the remaining ten months.

In looking over this I see the amount which is still remaining, after he has deducted the amount for the ten months on the basis of the first fourteen months in the Department of Sate Treasury, including the Board of Finance and Revenue, is $441,178.31.

For some reason when it is a question of taking away, when we come to the department of Labor and Industry using the same figures, I find the balance left over, according to Mr. Patterson, after the expenditures on the basis of the first fourteen months, is only $141,953.69, yet they are taking away from that department three hundred thousand dollars, more than twice that balance. In the other cases they are not taking away anything at all.

I realize that we have had so many figures thrown at us that most of us do not know what they are all about, and I am frank enough to admit that I cannot reconcile them. I cannot understand why some departments should be spared entirely, while the Department of Labor and Industry, which has been built up at the urgent insistence of organized labor over a period of years, should be cut in such a way as to practically cripple its service. Using the figures not from that department, but the figures that Mr. Patterson has taken from the State Treasurer's office, I realize perfectly well that every department head wants to save every cent to his department, so that I am not attempting to use the argument that has been put up by that department head, along with the other department heads, but I am only using the figures which are apparently impartial, which shows in one case a balance of $441,000 and no cut at all, and in the other case a balance of $141,000 and a cut of three hundred thousand.

I am in favor of economy when you cut in the right place, but if you are going to cripple the inspection service of the Department of Labor and Industry, if you are going to cripple the work of the Workmen's Compenastion Board and a lot of other activities that are under the control of that department by practically abolishing its appropriation, while letting other departments for some reason best known to the members of the conference committee, perhaps, entirely free, I would like to have an explanation of it.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HOOPES. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Berks if he knows in what way we may restore the money back to the Department of Labor and Industry?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, it might be done by referring it back to the conference committee with instructions to put it in again. I don't know. Maybe they have had a reason for not putting it in; maybe there is an explanation for their action in the entire matter, but I cannot understand why they restore the cut which they originally made to some of the departments and at the same time leave some of the drastic cuts as they went over to the Senate from the House.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I heartily agree with the gentleman from Berks; he is absolutely right. The Department of Labor and Industry has suffered the worst. Yes, as he said, some of the departments did not have anything taken from them.

I realize the fact that we have been here many weeks and I know that all of you desire to get home, but we cannot go home until we do something. Now, therefore, since we cannot alter or make a change in this report I think it is our duty to support it. Therefore, members of the House, vote for this conference report so that we may be able to vote on further constructive and humane legislative bills so that we may be able to feed the hungry people of the State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, if I may, I desire to further interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. STEEDLE. Certainly, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Allegheny, how long the conference committee of the House was in conference with the Senate in the consideration of changes in the original conference report?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, my reply is, about two hours today.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, may I further ask whether the House conferees informed the Senate conferees of the mandate of the House through its vote of the desire that increases on the part of the conference committee should be made in economies?

Mr. STEEDLE. We did, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask, did you find the Senate adamant in its position

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, did we find them what?

Mr. SPANGLER. I ask, Mr. Speaker, did you find them firm, unyielding?

Mr. STEEDLE. Absolutely, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, may I ask further, did they with any force urge an increase in the reductions of the several departments?

Mr. STEEDLE. We did, Mr. Speaker. I will answer that question by saying that they still remain firm.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, my purpose in asking this question of the chairman of the Appropriation Committee is to find out from him whether there was any sincere effort put forth on the part of the committee of conference of the House to insist on the position that the House has from the beginning taken and which at present time it is about to recede from.

It seems to me that when this conference committee appeared before the Senate conference committee they might have shown a little more firmness, a little more vigor, a little more force, in their effort to persuade the Senate committee of the position of the House, and from all that I can gather it appears that our House committee was very acquiescent and that they have not in their agreement with the Senate conference committee expressed the view of the House, unless now the House is willing to take a complete somersault and agree with the Senate and with the Governor.

Mr. HEFFRAN. Mr. Speaker, before this debate closes on this bill, it seems to me that someone at least should express their confidence and appreciation of the work done by the sub-committee of the Appropriations Committee. As one member of this House who has been in more or less close touch with them, I desire to say that I appreciate their work and want to point out this fact particularly. That is, that what they have accomplished has laid the groundwork for the next Legislature, which comes back here in four and half months from now, to accomplish much along this same line in a splendid and constructive way. They have gathered much information that is useful. The record is full of information that the Appropriation Committee and the Ways and Means Committee can take up at that time, and there can be, and no doubt will be further economies effected. This is a splendid piece of work and it only affects the remaining ten months of the year. It does seem to me that the commonsense thing to do now is to concur in this report and then follow this up along the line so ably suggested by the lady from Westmoreland, Mrs. Denman. I am sure that we are in a position where we can and will do something to take care of the special revenues needed for the unemployment relief under the Talbot bill and in which I hope the Senate will concur.

I ask the House particularly, inasmuch as this committee has worked faithfully, and inasmuch as His Excellency the Governor of the Commonwealth, is now on record to the effect that there will be no further abatements if this bill is laid on his desk, to vote aye for concurrence on this report.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the report of the conference committee

RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

Mr. RIAL offered the following resolution which was read and referred to the Committee on Appropriations:

In the Senate, August 16, 1932.

Whereas, A demand for public utility regulations became general in this Commonwealth prior to 1913 and in consequence and after the best legal minds in Pennsylvania had devoted months to its study the Public Service Act was passed, since interpreted and construed by the State and Federal Appellate Courts forming a substantial body of law intimately affecting comfort and happiness of our people, and

Whereas, In the administration of that law certain weaknesses have been shown to exist demanding substantial amendatory legislation and the Senate of Pennsylvania in the Regular Session of 1931 passed such relief legislation, namely the McClure Bill, Senate Bill No. 414, known as the People's Counsel Bill and which would have given speedy and substantial relief to rate payers and any communities complaining against a utility rate without any cost to such communities; the Parkinson Bill, Senate Bill No. 483, which would have denied to any public utility the right to issue securities until such securities had been approved by the Public Service Commission thus preventing the watering of utility stock and other abuses of similar character and the Howell Bill, No. 259, which took away from public utilities the right to increase rates by merely filing a scheduled increase, all of which legislation was killed by orders of Governor Pinchot, and

Whereas, The public is entitled to know all the facts both as to the law creating the Commission and its personnel so that public confidence in the integrity of the efficiency and personnel of the State Government may be fully restored; and

Whereas, The revelations in the W. D. B. Ainey proceedings and the failure of Mr. Ainey to meet the charges on the ground of financial inability and health has shaken public confidence in the Public Service Commission; therefore be it

Resolved, That the President Pro Tempore of the Senate is hereby authorized to appoint a committee consisting of seven members of the Senate, which committee is hereby directed to make a full, complete, impartial and searching investigation, (a) of the allegations that money and other valuable considerations were paid, given or extended to or for the benefit of members of the Public Service Commission by public utility companies or individuals connected therewith to influence their decisions, (b) whether public utility companies and individuals connected therewith other than the ones named in the prior investigation have had improper relations with members of the Commission, (c) whether public utility companies have been securing unfair advantage by corrupt means, (d) of the administration of the Public Service Company Law by the Public Service Commission, and of the changes needed in said law to render full, justice to the public and to utility companies, (e) of the affairs and personnel of the Public Service Commission since 1913, and (f) such other facts, matters and affairs as shall be deemed necessary by the committee in order to enable it to make a comprehensive report to the Senate or such recommendations for action by the Senate, as it deems necessary;

Resolved, That said committee shall have all the powers of the Senate when engaged in the transaction of executive business, power to transact which is conferred only upon the Senate by the Constitution and laws of the Commonwealth;

Resolved, That said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman, duly attested by the Secretary of the Senate, requiring and commanding any person or persons to appear before it and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary, and to take testimony of witnesses outside of Pennsylvania and for that purpose to issue commissions or other appropriate proceedings. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person, and shall have the same force and effect as subpoenas issuing out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of the committee shall have power to administer oaths or affirmations to witnesses appearing before it. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to appear and testify before said committee, or to produce any books, papers, records and documents, shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of this Commonwealth in such cases;

Resolved, That the committee be authorized to request the Attorney General to render such advice and service as it deems necessary and to turn over to its such information as he may have in his possession;

Resolved, That the committee be authorized to employ such attorney, accountants, experts, stenographers, clerks and other agents as it may deem necessary in conducting said investigation, to fix the compensation of the persons so employed, which compensation and the expenses of the members of the committee shall be paid out of an appropriation made at this session of the Legislature;

Resolved, That the Sergeant-at Arms of the Senate be directed to attend said committee to serve subpoenas issued by it, and generally to enforce all orders which said committee may make, his compensation to be fixed by the committee, which compensation and the expenses of the Sergeant-at-Arms shall be paid for appropriations made at this session of the Legislature;

Resolved, That the powers of the committee created by this resolution to investigate the matters comprehended by this resolution be and the same are hereby continued after the adjournment of the Senate in order that the executive business of the Senate may be duly expedited;

Resolved, That the committee shall make its report to the regular session of the Legislature of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, in order that appropriate action may be taken as early as possible.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, there are now in the Committee on Appropriations two bills dealing with a very vital subject, a subject that concerns every household in the State of Pennsylvania. Both these bills deserve careful and intelligent consideration by the members of this body. The Committee on Appropriations is composed of forty-four members of the Senate; and that it was considered a most important committee is attested by the fact that so many Senators requested that they be placed on that committee, and were so placed.

I believe that no more important legislation will come before us for our consideration, except, possibly, the bills to alleviate the sufferings of the people of Pennsylvania in this great economic depression; and I say to you tonight that I think it would be highly profitable, and in accordance with the rules of this body, for us to give these bills the careful consideration that they deserve. That can be done only at a meeting of the Committee on Appropriations, and with all due respect, and with all the courtesy that I can command, I ask the privilege of interrogating the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, the Senator from Centre, Mr. Scott.

I note Mr. Scott has left the room, and therefore I will say to this body what I intended to say to him,—that this body functions under Jefferson's Manual and the Rules of the Senate; and I want to say to Mr. Scott,—though he cannot hear me now, he can read it in the record,—that the rules provide that meetings of the Committee on Appropriations shall be held; and I want to serve notice on Mr. Scott, as the Chairman of that committee, that I will ask, very strongly, that he do not attempt to report out either my resolution or the resolution of my colleague, the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Rial, without its having been given very careful consideration at a meeting of the Committee on Appropriations; and I want to serve notice on the officers of this body that it will be contrary to the rules governing this body if the Senator from Centre, Mr. Scott, attempts to report this bill out without a meeting of the committee; and I say there must be such a meeting, and I shall insist upon my rights, as a member of this Senate, to object if it should be done otherwise.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. COYNE, Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. COYNE, from the Committee on Finance, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 193 (House Bill No. 257), entitled:

We are seekers after light; seekers for truth; seekers who want to know Thy will. We bless Thee that light is breaking; that truth will prevail; and Thy will—not ours alone—shall be done.

And when Thy wish and will is fulfilled, for all Thy people throughout this Commonwealth, we will be satisfied. Amen.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. HEFFRAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Ways and Means for the purpose of further consideration.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, why should this cigaret tax bill go back to the Committee? Why can it not remain on the calendar? It can be put on the postponed calendar. We don't know when we may need it. I would ask that you vote down this motion and keep the bill on the calendar.

Mr. HEFFRAN. Mr. Speaker, if the time comes for the consideration of this bill during this session there will be amendments offered to the bill. Those amendments can better be considered in Committee I think than on the floor of the House, and for that reason I ask you to vote for the motion to recommit it.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE (SPECIAL ORDER)

The SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House the Special Order of the day on final passage, it being House Bill No. 254, Printer's No. 267, on page 1 of the calendar.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 254, entitled:

An Act authorizing the transfer of money from the Motor License Fund to the General Fund for the payment of appropriations for unemployment relief, and for the retransfer of such moneys from the General Fund to the Motor License Fund during the fiscal biennium beginning June first, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, and making an appropriation necessary to effect such transfers.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, may I first say that I regret very much that the co-sponsor of this bill, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, is unable to be here by reason of his being confined to bed, due to illness.

Members of the House, the bill before you provides that if and when necessary there shall be taken from the Motor License Fund and transferred to the General Fund, sums of money up to twelve millions of dollars, these monies to be repaid by the state of Pennsylvania, the repayment to commence on June 1, 1932, in twenty-four equal monthly payments. Please note, members, that this bill does not give to the General Fund one dollar. It merely loans money to the General Fund as the General Fund in the past has loaned money to the Motor Fund. The security that the Motor Fund has is the best security within the confines of the State of Pennsylvania, namely the state of Pennsylvania itself.

Members of the House, is there a necessity for this bill? You have answered that. You have passed the Talbot Relief Bill; you have seen the needs of the people of Pennsylvania, and you have appropriated twelve million dollars for those needs. There is no necessity for me to paint pictures of distress; you have already realized that.

The question is, what have you done? Have you made an idle gesture, have you merely passed that bill in order to placate the newspapers and the people of this Commonwealth, or are you sincerely and conscientiously anxious to provide the wherewithall, in order that that bill might be effective practically as well as theoretically?

If you agree with me you must do one of three things, you must either pass this bill, or you must impose additional taxes upon people of this Comonwealth, or if you fail in either of those two things, you must adjourn, go home, and say to every state in the union, "We, the Legislature of Pennsylvania, are a complete and utter failure." Let us analyze which of the two you ought to do. Ought you to transfer this money or ought you to impose additional taxes upon an already overburdened, over-harrassed taxpayer and consumer? The choice lies with you. You will either let us borrow this money, you will let us tide ourselves over until we come back to meet again, you will lend us the money from the Motor Fund and put it into another fund, money that is now in the coffers of the state of Pennsylvania, or you are going to say to the taxpayer, you are going to say to the consumer, "You are not taxed enough. We feel that the burden upon you should be greater, and we are going to put upon your heads more levies, more taxes," and tomorrow you will vote for a general sales tax and tax the consumer and tax every man, woman and child within the confines of your district. Is that fair? Is not this the easiest way, and is not this the proper way, just transferring these monies from the Motor Fund to the General Fund? We loaned it to you when you needed it. Loan it to us. We will pay you back. The people won't pay any more taxes and the Legislature will go home having provided relief.

Members of the House, I ask you what is there so holy, what is there so sacred, and what is there so sanctimonious about this road fund, about the road building program, that you sort of treat it as a little child, that you sort of say to this fund, "You are so big, you are so powerful that even for the sake of taking care of the starving, even for the sake of taking care of the hungry, thou shalt not be touched." What is there so holy about this fund that the Secretary of Highways issues a circular letter wherein—shall we say that negligently, shall we say inadvertently or shall we say wilfully—attempts to fool you, omits from that letter, forgets in that letter and takes out of that letter all the estimated revenue that would come into the Motor License Fund between now and June 1, 1933, which according to the mildest estimates would be upward of fifty million dollars. We have heard a great deal about the juggling of figures, we have heard a great deal about being unable to get accurate statements, but it seems to me that there can be no such thing as a mistake by the Secretary of Highways to you members when he fails to tell you in that letter that this Motor License Fund today and each day, and each week and each month gets richer and richer. Yet in that letter he would have you believe that the twenty million dollars in that fund is all the money that the Motor License Fund has.

I say to you that the Secretary of Highways is to be condemned for putting out such a circular to fool and bewilder you, because that letter was meant to fool and bewilder you, as have other figures that have been given to us.

I say to the members of this House, that if there was ever a time when political expediency should be cast to the four winds, there to wander and there to drift and there to disappear, this is the time.

Righteousness, conscientiousness of purpose, the desire to do that which is right towards the unemployed, towards the hungry, the needy and the starving, as opposed to what is wrong, now is the time to do so.

I do not think, as has been expressed by others, that we ought at this time consider whether we will be re-elected or whether we will not, that we ought not at his time to consider whether our constituents will be sore at us because we voted against a road program. I say that your constituents will think you are bigger men and bigger women if you do that which is right, and are bold, fearless and brave about it.

Members of the House, let me say this to you, this is not a Philadelphia measure. These twelve million dollars do not go to Philadelphia. You know that we pay more in than we will get out. The needy in every county in this state, the hungry in every portion of this state are as much entitled to relief as the hungry in Philadelphia and vice versa. Out of the twelve million dollars, if we need it, Philadelphia will only get three million dollars. The rest of the people will get nine million dollars and if you do not need it, it won't be taken out. It cannot be construed as a one-man bill. It is a bill for the needy and the unemployed throughout the state of Pennsylvania. Let me come to the question of the money in the Highway Department. Do you have an idle twenty million dollars? Is that fund there? I say that it is. I have the figures from the Auditor General's Department, and those figures show that if we spend as much money—mind you not an equal amount, but if we spend as much, if not more, money this year than last year, this biennium as compared with the last biennium, we will still have over nineteen million dollars, over and above what the figures indicate. Mind you, I could well argue to you and you must agree with me that even if you have to curtail your road program, even if you have to put a few men out of work, to feed your thousands of people, you ought to do it, and with the identical program as last year, you would still have over nineteen or twenty million dollars. Am I fooling you? Read Sam Lewis' letter. Add to that letter the estimated income, which you know comes in every day to the Motor License Fund, and the answer is patent.

Members of this House, let me close by saying this: The responsibility, the choice is yours. I have done and am doing my utmost. I know that speeches and oratory very seldom influence votes. I have been here long enough to know that. Members of the House, this is a question between you and God. It is no longer a question between you and politics, it is no longer a question between you and the people back home. It is a question between the good Lord who looks over us and the innermost conscience of our hearts, and we must determine whether we are going to be unselfish, whether we are going to let the hungry and the needy starve and die of hunger while we listen to voices that are not the voices of the people.

I ask you, I beg you, I implore you in this day and in this hour, whether to impose no new taxes, let us borrow this money and we will pay it back, provide the relief, and let us go home.

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. Mr. Speaker, did I understand the gentleman from Philadelphia correctly, when he said that if there ever was a time to cast political expediency to the four winds, it is now?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I did, sir, absolutely.

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. May I ask you another question?

Mr. WITKIN. You may.

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. With what grace can Philadelphia come here and ask us to give them financial aid when they refused to pass a bill that would save fifteen or twenty million dollars? I refer to the Woodward bill.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, in the first instance, I will answer that question by saying that I do not know that Philadelphia has ever refused to pass any bill that would save any amount of money. In the second place, I think the question that the gentleman has asked injects something that I think ought not to be injected into this question, to wit; politics, and in the third place, if I heard your question correctly, I did not argue that Philadelphia is here asking for this bill. I am here as a member of this Legislature representing the whole State of Pennsylvania and I argue that every part of the State of Pennsylvania would be benefited if this bill passed.

Mr. KLECKNER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. KLECKNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, taking the facts as presented by the gentleman from Philadelphia, does not this situation present itself: The alternative of passing this bill in order to secure immediate relief, or taxing the public, which is over taxed, or facing a deficiency and possibly depriving the Secretary of Revenue from going out of office with a surplus greater than thirty-eight million dollars left at the conclusion of the Fisher Administration?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I would say "yes" in answer to that question, and I would also say in further explanation of my answer, that even under the sales tax the monies would not come in within the proper time to take care of the poor and needy, because under the provisions of that act the monies would not be paid until after March, 1933.

Mr. KLECKNER. The monies, Mr. Speaker, can only be payable after the return of the gross receipts, after March of 1933?

Mr. WITKIN. That is my understanding of the bill, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. KLECKNER. And it will probably take at least thirty days, Mr. Speaker, in order to collect the taxes, will it not, under the emergency relief?

Mr. WITKIN. That is my judgment.

Mr. KLECKNER. And considering the necessity of available revenue, Mr. Speaker, is it not a fact that an equitable determination of the question of fact which confront us depend upon whether the constitutionality of the proposed emergency sales tax, House Bill No. 264, might be in question, which might delay the collection for possibly two years?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I would say that is true. I would also say, if you will permit me, and indulge me, that I do not care whether the sales taxes are collected tomorrow morning. I do not think that the people of Pennsylvania ought to be taxed when there is money available in the treasury that can be used to carry this great Commonwealth over for a period of a few months.

Mr. KLECKNER. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman enlighten us as to whether the public utility service charges would be taxable under House Bill No. 264, which specifically excludes only the farmer's own products and real estate.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I am perfectly willing to answer the questions, although I do not think that they are germane to the bill. I would say, however, that the public service rates are not taxed under the general tax bill, as I understand it; only tangible personal property being taxable.

Mr. KLECKNER. I am trying to ascertain the facts in regard to the question of taxability and the possible revenue, Mr. Speaker, or the transfer of immediate funds, in order to provide relief, and that is why I am endeavoring to assemble the facts, to ascertain whether we are adopting the right course of procedure or whether we should pass the proposed emergency relief retail tax bill.

Mr. WITKIN. I think your question answers itself. It is either a question of using these funds or taxing the people. I do not think the people ought to be taxed.

Mr. KLECKNER. Mr. Speaker, if House Bill No. 264 is possibly in question as violating the sanctity of contracts or of fixed charges, as determined and approved by the Public Service Commission, then it seems to me, as a rural county representative, your point is well taken, that this bill should be passed now, in order to have at hand the twelve millions and to afford the Governor an opportunity and possibly an alibi to veto it, if the emergency sales tax is passed and approved by the Senate and the Governor.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman is asking the question, I do not think that the Governor, if this is the only bill that is before him, would dare veto it.

Mr. KLECKNER. Is it not a fact that "Acres of Diamonds" written by your late lamented Philadelphian, is applicable right before you in this department, in that the money is available as shown in the figures submitted by the gentleman from Beaver, and would it not be better without delay, to give the poor bread instead of giving them concrete, without further taxes, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. WITKIN. I have attempted so to argue, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, last Sunday the "Philadelphia Ledger" had an editorial which was referred to by the good lady from Westmoreland, Mrs. Denman.

I shall read excerpts from that editorial which I think probably covers the question, and probably drives it home to all the rural members of the House. One of the paragraphs in this particular editorial reads as follows:

"Most of the members of this Legislature are good people. Most of them, too, if they saw a hungry baby crying for milk, would dash the tears from their eyes and hurry to the nearest store to fed it."

Down a little farther in the editorial it says:

"These stubborn rural members feel it is unfair and outrageous for the cities to try to come upon their districts for aid. At home they are getting along pretty well, all things considered. Hunger does not stalk in the green fields—yet. Except among the city members, and perhaps not among all of them, distress is still an academic question. One may talk of the dire facts of hungry women and little children on the hot city streets, but they don't see it and feel it. A city member cannot seem to convince his fellow legislators about that fact."

I appeal to you for these hungry babies. These hungry people are looking to us to give them aid. We must give them aid.

Possibly the rural members have been charging Philadelphia with something it is not responsible for. The same thing may hold true of Pittsburgh, something that it is not responsbile for, but all of those members know the story of the prodigal son: Even though we may have erred, come with us and help us now because we are in distress. We need your help. This bill will provide help for the needy. It is merely a loan from the Motor License Fund to us to relieve distress. Are you going to turn your backs on us? Please do not do it. Give us help, we need it and we need it badly: Philadelphia with fifty-eight thousand families, Pittsburgh in proportion to its population has a large number of families suffering in a like manner. Please give us help. We need it, we must have it, and I know you will vote to give it to us.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Stadtlander.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Stadtlander, permit himself to be intrrogated?

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, has the gentleman from Pittsburgh figured how many bottles of milk he could buy with the money they are paying their delinquent tax collector, in the amount of $100,000 a year in that county?

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to answer that question in this way: no doubt the gentleman from Monroe is an attorney practicing law. There is no doubt that on many occasions commercial concerns come to him to ask him to make collections, and whenever that happens and he states that he will make the collections, he also tells them that it will cost them all the way from twenty-five to fifty per cent to make the collections.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Speaker, tell me what the political organization in his county has done about putting their own house in order to take care of their own situation?

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I can answer that readily. The Mayor and the Councilmen—we have nine councilmen—each councilman gets eight thousand dollars a year, which amounts to $667 a month, the Mayor receives fifteen thousand dollars per year, and each and every one of them has agreed to turn over one month's salary towards unemployment relief in Pittsburgh.

Mr. STEWART. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, after listening to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, and the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Stadtlander, it appears that they are of the opinion that hunger, destitution and starvation are rampant only in their two respective cities of the Commonwealth.

I wish it were possible to take these two gentlemen to other parts of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, of which apparently they have no knowledge that they even exist.

We all realize the need for a welfare relief fund, but I believe that if they were in possession of the facts as we are, who come from certain rural counties effected by this depression just as much as are the cities, they would not for a moment consider such a juggling of state funds, which would have no effect except to increase the need for relief in these several rural counties so affected. Because we are styled rural and agricultural sections does not mean at all that there is food, and clothing and shelter for the needy.

I ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, and the gentleman from Allegheny to concede that I know something about my district. I am perfectly willing to admit that they know conditions in their own districts, but it seems that they choose to ignore all the things that I and others have told them of conditions existing in other districts of the Commonwealth.

I repeat that any monies taken from the Motor License Fund at this time will but increase the problems of unemployment and relief in the several counties of the Commonwealth, and will be of advantage to nobody except possibly Philadelphia and Allegheny counties, and I can hardly imagine that they want to put themselves in the position of helping themselves at the expense of their brothers.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it appears to me that this bill should pass. First, because the bill is only taking away part of the money that has been loaned by the General Fund to the Motor Fund, and secondly, because it is imperative that this Legislature find some source from which to derive funds for the purpose of unemployment.

We all know that we have been for eight weeks and that we are today just where we were when we started. So far as the probability of passing additional tax bills is concerned there is very little likelihood of that accomplishment and what will, therefore, be the result? We will adjourn without having done one single thing.

There are only two sources, as I see it and as I have tried to point out before, where any available money could be had for the purposes for which this Legislature has been called. One is economies, but from the looks of things at the present time, it would appear that we have forgotten in this House that a depression exists. The other is by the transfer of funds from departments where the money is not needed or could be better used at this time for unemployment relief. Those are the only two sources from which we can get money without taxation or bond issues.

Taxation at the present time is not only impractical and unfeasible, but it certainly is most unpopular throughout the State.

What is the state of affairs so far as the Highway Department is concerned? The amount of revenue that the Highway Department has spent for about five years amounts to approximately one hundred and fifty million dollars or half of the total revenue of the entire State of Pennsylvania.

It is needless for me to point out to you that so far as the Highway Department is concerned, this Legislature knows no more about the expenditures and the extravagances which prevail in connection with the Highway Department than we know about politics in Kamchataka. We have absolutely no control over any money that the Highway Department spends. They go ahead and spend this money ad libitam and misuse it in many instances.

It is not an effort on the part of the Legislature to take twelve million dollars from the Highway Department in a lump sum, but it is asking the Highway Department, in a time of crisis, in a time of need, to return to us the eight million dollars that the Highway Department owes us, so that we may use for it for unemployment relief, and in addition we are taking only four million dollars or so much as may be necessary for the further purpose of unemployment.

It seems to me that this is asking very little from the biggest spending department of the State government, and I want you further to take into consideration the fact that in all the reductions in the Steedle bill, and they have been more than enough in some other departments, not one dollar of reduction has been asked of the Highway Department.

We need this money now; we must have it now; this is the place to get it, and for that reason, it seems to me entirely proper that this Department of Highways should be willing, more than willing, should gratuitously offer us this extra four million dollars for the purposes for which we need it. If we do not get this twelve million dollars, we will be in a dilemma from which I am of the opinion, we will not be able to emerge. I, therefore, ask every member of this House to vote in support of this measure.

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to call the attention of the House to just one or two things in connection with this bill.

In the first place, if we pass this bill we put out of employment, out of gainful employment at least twenty thousand men in this Commonwealth. Now, when these twenty thousand men are gainfully employed, that means that if they have an average family of five dependent upon them, you at once put one hundred thousand people on the dole system, you take away from them the bread winner, you take away by the passage of this act, the twenty thousand men who are gainfully employed on the highways of this Commonwealth, and you would add to the unemployed problem by passing this bill.

Another matter that I would like to direct your attention to is this: The Secretary of Highways tells us that there are about twenty million dollars in the Highway Department at the present time. Are there any obligations outstanding against that twenty million dollars? Why, of course, there are. We know that two years ago there was transferred from the general fund to the Highway Fund a matter of about ten million dollars, that the Highway Fund now owes General Fund a matter of eight millions out of those twenty millions. Then, there is another matter in which the Highway Department is obligated and that is the matter of Federal Aid money that is used for highway construction, and even under the Reconstruction Finance Corporation act passed this year, you must remember whatever Pennsylvania borrows must come out of the Motor License Fund in repayment. I will read to you under section 1 of the emergency relief construction act of 1932, under "B" these words: "The amounts paid under this section shall be reimbursed to the corporation with interest thereon at the rate of three per cent per annum by making annual deductions beginning with the fiscal year 1935 from regular apportionments made from future authorizations in aid of the states and territories for the construction of highways and rural post roads of an amount equal to one-fifth of the share which said state would be entitled to receive." So, we have out of this twenty millions—we owe now the General Fund eight millions, we owe on federal relief, we have mortgaged at the present time the future road building program in Pennsylvania to the amount of eight million eight hundred thousand dollars of the emergency relief, that has already been used or is now being used in the construction of roads in this Commonwealth. If we have a balance of twenty million and the Highway Department owes to the General Fund eight million and they will owe very shortly eight million eight hundred thousand to the Federal Government, then how in the name of common sense can we take twelve more millions from the Motor License Fund?

I believe that Secretary Lewis is right when he says that if we pass this act it will put the Highway Department out of business——

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Lycoming, Mr. Bidelspacher.

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. When I am through, you may. To my mind, if we pass this act, we put out of gainful employment, twenty thousand men in this Commonwealth. We are passing an act that is unwise, unfair and un-American.

I ask you to vote this bill down.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Lycoming, Mr. Bidelspacher.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lycoming permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, do I understand the gentleman from Lycoming to state that it is his opinion that if twelve million dollars is transferred from the Highway Department to the General Fund, it will throw out of employment twenty thousand people?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. I am firmly of that opinion, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Lycoming know how many men were employed during the last year upon highway road construction?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. At one time, Mr. Speaker, in the peak of road construction there were some thirty-one thousand employed.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Lycoming know how many men are now employed upon road construction?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. In round numbers, about twenty thousand, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Do I understand then, Mr. Speaker, the gentleman to admit that there are twenty thousand persons now employed upon road construction—is that correct?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. That is practically true at the present time, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman know that the expected expenditures by the Highway Department for this biennium, the second year of the biennium, are fifty-nine millions of dollars?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. No; I do not understand that, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, if I stated to the gentleman from Lycoming that the figures submitted by the Secretary of Highways to this House showed that the expected expenditures for the years 1932 and 1933 are fifty-nine millions of dollars—

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker, if that is correct, then there will be a lot of federal aid money figured in there, which would have to be repaid.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, may I state to the gentleman that there are only five million dollars of federal money included? Now, if the gentleman admits that the road program for this year is, in round figures, sixty millions of dollars and if he admits that the Highway Department states that we have sufficient moneys to meet that sixty million dollars, and if the gentleman will further admit that all we want is twelve million dollars, and if there are twenty thousand people working today, and we only take one-fifth of that fund, borrow one-fifth of that fund, does the gentleman contend that the taking of the one-fifth of sixty million dollars will throw out of employment the entire twenty thousand people that are now working upon the roads?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is working on the wrong premise. I am not willing to admit that sixty million dollars will be expended during the coming year.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, do I then understand that the gentleman from Lycoming differs with the statement, in writing, submitted by the Secretary of the Highway Department to this House, pursuant to request, itemized item by item, in which it is conceded and admitted that the estimated expenditures for the year 1932 and 1933 are $59,358,809.28, is that disputed?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker, that does not mean that that fifty-nine millions will be used on highways.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Lycoming know that the cash balance on June 1st, 1932, was over twenty-eight million, eight hundred and fifty-eight thousand and some odd dollars?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. That may be, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker does the gentleman know that the balance available today for road construction is $86,266,328, and that including administrative expenses, but only sixty-seven million and some odd thousand dollars are to be used?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker, I do not know of any such thing.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Lycoming still contend to this House that he believes that taking that twelve million dollars it will throw twenty thousand men out of employment?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker, I do. In answer to that question, I am quoting; "at the close of business on Monday, August 8, 1932, there was a balance in the Motor License Fund of $20,544,470.36.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I understand that the gentleman is reading from a letter from Mr. Lewis?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker, I am.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Lycoming admit or does he deny that from August 8th, 1932, up until June 1, 1933, there will continue to pour into the treasury of the Motor License Fund, monies from the gas tax, monies from drivers licenses and all that sort of thing which, if it equals last year, will amount for the total year to over sixty-nine million dollars.

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker, I do, but at the same time, the Department of Highways owes the General Fund eight million dollars at the present time, and owes the Federal Government, eight million, eight hundred thousand dollars, that must come out of that.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, but does the gentleman admit that sixty-five million dollars have been collected in June and July, and if the estimated revenue is equal to or even less than last year, there will be an additional sixty-four million dollars that will come into this fund, which is more than ample to pay the two eight million dollar items that he has referred to?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker, I do not admit that.

Mr. WITKIN. Does the gentleman says he does not know or does he deny it?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker, I do not admit that figure.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman spoke of borrowing from the General Fund by the Motor Fund of ten million dollars. Does the gentleman from Lycoming know that the Motor Fund has never used and never had in its treasury any portion of that ten million dollars and has practically never touched that fund?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker, answering the gentleman from Philadelphia, I want to call his attention to this fact: that all over this Commonwealth there are now obligations that the Highway Department must meet for tentative road programs that have been set up, that have been approved by the engineers of the Highway Department, that have been approved all the way through, and that contracts have been let for many of those programs, so that the——

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman from Lycoming able to give us exact figures as to what contracts have been let and as to how much money all over the Commonwealth they amount to?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker, I understand to the extent of about ten million dollars.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman estimates the total number of contracts let is ten million, that the money owed to the General Fund is eight million, that the money owed to the Federal Government, according to his own figures, which I dispute, is eight million eight hundred thousand dollars, making a total of twenty-six million dollars, and does the gentleman admit that as against that twenty-six million dollars there is now in the treasury as of August 1, 1932, twenty million dollars and that there is estimated revenue of sixty-four million dollars more to come in between now and June 1, 1933.

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker, my answer to that is this, that we have the gasoline tax that goes into the Motor License Fund, that the gasoline tax money has been used for years for highway construction purposes. I do not care what the estimated revenues for the Commonwealth may be for the rest of the year; that tax money, that motor tax money should be used for highway purposes, and as it is used for highway purposes more people will be gainfully employed, and the whole Commonwealth will benefit by the use of that gasoline money on the highways.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, do I understand then that the gentleman from Lycoming recedes from the position that the financial structure of the Motor License Fund would not permit of the taking of the twelve million dollars and now adopts the position and takes the position that since from time immemorial this gas tax has been used for highway purposes, it ought today be used for highway purposes, irrespective of conditions in this Commonwealth with starvation and hunger running rampant throughout the State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker, I do not recede from my position at all. There is now in the Highway Department around twenty million dollars, a lot of which is encumbered so far as contracts on the highways are concerned and, in addition, they owe the General Fund eight million and owe the Federal Government, eight million eight hundred thousand dollars. Now, we are figuring as of today, I cannot estimate, of course, what the income will be for the future; that is problematical.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman, in view of his answer one further question?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. All right.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, do I then understand that, in conclusion, the gentleman is willing to concede that there is twenty million dollars in the treasury and against that twenty million he wants to place all the obligations of the Highway Department, and that his answer as to the estimated revenues is "I don't know what they will be" is that his position?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker, I don't know; no.

Mr. WITKIN In other words, the gentleman is not willing to concede that there will be thirty million dollars between now and June 1st 1933?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker, in answer to that I would say that, by the passage of this act, we are establishing a dangerous precedent, when we take the gasoline tax money for general revenues purposes, and it should not be done.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Lycoming, Mr. Bidelspacher.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lycoming, Mr. Bidelspacher, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker, yes, one question.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman offers to answer one question.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, did I undesrtand the gentleman from Lycoming to say that he will answer one question?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Yes.

Mr. DUNN. Well, Mr. Speaker, I just have two very important questions. Did I understand the gentleman from Lycoming to say that if this bill were enacted into law, it would put twenty thousand men out of work?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Yes sir, I understand so, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, did I understand the gentleman to say "yes?"

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Yes, sir.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, did I also understand the gentleman to say that at least one hundred thousand people would be put on the dole system if this bill were passed?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker, assuming that there are five dependents for each man gainfully employed.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, I have no desire to prolong this argument, but I was given an extra point by our good friend, Mr. Bidelspacher. We read in the Bible where Christ took five barley loaves and seven fishes and fed about five thousand people. Of course, we members of the Legislature have not the ability to perform such miracles, but in my opinion if this bill passes this House and is enacted into law, I would say that the Special Session at this time would be performing a miracle, because they have brought out a bill that is worthwhile. They are going to take work from twenty thousand people and then put food in the mouths of one hundred thousand people. Now, if that isn't a miracle, I don't know.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it seems to me in view of the statement that has been made here—and no doubt it is true— that if we enact this bill into law it will feed one hundred thousand people, the bill should be voted for.

Mr. McELWEE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not consider this bill is immune from litigation. I do not assume that any bill that would pass would be so immune, but if I read this bill aright it attempts to make two appropriations: One from the Highway Fund to the General Fund, and another in 1933 from the General Fund to the Highway Fund. This bill certainly is not the general appropriation bill, and if it be not the general appropriation bill and attempts to make two appropriations, then it is a violation of Section 15 of Article 3 of the Constitution, which expressly says that each appropriation not in the general appropriation bill must be in a separate bill.

Again, I desire to call the attention of the House to the fact that this so called loan from the Highway Fund to the General Fund may be "yes" and may be "no." This bill expressly provides that the payment of this fund shall not be made as a charge against the appropriations of 1932, but for the biennium beginning June first, 1933, and in the meantime the regular session of the Legislature shall have convened and I hope adjourned, and they will not be in any way bound or encumbered by this legislation, which we might now pass, if we were to pass this bill. I believe that it is a mistake to assume that it is merely a loan, because unless it is supported by the regular session in 1933, it will not be such a loan.

Mr. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have listened with a great deal of interest to the different speakers, and I was prompted, upon referring to a record that I have had in my desk, to come out here.

Mr. Witkin, I believe, said that the Highway Department—I understood him to say so; if I am wrong, he can correct me—had about sixty million dollars of a balance. Is that right?

Mr. WITKIN. No.

Mr. PATTERSON. Then, I beg your pardon. I thought you would all be interested in the report here from the Treasurer's office and the figures of expenditures of the Highway Department from June 1, 1931, to the thirty-first of July, 1932. It seems that there was a $14,907,000 balance on hand on the first of June, and that the Department received $75,247,000 during the fourteen months. I am not taking into account the ten million dollars borrowed from the General Fund, because it will then be easier to figure mentally the amount necessary to conduct the Highway Department.

I notice that they expend on an average of five million six hundred thousand dollars, in round figures. As I have said, they had over fourteen million dollars in the beginning. They have received $75,247,000, so that the receipts were about six million and a half monthly; the average monthly receipts were about six million and a half. They expended during the fourteen months, $78,138,000, and, of course, they transferred from that fund the ten million dollars they now owe, so that their average monthly expenditure was five million seven hundred thousand dollars. They had remaining at the end of those fourteen months twenty million three hundred forty-nine thousand dollars, so that the Highway Department, in my opinion, needs to conduct its ordinary business about six million and a half a month. They will likely during the next ten months, if things continue as they were during the fourteen months—they will receive fifty-six million dollars in the next ten months, and that would make it seventy million at the end of the biennium.

I have given that information to you because I feel that the Highway Department should not be attacked, and I also have other reasons for having that opinion.

I believe that we have lying around us several millions of dollars, but we do not go after them. The Highway Department, as well as the other departments, is miserly, when they get anything they want to keep it, and we, as representatives seem to be prejudiced against their statements. We pay attention to the departments and try to get money from them, but we cannot.

We are going out now for more taxes, which I think we should not do, and I shall vote against any tax measure. I also shall vote against this measure, because I feel that we do not go to the Highway Department. If we go out in pursuit of funds, I think we should go after those that are lightly lying around. I just wanted to make that explanation so that you would understand the reason why I shall vote against this bill. I feel that we should take some action to ascertain whether we really have this twenty-three million dollars, that I think we do have.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Patterson.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Patterson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Beaver what funds he has referred to that are available now for transfer or use.

Mr. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, the funds that I indicated in the report I had here yesterday. Two weeks ago I gave you a similar report, but apparently there was no attention paid to it, in order to try and induce the representatives to get busy after they departed, because I am convinced there is a lot of money if we would go after it.

In submitting the report yesterday, and the report two weeks ago, I though perhaps, I would have some cooperation, but I had none. I attempted to show by those reports, that if it cost so much money the average monthly expenditure, and by deduction I indicated that the departments that are drawing from the General Fund would not get any more than the same sum monthly that they used for the fourteen months. I feel that we are just simply sitting around here, looking to the Highway Department, looking toward taxation without thinking of going out and finding whether there is some money lying around here. I hope that not only this bill, but the tax bill will be defeated, and that we will try to find out how much money is not now needed in the General Fund.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman desires to be practical insofar as raising revenues, does he not?

Mr. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I try to be.

Mr. SPANGLER. And now, Mr. Speaker, the gentleman realizes that bill No. 254 is a concrete revenue raiser, does he not?

Mr. PATTERSON. Yes, Mr. Speaker, I agree with the gentleman, but we are taking from the Highway Department the very means that we are now trying to provide, for unemployment. I say to you that I feel every member here thinks that the Highway Department has been a great savior. They have employed men, they have bought materials—the purchase of materials provides employment. As a matter of fact, the only criticism I can make of the Highway Department is that they have bought too much machinery from distant states.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman admits that the Highway Department has been extravagant?

Mr. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, yes; I will admit that, and I have never hesitated to tell Sam Lewis what I thought. He and I do not mince any words.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, what I have been trying to get from the gentleman from Beaver, is that here under this bill we have a concrete fund that the Legislature can now use immediately. The gentleman speaks of funds that are somewhere in the offing, that are indefinite and that are not available at the present time.

Mr. PATTERSON. Just as much as this, in my opinion, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, but the gentleman realizes that it is almost impossible for us to use those funds under existing conditions?

Mr. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, we could force the Administration to curtail more than we have. I regret very much that we had to knuckle down to the Senate. I regret that very much. I only stood it because I felt it was inevitable, and that the proper thing to do was better to get half a loaf than no loaf at all.

I think we should try and find out whether the Departments have the funds I think they have.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I feel that before we close we ought not to leave the record as it has been left by the Chairman of the Highway Committee in his statement.

I can sympathize with the members from the so-called rural counties, and I agree with what Mr. Patterson says that from my investigation and from talks among the members scattered over the State, that the Highway Department has been a great source of relief in this unemployment situation, and I know how jealously you men guard not only roads and their improvement, but under present conditions that you feel that it is a real source, a practical source of relief.

I would like to say for a moment too that the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Rhodes, and the gentleman from Washington in their remarks seem to me to indicate that they did not believe that relief was necessary or that any fund for direct relief from the State was necessary except for Philadelphia and Allegheny Counties. If that were the case, I am sure the record, as we have it, and from our experience under the Talbot bill passed in the 1931 session that it was a great benefit, not only to Philadelphia and Allegheny Counties, but to many other counties in this State. We know that it is carrying the counties along at the present time. We know that there is still some of that money available and will be available in many of our counties for the next few months.

I would like to say at the start, that if I thought for one moment the taking of this twelve million dollars from the Highway Fund would curtail the road program and employment in any of your counties, even to the very small extent that my friend from Lycoming has stated, I would be absolutely against it, because it would seem to me that we are only robbing Peter to pay Paul, which would not be a practical way to meet the situation.

The gentleman from Lycoming has been talking about the letter from the Secretary of Highways, which was referred to last night. Of course, it is a source of deep regret to me that what I stated in that letter did not sink any further than it seems to have sunk. Taking this letter of the Secretary of Highways, he says they have twenty million five hundred and forty thousand dollars; that they owe to the General Fund eight million dollars, that they owe the Federal Government or are obligated to the Federal Government eight million six hundred thousand dollars which is sixteen, and therefore under the reasons as given by the gentleman from Lycoming and the gentleman from Philadelphia, there would only be four million left in the Motor Fund to carry on during the rest of the year, but the Secretary of Highways, in his letter says that they have an obligation of sixteen million dollars more, which would mean thirty-two million dollars and they would only have twenty million to pay it. Of course, that is nonsensical. It is something that I do not believe would even get by any one who was strictly in favor of the Highway Department to the nth degree. Of course, it does not take into consideration the fact that the Highway Department during the rest of the biennium, the next months is going to have income. The gentleman from Lycoming says that he does not know anything about it, but whether he does or not he doesn't know, and we all know, as a matter of fact, that the income of the Highway Department, whether it be curtailed or not, is going to go on during the next ten months and that there will be money coming in. Now, it seems to me that this is just a practical proposition.

All we are asking to do is this: we say we do not believe it will be necessary to touch this twelve million dollars at all. There has been a lot said about the differences in the figures between the Secretary of Revenue and the Budget Secretary and some of us here in the House. There are no fundamental differences, it is only a question as to whether you estimate this figure on the estimates of revenue as of June 1, 1931 and put in certain additional revenue and using it or whether you make out a new estimate by which the revenues of the state of Pennsylvania would have to fall off thirty-five per cent under the revenues received last year before we could get down to the estimates of the Secretary of Revenue as to what we will receive, and I say to you, I have every regard for the fiscal officers and for the Secretary of Revenue and the estimates and the figures that he has available, I say to you that it does not appeal to me, and I do not from my talks with members of the House think it appeals to their common senses that the revenues for this year will fall off thirty-five per cent below those of last year. Therefore, if the revenues do not fall off below twenty-five per cent of last year, there will never be any need to go practically twenty-five per cent below the levels of last year before you have to touch this Highway Fund and then you only touch it if, as and when needed; not twelve million dollars to be paid out today. You don't take that twelve million dollars out of the fund. The Talbot bill calls for a million and a half a month during the eight months period. In other words, there is only to be used out of this twelve million, a million and a half each month during the next eight months. We know from the experience of last year and certainly from the reasonable experience of this year, that we will have at least five million or somewheres between that and six million coming in every month to the Highway Department, and if you take a million and a half dollars a month out of that, there will certainly be funds there with which to meet this program.

I do not believe, and I say this to you with all earnestness, and to my friends who believe the Highway Funds should not be jeopardized or touched in any degree, I say to you, if you pass this twelve million dollar bill, it will be a back log, merely a back log to the fiscal officers, in order that they may carry on during the next several months, and in four and a half months we will be back here in session. If we find then, as I said before, that the revenues are declining, it is easy enough for us to remedy it. If the sixteen million dollars that the Secretary of Highways has to be spent on contracts which have been already let and two millions more for bids that are going to be asked for, eighteen million dollars is not going to be spent today or next week, or next month, or the month after that, but it will be carried on for a period of months, and that period of time will roll around until we are back here in session, and then we can remedy it if necessary.

Let me point out to another thing before I close. We have asked other departments and other institutions of the state to effect economy but we have not said to the Highway Department—nor is there any bill or any legislation here, to effect economies in the Highway Department. Is it not your belief that economies can be effected in the Highway Department the same as they can be effected in any other department or institution. Is it not possible for them perhaps to even find ways and means to effect economies. All of this money that is received by the Highway Department does not go for labor on the road. Part of it goes for overhead expenses, part of it goes for engineering and part of it for the maintenance of the motor patrol, which I am advised is expending large sums of money and exceeding the expenditures of the past. On the other hand it proposes some economies that easily could be made. Let me point out just one thing that has come to my attention in the last few weeks. When you drive along the road, perhaps you have noticed the yellow and black signs along the road being painted black and white. What do you suppose the department is spending money for in that manner when they have hundreds of thousands of signs all over the state that are being painted black and white. I am told that it is because they want to make it uniform with other states. They might have deferred that until later on. A gentleman in my county pointed out the other day that all along the road there were appearing little signs, black signs with some kind of white numerals and hieroglyphics on them. On one corner near my home there are four of these signs. He said to me I don't believe that you could put those signs up under ten dollars a piece. There are four on one corner. I don't know what they are for, but they look like some engineer's signs. When you multiply that all over the state of Pennsylvania, what do you think that amounts to. Some of this money has been spent for other things in the Highway Department not purely upon the roads; they could curtail a little bit if they thought it was going to cut down the road program and if you pass this bill they will have to watch their pennies the same as any other department.

Now, my friends, we are up against that proposition, which my friend, the gentleman from Philadelphia, pointed out to you. It is absolutely a question of whether you can use the balance of the funds that are available in the state of Pennsylvania to give relief without taxation, or else go ahead and place a tax upon the people of Pennsylvania, when you know that the people of this state have said and the public press has said, and no longer than last week the President of the United States said in his address of acceptance, that we must cut down the cost of state, municipal and federal government and relieve the people from taxation. It seems to me this is a business-like and a sensible thing to do. No business concern, no board of directors if they had an obligation of twenty thousand dollars and they had ten thousand in bank would immediately run around the corner to the bank and borrow ten thousand dollars more. They would say "can't we carry this along a little bit, we will have revenue coming in, we will hold back here, we will put it over. We won't assume any new obligations and burden our earnings," and that is all that we are asking you to do, and you are met squarely today with that problem here in this House.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I feel like apologizing for injecting myself into this lengthy discussion on the measure under consideration, so with but a brief reference or two to the questions involved, I will not prolong the discussion.

With the information furnished to the members of the House one week ago by the Secretary of Highways, I feel that we are sufficiently informed to vote intelligently on the disrupting effect the passage of the bill under consideration would have on the Highway Department program now under way throughout the State.

I would at this time differ with my friend from Philadelphia in his critisism of the Secretary of Highways for his letter of August the 10th to the members. I desire in this public way to express my appreciation to the Secretary of Highways for the information he has given us from time to time in regard to the work of his department.

The statement has been advanced that the Motor Fund revenue for the remainder of the year, which has been largely obligated for various highway purposes, might be available for the provisions of the bill now under consideration is in error. In the words of the gentleman from Delaware money will continue to come in to the end of the biennium for highway purposes; and equally so money will continue to go out during that period for the same purposes. It does not mean that the Highway Department when it is through with the present program will cease to function for the balance of this biennium. On the contrary the splendid work it is doing will be continued.

I would further state to the members of the House that I am opposed to the passage of this bill, I believe it will have a most disasterous effect on the work of the Highway Department, in which we are all so much interested. Furthermore, for the information of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, whose impressive remarks in regard to the conditions existing throughout the State where men are out of work, and families are hungry, I would refer him to the remarks of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Salus, to be found on page 665 of the Legislative Journal, when the Senate was considering House Bill No. 214, Senate Bill No. 163,—the bill which authorized the cities of the first and second class to borrow money against delinquent taxes. The Senator said: "I believe if the Senate would be good enough to pass this bill, we will be able to work out our own salvation, and take care of our own poor, say 'Thank you' to the Legislature of Pennsylvania, and go about our own business in our own way." If the Senator from Philadelphia spoke advisedly that the bill would take care of the unemployment condition of the city of Philadelphia, I surely hope it will also take care of like needs of the city of Pittsburgh, and with the two cities taken care of under the provisions of the bills passed and approved by the Governor, the rest of the State will take care of itself.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I did not intend to inject myself into this discussion and I have listened with interest to the various arguments made by the gentleman from Philadelphia and others, and I am impressed with this thought, that we are confronted with a serious responsibility.

Following the passage of the Talbot act, which commits this House to the expenditure of twelve million dollars for unemployment relief, are we to go home satisfied that we have met that responsibility by voting for this bill? That is the question that is before this House this morning. Who would be satisfied to say that we have provided the funds necessary under the provisions of the Talbot bill by the passage of this bill before us now?

When we started to consider this matter seriously a week ago today it was said here around the halls of this House that there was more than forty millions of dollars reposing in the State Treasury credited to the Highway Department. Now, the proponents of this bill are willing to admit that there are twenty million dollars in the State Treasury in this fund instead of forty million dollars credited to the Highway Department.

Mr. Speaker, it has not been fully disclosed here in any of the discussions what is chargeable against that twenty million dollars. I believe we all know that as a going concern the Highway Department of the State of Pennsylvania is obligated to spend large sums, and that twenty million dollars of working capital for the department is not sufficient to carry on the business. As a matter of fact the Highway Department has been hampered because of lack of funds for the past two years. We all know that in the beginning of this administration, the fiscal year had been set ahead six months so that six months receipts in that department had been expended. As a result of that we were compelled to provide the Highway Department with ten million dollars out of the General Fund of the Commonwealth. Eight million dollars of that is still owing by the Department of Highways to the General Fund of the State. Now then, it is a very logical conclusion that the Highway Department is not in a position to advance twelve millions of dollars, or even five millions of dollars, or any millions of dollars, for this relief program without wrecking the activities of that department. What would be the result of that? There is no activity within the confines of this Commonwealth that is doing so much for unemployment relief as is the State Highway Department. This is what we propose to vote on here this morning, whether or not we shall, in the first instance, undertake to wreck the work of that department, throw a lot of people out of work, and find in the end that even by doing that the recovery of this sum of money is not possible.

There is one other point that is important in this discussion and that is this: the sharp fall-off in revenue of that department. It has been affected more than most of us realize. I am told for the present year their estimated revenue is off twenty million of dollars. I have that on the highest authority. Now then are we to vote for this bill and close this session and go home saying and feeling that we have done our full duty in providing the relief money which I have become convinced is necessary under the Talbot act? New taxes are not pleasant for some of us. Certainly I never could conceive of the time when I would come here and vote to add to the tax burdens of the people of this Commonwealth, but I believe, Mr. Speaker, there is a condition confronting us here which we cannot escape by any such subterfuge as this bill offers.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would just like to call the attention of the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Flynn, to the fact that the budget estimate receipts for the Motor Fund for the biennium for 1931-1933 were approximately one hundred and fifty million dollars; the actual receipts for the first year of that biennium were approximately seventy million dollars, and that would mean if they proceed at the present rate, that there would be a falling off of the revenue for the biennium of ten million dollars and not of twenty million dollars as the gentleman from Elk has stated.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, may I say in answer to what the gentleman has just said that there has been nothing said in this discussion with reference to the Highway Department meeting bond interest and sinking fund charges, which is a continous obligation.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, may I state for the benefit of the gentleman from Elk, in order that he may get in the record what he desires, that the item that he mentioned, including contracts payable, bids advertised and received but contracts not executed August 1st, 1932, and advertisements for bids that have not been received as of August 1st, 1932, totaling $24,309,060, is the obligation upon the Highway Fund other than that which has already been mentioned, which of course would come out of the seventy million dollars which would be the anticipated revenue during the coming year, taking the lesser amount of the estimated revenue below the amount that had already been anticipated.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I am just going to take two minutes to give you some figures because I never heard an opposition argue a case on generalities more than I heard the opposition argue the case here today. No one seems to give us any figures. All they talk about are contracts available, contracts let, advertising bids, but nobody from the opposition has tried to give us figures. They talk about figures without giving them to us. I will give them to you.

Mr. Turner has ansewered the gentleman from Elk when he told him what all of the contracts totalled. All of the bids and contracts that have been advertised and not yet executed, the obligations of the Commonwealth with respect to the Highway Department amount to twenty-four million dollars, and as against that has there been a single answer to the statement that there were twenty million dollars in the treasury now. In addition to that, there will be moneys that will be paid into the Motor License Fund from today until June first of 1933, which, according to a conservative estimate, is upwards of fifty million dollars. Is there a man that has answered that question? Twenty-four million dollars is the total obligation. I defy anybody to deny correctness of that figure. Twenty million dollars is in bank and upwards of fifty million dollars must come in.

There is no use of throwing a halo, and there is no use of creating confusion, for it is ordinary, plain, simple arithmetic.

I want to say another thing: this last year out of the sixty million and some odd dollars that were spent, only $22,315,060 were spent for salaries and wages for per diem men who worked on the roads. Twenty-two million out of sixty-four million and some odd dollars was spent for per diem workers, and I defy any man or any woman in this House to controvert those figures. I am going to give you one more set of figures, and then let your conscience be your guide.

Out of the moneys that are going to be expended next year, according to the figures submitted by the Highway Department over the signature of Mr. Lewis, they are going to spend this year for advertising, engineering and inspection, two million three hundred thousand dollars.

Is there any one within the hearing of my voice who thinks he can possibly deny that you do have to spend two million three hundred thousand dollars for engineering and inspection upon a program that calls for only fifty-nine million dollars worth of road building, and that includes the administrative expenses and every thing else.

I will give you another figure, they want to use this money for maintenance of autos and trucks in the field. I guess you think that I will say five hundred thousand dollars; no, I will be like the auctioneer, you think I will say one million dollars; no, it is two million two hundred twelve thousand dollars for the maintenance of auto trucks and other equipment. These figures have not been given by the Auditor or the State Treasurer; no, but by the Secretary of the Highways, but that is not all. On other equipment and other trucks they are going to spend one million four hundred thousand dollars for that. I have not had an opportunity of going into that any further, and they have another item here of some four million dollars.

Members of the House, those are the figures, you have the situation. I am not going to take up any more of your time. Either lend us the money or tax the people. If you want to tax them, tax them and raise the money; that is up to you, but if you want to give us a simple and economical sensible way of getting this money, lend it to us until June 1st, 1933, for the General Fund. We will pay you back. The security is good. The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is back of it and Mr. Motor Fund I know and gentlemen you know, that the Highway Department only have to do a little wee bit of economy, and I assure you, to use the expression of Clint Sowers, "It won't hurt you."

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman this question; are you satisfied with the passage of this bill to adjourn and go back home feeling that you have met the obligation of providing relief funds for Philadelphia and the rest of the State by the passage of this bill?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I will answer that, absolutely yes, with this explanation: I am satisfied that this bill will tide us over until we come back here in January, and when we come back we can effect economy in State government and can make our budget for the next biennium such that we will be able to pay back each month from the General Fund to the Motor Fund the monies that we will save by economies in State government and do away with extravagance and waste. I am satisfied to go home, and I say to you that I will go home pleased and elated, if we are able to go home after getting twelve million dollars for the relief of the poor of Pennsylvania without burdening the poor with taxes, without making the consumer and the tax payer pay a cent on every dollar for food and clothing and what not, when they go into the store in your county and my county to buy wares.

Mr. FLYNN. I just wish to add one word. In my opinion it is not possible to procure twelve million dollars for relief from the Highway Fund. Certainly this bill can never be enacted into law. Certainly this bill could only meet with disapproval by those who know the facts.

Mr. KLECKNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, may I direct your attention to the involved question of the principle of enforced economy, and the fact that the criticism is unanswerable, that politics directs the Highway Department with the fine Italian hand of the Governor's Secretary dictating the location of roads, political preferment and the placing on jobs of men who are not married and who are not the heads of families, and that this is the political pork barrel of the State.

Are you willing to be intimidated by treats of reward withheld? A letter was directed to me about a twenty-five thousand dollar appropriation for the city of Allentown and for six bridges in the county of Lehigh, without stating the location of those bridges and without stating the money involved therefor. Those bridges may connect the counties of Lehigh and Northampton, and I wonder whether the same charge was directed to that county as well as to my own county?

Now, if these accusations cannot be substantiated at this afternoon's hearing at the meeting of the Judiciary General Committee, then let the Senate veto this bill if you pass it now.

The Senator from Philadelphia asked the privilege of supporting House bills. I ask your assistance to meet this criticism, that the Senate and the House are at logger heads, and the statement that we are lunk heads, as the radio operator or announcer stated from the Quaker City.

May I ask you to give us not bridges but to give us bread, not to wreck but to check this department and give us immediate relief by this method.

Mr. CAUFFIEL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the discussion raised by this question has been of some interest to us. Heretofore both of these so-called city and rural groups have brought forth their point rather clearly and they have shown to you the extreme divergence of their opinion, but as we see it from Cambria County, particularly with one large city a large rural area, we can look at this thing from both sides.

There is no question that the money relief, the dole relief, the direct relief, call it what you will, of the last Talbot bill was welcome addition to the Poor Fund of Cambria County, and there is no question but that it rendered a great deal of help to the distressed and needy mill workers and coal miners residing in and about the city of Johnstown. By the same token the operation of the Highway Department on the extended Pinchot road program, with the maintenance of through highways already built under previous administrations, afforded us not only work relief, but valuable and welcome assistance in the return of wages, and it also directly caused the purchase of materials and things of that sort used in and about road building, business firms and concerns in our county. Those things cannot be overlooked.

Let us try to penetrate the smoke screen created by the maze of these figures and take the figures given by the sponsor of this bill, Mr. Witkin. He has opened fire on us by saying that the Highway Department proposes fifty-nine millions for the 1932 and 1933 fiscal year. Later on in the same speech in critizing he says that fifty million must come in as receipts from the Motor License Fund and gasoline tax. To start with there is a cut of nine million dollars on what he admits must come in. Then let us take some of these other figures that have been discussed here this morning. According to the Chairman of the Highway Committee, there are eight million dollars owing to the Federal Government. There are eight millions now owing to the General Fund. From as a reliable source of information as Mr. Flynn of Elk, we learn that there is at least a twenty million deficiency in revenue. You add to that the twelve million dollars proposed to be taken from the Highway Department by this bill, and the total amount that must come out of this fund for things in sight to be paid, which cannot be used for any construction, for any maintenance, for any work relief, is some forty-eight million dollars. There is no question that if the fifty million dollars, be the accurate figure coming in, that will not leave enough to skeletonize the department, and if the fifty-nine million dollars proposed to be spend by the Highway Department, should be returned in revenue it would leave only eleven million dollars. Now, if we cut out this highway work, we cut out the work relief now functioning in the Commonwealth through the rural districts, and in place thereof we furnish only direct or dole relief in the city districts largely, although the shares of the counties under the Talbot bill did provide some direct relief in county districts. If we cut this out, we stop immediately the annual return, which is their due, to the motorists of roads for which they are annually paying out their money. If we stop this road building, we stop the extension of business and the savings which accrue to our business and our motor users by operating over good roads as compared with operating over unimproved roads. If we stop for the space of two years maintenance alone, we also imperil the asset value of our billion or more dollar highway system, we will have to spend many times more to put ourselves back in statu quo. In addition to that, if we take this method we are employing a subterfuge to raise twelve million dollars of relief funds because we are taking funds from one department to pay the costs of an extra-ordinary and additional emergency relief appropriation, and in a period of declining revenues, we take from already curtailed funds the money made necessary by additional emergency direct relief appropriations. Until now we were moving progressively forward in a program that would have allowed us to have completed, perhaps this week, a completely rounded program which had a reasonable chance of resulting in a balanced budget, but now by this proposal we turn our back on such a program and we pass the buck to the next regular session.

I urge the members to vote no on this transfer proposition.

Mr. RICHARDS. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. RIAL, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported as committed, the following resolution, which was laid on the table:

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION INVESTIGATION RESOLUTION

In the Senate, August 16, 1932.

Whereas, A demand for public utility regulations became general in this Commonwealth prior to 1913 and in consequence and after the best legal minds in Pennsylvania had devoted months to its study the Public Service Act was passed, since interpreted and construed by the State and Federal Appellate Courts forming a substantial body of law intimately affecting comfort and happiness of our people, and

Whereas, In the administration of that law certain weaknesses have been shown to exist demanding substantial amendatory legislation and the Senate of Pennsylvania in the Regular Session of 1931, passed such relief legislation, namely the McClure Bill, Senate Bill No. 414, known as the People's Council Bill and which would have given speedy and substantial relief to rate payers and any communities complaining against a utility rate without any cost to such communities; the Parkinson Bill, Senate Bill No. 483, which would have denied to any public utility the right to issue securities until such securities had been approved by the Public Service Commission thus preventing the watering of utility stock and other abuses of similar character and the Howell Bill No. 259, which took away from Public Utilities the right to increase rates by merely filing a scheduled increase, all of which legislation was killed by orders of Governor Pinchot, and

Whereas, The public is entitled to know all the facts both as to the law creating the Commission and its personnel so that public confidence in the integrity of the efficiency and personnel of the State Government may be fully restored; and

Whereas, The revelations in the W. D. B. Ainey proceedings and the failure of Mr. Ainey to meet the charges on the ground of financial inability and health has shaken public confidence in the Public Service Commission; therefore be it

Resolved, That the President Pro Tempore of the Senate is hereby authorized to appoint a committee consisting of seven members of the Senate, which committee is hereby directed to make a full, complete, impartial and searching investigation, (a) of the allegations that money and other valuable considerations were paid, given or extended to or for the benefit of members of the Public Service Commission by public utility companies or individuals connected therewith to influence their decisions, (b) whether public utility companies and individuals connected therewith other than the ones named in the prior investigation have had improper relations with members of the Commission, (c) whether public utility companies have been securing unfair advantage by corrupt means, (d) of the administration of the Public Service Company Law by the Public Service Commission, and of the changes needed in said law to render full justice to the public and to utility companies, (e) of the affairs and personnel of the Public Service Commission since 1913, and (f) such other facts, matters and affairs as shall be deemed necessary by the committee in order to enable it to make a comprehensive report to the Senate or such recommendations for action by the Senate, as it deems necessary;

Resolved, That said committee shall have all the powers of the Senate when engaged in the transaction of executive business, power to transact which is conferred only upon the Senate by the Constitution and laws of the Commonwealth;

Resolved, That said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman, duly attested by the Secretary of the Senate, requiring and commanding any person or persons to appear before it and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary, and to take testimony of witnesses outside of Pennsylvania and for that purpose to issue commissions or other appropriate proceedings. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person, and shall have the same force and effect as subpoenas issuing out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of the committee shall have power to administer oaths or affirmations to witnesses appearing before it. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to appear and testify before said committee, or to produce any books, papers, records and documents, shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of this Commonwealth in such cases;

Resolved, That the committee be authorized to request the Attorney General to render such advice and service as it deems necessary and to turn over to it such information as he may [illegible] in his possession;

Resolved, That the committee be authorized to employ such attorneys, accountants, experts, stenographers, clerks and other agents as it may deem necessary in conducting said investigation, to fix the compensation of the persons so employed, which compensation and the expenses of the members of the committee shall be paid out of an appropriation made at this session of the Legislature;

Resolved, That the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate be directed to attend said committee to serve subpoenas issued by it, and generally to enforce all orders which said committee may make, his compensation to be fixed by the committee, which compensation and the expenses of the Sergeant-at-Arms shall be paid from appropriations made at this session of the Legislature;

Resolved, That the powers of the committee created by this resolution to investigate the matters comprehended by this resolution be and the same are hereby continued after the adjournment of the Senate in order that the executive business of the Senate may be duly expedited;

Resolved, That the committee shall make its report to the Regular Session of the Legislature of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, in order that appropriate action may be taken as early as possible.

COMMUNICATION

FROM AUDITOR GENERAL IN RESPONSE TO HOUSE RESOLUTION

The Speaker laid before the House a communication from the Auditor General in response to a resolution of the House of Representatives, dated August 10, 1932.

The communication was read by the Clerk as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Office of Auditor General, Harrisburg, August 16, 1932.

To the Honorable Members of the House of Representatives:
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:

I am in receipt of a copy of your Resolution of August 10, 1932, with reference to the disbursement under the appropriation made to the Executive Department.

The total amount of appropriation made to the Executive Department for the biennium 1931-33 was $410,400. Of this amount there was expended to August 1, 1932, $212,185.47. There was also expended by the Executive Department from January 30, 1931, under the previous appropriations for the 1929-31 biennium the sum of $113,399.26.

Your resolution further requests copies of all requisitions, together with bills for items making up the amounts of such requisitions. In this connection, you are advised that for the period involved there are approximately two hundred such requisitions, many of which contain 20 to 25 sheets of itemized expenditures, vouchers and receipted bills. To copy these records would necessitate the placing of our entire stenographic force on the work, and probably two weeks time would be consumed before it was checked and completed. I believe that the information you desire can be much more quickly obtained by having a Committee examine the original records in this department. By such course a considerable amount of unnecessary copying of routine forms would be avoided and the information you are really interested in could be quickly obtained.

Assuring you of my fullest co-operation in the matter, I await your further advice.

Sincerely yours,
(Signed) CHARLES A. WATERS,
Auditor General.

Mr. SHEELEY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to state in connection with the communication from the Auditor General that as the sponsor of the resolution in question I am willing to accept the offer made by the Auditor General, and would suggest that this matter be left in the hands of the Judiciary General Committee for perusal and such action as they see fit.

RESOLUTION

In the House of Representatives, August 17, 1932.

Whereas, The publicity given to the attempts made at this Extraordinary Session of the Legislature to reduce the cost of

State Government, and to effect economy in the business of the State, has aroused the interest of the taxpayers in Pennsylvania to such an extent that they are demanding accurate knowledge of the method and manner in which the revenues of the State are being expended; and

Whereas, It is just and proper in the interest of good government that each taxpayer and citizen of the Commonwealth should know where and how his money is being spent by those in control of the government of the Commonwealth; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Executive Department of the State Government is hereby directed to have published for the information of the public a booklet which shall contain:

(a) A list of all persons drawing salaries from the State of Pennsylvania and the amounts paid to each.

(b) The duties performed by the several persons.

(c) A list of all appropriations for any and all purposes.

(d) To whom these appropriations are paid and the manner in which and the persons to whom the same are disbursed; and be it further

Resolved, That the booklet so published containing such information shall be available for distribution to such persons as may request the same, and that copies thereof shall be transmitted to all newspapers, public libraries and court officials within the Commonwealth.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

REQUESTING INFORMATION CONCERNING EXECUTIVE EMPLOYEES

Mr. SHEELEY offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, August 17, 1932.

Whereas, It is alleged that in order to give to the public the appearance of practicing economy in the Executive Department of the State Government, the Governor has employed persons to perform service for that department who are attached to other departments, boards or commissions, and are paid from appropriations made to such departments, boards or commissions, therefore be it

Resolved, That the head of each department of the State Government is hereby requested to furnish to this House, not later than Thursday noon, August 18, a list of such employes thereof who have been placed on its payroll by order of the Governor or his representatives, who perform service for the Governor, the Executive Department or the Governor's family, and are paid from the appropriations made thereto, and be it further

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 70, entitled:

An Act to extend the taxing power of all political subdivisions of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania now possessing such power to all property, real or personal, transactions, persons, occupations, privileges and things, which may be lawfully taxed by the Commonwealth, and which are not now so taxed; and providing for exemptions.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Root, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ROOT. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. Speaker, is it not a fact that if this bill were enacted into law, that every political subdivision would be vested with the authority of imposing taxes as they see fit?

Mr. ROOT. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Philadelphia explain or state whether he has any interest in the bill?

Mr. ROOT. Mr. Speaker, Philadelphia has absolutely no interest in this bill, since House Bill No. 214 gave Philadelphia the powers given by this bill.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not know of any piece of legislation introduced at this Special Session which is so far-reaching in its effect upon the various political sub-divisions of the Commonwealth as this particular piece of legislation. Perhaps Philadelphia, on account of its extreme need of funds for relief, needs a piece of legislation of this type, but I sincerely hope, as far as I am personally concerned and as long as I have a voice to state my convictions, I will never live to see the day when the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania will give carte blanche to the various political sub-divisions of this Commonwealth the right to tax articles, whether they be real, personal or mixed, as they see fit, irrespective of any legislative check or control.

It seems to me that if we are going to permit the county commissioners, for instance, your borough authorities, your township commissioners to tax articles, be they real, personal or mixed, as they see fit, then it is a confession on our part that we are no longer interested in our constituents, that we, as a legislative body, have shirked our duty, and that we are delegating to those who are under us as political sub-divisions the right to tax as they see fit.

We all know that the right to tax can easily become the right to confiscate. There is no question in my mind, although this bill says they may do it, there is nothing mandatory about it, that in section after section throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania use will be made of this bill and a use will be made before very long, and then it will be up to you and I, as members of this House, to explain to our constituents what we were doing this morning when this piece of legislation was passed in this House, when the sponsor of the bill states that he has absolutely no interest in it, that Philadelphia already has a piece of legislation which has been enacted. I understand that the Governor has already signed that bill which will afford the relief they are seeking. What excuse have we to give? No man from the rural sections—and I am not setting up the rural sections against the city sections, not at all—I think that very member from the rural sections will admire the fairness of the sponsor of this bill when he says that they have absolutely no interest in it.

Who is in back of this bill? Who is interested? Is there any section of this Commonwealth that is asking, outside of perhaps the city of Philadelphia and perhaps Allegheny County, for a piece of legislation of this type?

If there is anybody interested, I say let them come out now into the open and state their reasons, and who the parties are in interest. As the bill now stands and unless there is a reason for its passage I, for one, will vote against it.

Mr. KLECKNER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Root.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Root, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ROOT. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. KLECKNER. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Philadelphia, the sponsor of this bill, advise me whether or not it is a fact that he is endeavoring to give the same privilege to the inland counties or the rural county commissioners to exercise the privilege of home rule and to give them the power to permit the collection of the taxes locally instead of collecting them in Harrisburg?

Mr. ROOT. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. KLECKNER. And it by no means, Mr. Speaker, is mandatory in its provisions, is it?

Mr. ROOT. The gentleman is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. KLECKNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, while the principle suggested by the gentleman from Schuylkill is quite correct, if you look at this bill from the most pessimistic view, nevertheless, I take it that if we are optimistic and if we are consistent and have voted to give this privilege and power to the county of Philadelphia, then I take it if we desire to give the county commissioners of the various counties the same power and privilege to tax where the State does not tax and to collect that tax locally, we should consistently vote to give the inland or rural counties that power and privilege if we are fighting against this centralization of power here in the State Capital. I take it that in this economic emergency, if we have any faith and confidence in our county commissioners in the event of failure to pass sufficient tax measures for immediate unemployment relief, then that privilege and power should be given to county commissioners to tax occupations, which we did not see fit to tax, to tax amusements, to tax cigarettes, to tax, if you please, even directly, in the form of a sales tax, the retail sales of personal property, to make a uniform sales tax, instead of a discriminatory tax, instead of a tax on coal, on gasoline, on water power, or utilities; to give the county commissioners that power, if you please, so that the county commissioners and the judges and our constitutents back home can't say "What have you done?" We have brought to them the right and privilege of home rule, we show them that here is the right and privilege to tax immediately, to bring home a return, because my friends and colleagues, it has been pointed out the sales tax may not pass when it is called up on this special order of business because of the threat of unconstitutionality, because of the threat of discrimination, and I take it here are the means, outside of the counties of the first class, to give home rule to inland counties. I urge your serious consideration to the passage of this remedial legislation at this time.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. PEELOR. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I desire at this time to express myself before casting my vote.

In the early hours of this session the gentleman from Beaver laid before us, by way of resolution or statement, what was believed to set forth the financial condition of the State of Pennsylvania. I have every confidence in his ability. I do not only want to express my confidence in his ability but we believe that it was a genius that did it.

I have also a great respect for the gentleman from Monroe, who submitted some matters here that I think call for our careful consideration. We were told a few evenings ago that if the bills presented by the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Rhodes, were passed they would raise six million dollars. If the balance shown by the gentleman from Beaver County is twenty million dollars, and assuming that there was no more than six million, that six million plus the six million that would have been provided for by the gentleman from Monroe County would have made twelve million dollars. Passing the Talbot Bill would have left us going away from here providing for the unemployed in the State as best as we might hope to do at this session.

Here we are left this morning confronted by taxation, and I am in opposition to it, and yet how can we go home and face our constituencies and explain the situation, unless we make some sort of provision as provided for by this act.

I propose to vote for this bill, but I think that we have been placed in a position here this morning that we should never have been placed in and are obliged to do something here this morning that is unfair to this House. There has been no call, in my judgment, for any taxation, and if Mr. Patterson was wrong and there was not twenty million dollars, there is doubtless six million dollars at the very least somewhere, and I wonder why that was not investigated in the early hours of this session, when the bills of Mr. Rhodes of Monroe, which could provide six million dollars were introduced and, in addition to that, would have given us the twelve million for the Talbot Bill which would have solved the problem—I wonder why.

As I cast my vote today I want it distinctly understood by this body and by any other organization that is interested that I do it as a last resort. I believe that it is unfair to bring to us at this particular moment this duty to perform, when we have neglected to listen to what, in my judgment, was the logical way of solving this great problem of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, much as I dislike this bill, much as it grieves me to do it, I will cast my vote for the bill, but cast it reluctantly.

The bill should pass because of the position in which we find ourselves, because of the deadlock between us, our inability to agree on an income tax, our inability to agree on an occupation tax, our inability to agree on taking money from the road fund, our inability to agree on the economies as first passed in the Steedle Bill, which makes it absolutely necessary for us to break the deadlock with this bill.

Philadelphia has obtained relief. Philadelphia today has a bill which has been passed and approved by the Governor, which gives us the power to tax in Philadelphia and collect money for our own relief.

Today Philadelphia goes along with you on this bill, she goes along with you with a generous heart—a bill to help you in the country. We have ourselves conducted some investigations in the country, we have found out that your districts are as bad as our districts, and many of your districts are worse. We fell, however, that you should have relief and we go along with you on this bill that you may have something for relief that you denied to us earlier in the session, and I hope this House will take that same view and go along with this bill.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Hagmaier.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HAGMAIER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, as I understand the bill, it is, in substance, a new mercantile tax?

Mr. HAGMAIER. Mr. Speaker, practically so; yes sir.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. And the bill provides, Mr. Speaker, for the collection of this tax by the Department of Revenue and not by the present method, is that correct?

Mr. HAGMAIER. It is, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, if the present method of collecting the mercantile tax is proper, why don't they use the same method in this bill?

Mr. HAGMAIER. I didn't get that, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, if the present method of collecting the mercantile tax is proper, why don't the gentleman utilize the same method of collection in this bill, instead of having the Department of Revenue do it?

Mr. HAGMAIER. Mr. Speaker, this is for State relief.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. What is the present mercantile tax for—political relief?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I take it that the question of whether or not the present mercantile system is for political relief is not a proper question when the merits of this particular bill are being discussed.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, what I have to say and what I propose to say is germane to this subject.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Rhodes, will confine himself to the question before the House, which is House Bill No. 264.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am discussing, and propose to discuss the bill before the House. I would like to continue to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny.

Is it correct, then, that this tax will mean practically new taxes upon the merchants of the Commonwealth?

Mr. HAGMAIER. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. It will not eliminate the present tax which they are paying?

Mr. HAGMAIER. No, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Is it a tax on bonds and intangibles or only a tax upon tangibles?

Mr. HAGMAIER. Tangibles.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Then, if you buy bread it is to be taxed, but if you buy bonds, they are not to be taxed?

Mr. HAGMAIER. That might be true if you buy enough bread.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Is it a tax upon electric current?

Mr. HAGMAIER. No, electric current is not a tangible.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I just desire to make a statement relative to my position in this matter which I will take the opportunity of reading, as it is brief:

Having rather unsuccessfully endeavored to relieve the unemployed, we now propose to relieve the overburdened taxpayer of what he may have left. And this, in spite of past declarations of the State Leaders of the Republican party to the contrary. It is not being sufficient to bear our share in Pennsylvania, of the billion dollar Federal tax bill, we would add new State taxes, while every individual has less ability to pay existing levies.

The bill before us is not based on the sound tax principle that taxes should be imposed on those who are able to pay in accordance with their ability to pay. It is fundamentally defective in that it taxes those who are unable to pay, those who are operating at a loss and to those losses adds a serious if not unbearable burden to many.

It would tax those sections of the State which can take care of their relief requirements for the benefit of those sections which refuse to put their house in order or aid themselves by economy in useless political expenditures.

It unfairly taxes a class now paying a large State tax as well as bearing its burden of local taxation.

However, I am confident that the people of this Commonwealth are willing to pay new taxes if necessary to save human lives and relieve distress. But I am just as confident that they are not willing to assume new tax burdens merely to maintain political parasites and to permit legalized graft, waste and extravagance of political organizations.

Before imposing new taxes our first duty is to correct these flagrant evils.

In the debate last week it was stated that we should enact a tax out of fairness to the people of Philadelphia and of the State. We should be fair to all the people of the Commonwealth, but we are not being fair to them when we enact this or any other tax measure on the one hand, and allow between six and seven million dollars of the State funds to be wasted on the other.

I desire to inquire whether it is fair to the people of this Commonwealth to have over a million dollars of State funds lost each year under the present method of collecting the mercantile tax?

Is it fair to the taxpayer of this State for the Commonwealth to be deprived of two and a half million dollars of inheritance taxes a year under the present wasteful system of collection?

Is it fair that the railroad companies, electric light companies and every little truck owner who hauls for hire should be obliged to pay an eight mill tax on their gross receipts while the water companies and gas companies are exempt?

Is their any fairness in permitting foreign corporations doing business in this State to pay a capital stock tax on a more favorable basis than corporations incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth?

Is it fair that the counties should be deprived of at least twenty million dollars of additional revenue a year because of an inefficient method of assessing and collecting the four mill county tax? Is it fair to impose new taxes when out of a possible revenue of forty-five million dollars per year the counties are now obtaining less than fifteen million dollars? Those who are able pay this tax.

Is it fair to Philadelphia taxpayers to place additional burdens upon them until some move has been made to relieve them of the excessive governmental overhead, especially in view of the fact that by consolidation of city and county between fifteen and twenty million dollars a year could be saved?

Is it fair to the city of Philadelphia for its Representatives to refuse to take advantage of the opportunity to obtain more than five million dollars a year additional revenue from those now liable under the existing personal property tax law?

We can offer no excuse to our constituents when we levy new taxes and place additional burdens upon them, while retaining the present collection system with its waste of millions to the people of this Commonwealth.

The Representatives of those districts which need relief most have blocked nearly every constructive move and have only favored such measures as would leave their political organizations intact, while State funds were demanded for the relief of their unemployed.

That nothing has been done is for them to explain. For what is done the people of this State will know where to place the blame.

Political security has come before human suffering.

It has come to a point where this Legislature must either represent the people on the one hand, or openly sponsor the political machines and political bosses on the other. Further camouflage and evasion are impossible. By your votes they shall know you.

Mr. KLECKNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, you may protest against my speaking at this time, but I am charging you with individual responsibility and I am asking you to face the facts. I am asking you whether you can go back home to your constituents and in your heart tell them that posting this tax upon merchandise offered for sale in the corner grocer store is adding a penalty to that poor woman who cannot get along now and who is facing bankruptcy. I am asking you whether you have studied this bill to consider whether or not it is discriminatory or whether it is a bill that covers the entire field. Whether the Governor has considered that octopus that is trying to stifle us, and whether, in fairness it covers the wide field of utilities as a productive field of revenue to bring bread to the poor, starving constituents, back home. Whether this legislation was conceived in good faith for the people back home? Will you face the facts or will you be intimidated by the threats of the secretaries of the Government, by the threats of political leaders back home? Have you considered the confiscatory, the discriminatory features of this bill? Have you read section 17 of this bill, page 10, and do you realize that if any vendor intentionally refuses to make a return to the department that he will be guilty of a misdemeanor, and that if the fine cannot be paid imprisonment is imposed? Will you consider the position of the poor widow going to that corner store to buy a bottle of milk. When the tax is posted, do you think that the merchant is going to throw off that tax and absorb its payment—No. Will the newspapers putting out the ten cent Sunday newspapers, permit that sales boy on the street to absorb that tax or will eleven cents be demanded for the newspaper. Will the loaf of bread cost one cent more or will the grocer absorb that tax?

Consider this bill in connection with House Bill No. 214 and House Bill No. 70. Consider, if you please, that rarely if ever is a tax which is imposed and put on the books ever taken off. You men from Schuylkill County and the hard coal regions, recall, if you will, the difficulty in taking off the anthracite tax or any emergency tax when it is placed on the books. Will you, under the threat of pressure, hold your noses and blind your eyes and vote for this bill without considering the far-reaching consequences of it; that it is double taxation? Do you realize the question may arise with regard to its constitutionality and that it will then go into the courts, and that relief will not then be forthcoming immediately? Do you realize that the time has been extended for the filing of returns, I believe, until April 1, 1933? Do you realize the significance of the problems which confront you at the next General Session in the demand for—please do not think that I am not proud of our State Capitol and of our office, and of the officers and men who are manning our staffs—but you know and I know that their efficiency is hampered, that they are hamstrung just as we are hamstrung by imposition, by intimidation, by suggestions, by political preferment, the placing of inefficient clerks and assistants, by the necessity of following certain courses and policies simply because the leader of our great State makes certain demands. Are you considering the fact that this program was agreed to by a council of men of which practically fifty per cent. were not elected representatives of the people? Are you the fair-minded, open-minded, responsible agents of the people or are you puppets and rubber-stamps? Will you consider that? Will you aim to help political parasites and the continuance of such political parasites holding offices as official investigators for the Commonwealth while holding other municipal offices? Are you facing the facts? If you are, if you have considered this bill from the four corners, section to section, you will not vote in favor of this legislation.

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not think at this late hour we should be stampeded into voting for any legislation for which we will afterwards regret our vote. I think we should look at this bill carefully. There is no haste in enacting any legislation simply for the purpose of getting out of this dilemma.

There are parts of this bill which are objectionable, and when the expression comes from the folks back at home—if we as a Legislature pass this bill—I am inclined to think that many of us will not see the smiling faces of ourselves in the mirror and that many of our colleagues will not be back in the Legislature next winter.

I am sorry to note that in this bill it was not possible to exempt foods and the necessities of life, in view of the fact that the bill considered in Congress as a means of raising revenue under a sales tax exempted the necessities of life, such as food and clothing. I repeat, I am sorry that the sponsor of this bill or that the constitution will not permit the elimination of taxes upon the necessities of life, because we are burdening a class of people who are ill-able to buy food and clothing at present prices, even without adding a sales tax to the price.

I want the members from the rural counties to especially note some of the phases of this bill. I am not a farmer by trade or occupation, but simply as a diversion. I represent a farming community, and I want the members from the rural counties to reflect that if this bill passes and is signed and becomes effective, the farmer who buys commercial fertilizer will have to pay a sales tax on that fertilizer to grow fifty-cent wheat. The price of wheat is not fixed by the farmer, but is fixed in the markets of the world. The farmer cannot add the additional cost of this fertilizer to the price of his wheat. Every farmer who is a dairy man on a large scale buys a vast quantity of commercial feeds, and these commercial feeds are often bought in carload lots and, under the provisions of this bill, as I understand it, he will be liable for a sales tax on commercial feeds to produce milk, for which he gets a pittance—possibly two cents a quart—which is produced at a loss.

The same thing is true of poultry. Hundreds and thousands of tons of poultry feed are bought, upon which there will be a tax, and again the price of his eggs will be fixed in the markets of the world, over which they have no control. The farmer will be compelled to pay a tax on his gas, his kerosene, his oil which he uses to operate his motive power, and he will be compelled to pay a tax on his farm machinery, repairs, and parts, and many other things, and I want to repeat for emphasis, that he has no control, as a general thing, over the commodities which he raises as to the price, but that he is compelled to take what is offered to him. Consequently, I think the members representing the rural communities should consider this added burden which would be placed upon the farming communities, upon people who are operating today at a loss. I heard of a farmer this morning who had a farm which he bought in days of prosperity, absolutely clear of all encumbrances. Today he is in danger of losing his farm because of increased taxation and the poor prices for farm products.

Are you going to add additional burdens which will be passed on to the consumer by the enactment of a bill of this character?

I think, in conclusion, that before we vote for this bill, we should stop, look and listen.

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this will probably be my swan song, and I wish to take about two minutes of your time to state that I shall vote for this bill with my tongue in my cheek.

Personally I think we could have accomplished the same purpose by passing other bills which are now in Committee, which would have yielded the same amount of revenue approximately without imposing any additional tax.

We are confronted with a situation, not with a theory. We are confronted with the necessity of raising revenue to meet the appropriation of the Talbot Bill for direct relief.

Whether or not we approve of a sales tax is beside the question, and whether or not we are willing to add an additional tax burden at this time is also beside the question.

I feel we would be derelict in our duties and recreant to our oaths of office if we went out of this session without passing this needed and required measure.

This farce has continued now for eight weeks. We have come down here one week and marched up the hill and the next week we have come down here and marched down the hill, and we have repeated that process until we are tired and sick of it and most of us want to get home.

It has been evident from the opening of this session, whatever may be the cause back of it, that we cannot secure this revenue in any other way. Recently the Honored Speaker of the House made the remark that if we are to have relief we must pay for it. That is a truism which does not need to be elaborated upon.

I wish to close by saying, as I said in the beginning, that I shall vote for this bill with my tongue in my cheek.

I am opposed to additional taxation, but a sales tax, such as is proposed in this bill, is spread over a great amount of territory, it will not impose a burden upon any one. If a farmer has to pay a tax on fertilizer, he can buy the fertilizer before September 1 and get it tax free, or he can wait until the winter is over and buy it on the first of March and get it tax free. It does not impose any hardship or any burden upon any taxpayer in Pennsylvania. It is one of the easiest taxes to collect; it will be a sort of painless extraction. Personally I want to pay my debt, and I think the easiest way for me to do it is to gracefully accept the imposition for six months of a slight sales tax. By Decoration Day or the Fourth of July when this thing is past and gone, we will have forgotten that the tax was imposed upon us. I hope that everyone will see it in the same light as that and that we shall vote for this measure.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have been requested by the officials of the Federation of Labor of the State of Pennsylvania to read to you this statement:

"The Pennsylvania Federation of Labor has not at any time advocated a general sales tax for unemployment relief because such a tax would place the burden upon those who are already over-burdened.

"The Federation had advocated other forms of taxation which would have placed the burden where the burden could have been more readily and equitably carried, all of which have been rejected.

"The Federation regards the problem of providing relief now wholly in the hands of the Legislature and assumes no responsibility for a sales tax if such a measure is enacted."

Mr. KLECKNER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Hagmaier.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Hagmaier, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HAGMAIER. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. KLECKNER. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Allegheny, considering section 3, distinguish for me between sales of tangible personal and sales of intangible personal property, and advise me if he has the opinion of the Attorney General or any other attorney whether black coal in the rough is tangible property and white coal as electric current, is tangible or intangible property and what is the distinction between tangible and intangible property?

Mr. HAGMAIER. Mr. Speaker, one is visible and the other is invisible.

Mr. KLECKNER. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman if the same parties who are asking for the passage of this bill are visible or invisible?

Mr. HAGMAIER. Mr. Speaker, I do not know what the gentleman means by "asking for the passage of this bill." This bill was written by attorneys, in whose ability I have every confidence, as a means whereby we could get some money for unemployment relief and also whereby we could make an appeal to the United States Government for the purpose of getting the money which is justly due this State.

Mr. KLECKNER. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman whether water is visible and as such tangible or intangible property, a proper subject of taxation?

Mr. HAGMAIER. Mr. Speaker, I would say it was tangible.

Mr. KLECKNER. Mr. Speaker, may I ask then whether or not water companies are included in this bill and are subject to taxation the same as other public utilities, which you have investigated as a member of the Special House Committee?

Mr. HAGMAIER. Mr. Speaker, I would say in my opinion that they are.

Mr. KLECKNER. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman mean to say that if this bill is passed, on the advice of the Attorney General and the Governor, that public utility companies, such as water companies are subject to taxation on the sale of tangible personal property?

Mr. HAGMAIER. Mr. Speaker, in my opinion—now, I am not an attorney, but my opinion and my view is that a water company would be subject to the tax.

Mr. KLECKNER. Mr. Speaker, are electric light companies, the Bell Telephone Company, Railroad Companies?

Mr. HAGMAIER. No, Mr. Speaker, electric light is invisible.

Mr. KLECKNER. Mr. Speaker, current may be invisible, current may not be seen but once you touch the wires you feel the kick. I do not propose to quibble about this question, but if you go back home and if you do not suffer the kick of more than one of your constituents back home, I have missed my guess.

You have failed to answer my question, you have not drawn the distinction, and you know it.

You members from Allegheny county and you members from Philadelphia county if you vote for this bill feeling that you can avoid and evade responsibility and perhaps divide the cost and share in the taxes that are imposed, don't you realize that you are penny-wise and pound foolish. Your counties I will concede have paved the way for tremendous progress in our State but your counties are the counties to which we in the inland counties look for leadership, but you have failed in your leadership, if you point this out as a uniform bill which will adequately cover the situation.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Kleckner.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Kleckner, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KLECKNER. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman if the fees which he receives for advice are tangible or intangible?

Mr. KLECKNER. Mr. Speaker and members of this House, members of the gallery and members of the press and of the Governor's Staff, the fees which I receive for my services in the one day a week which I can devote to the practice of my profession and to the support of my family, without resorting to any outside jobs, whether State or public utility, and relying entirely upon my professional services for fees to support my family, those fees, in my opinion are tangible personal property, the same as newspapers are tangible personal property, the same as the Bell Telephone Company; the public utilities are personal property, with this exception, that the Public Service Commission does not guarantee a certain percentage for my services.

And now, that is one of the distinctions as to tangible personal property, and I feel that it is one of the distinctions that the gentlemen of the press fail to consider in considering the sad plight of independent legislators who are up here endeavoring to fairly and adequately and equitably represent the wishes of their constituents, in opposing governmental extravagance and in demanding economy in the departments. When we consider that in 1924, seventy-five million dollars represent the governmental expenditures, including the highway and the ordinary expenses of the State, and eighty-one million dollars a year additional was spent last year, that is why I agree with the gentleman from Beaver that there are ample funds available, provided you cut out the duplication of effort, provided you cut out the political parasites, provided you collected the taxes in the manner that the gentleman from Monroe has pointed out to you, but why isn't that passed—

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman consider that he is answering the interrogatory of the gentleman from Allegheny?

Mr. KLECKNER. I do, Mr. Speaker, but if there is any objection—

The SPEAKER. If the gentleman so considers, he will proceed.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in listening to the arguments made by the opposition to this bill I have learned only one thing. The same argument I heard made against the inheritance tax; the same argument I heard made against the soft drink tax bill, the same argument I heard made against the cigarette tax bill, the same argument I heard made against the occupational tax bill, and the same argument was made against the income tax bill, and when we discussed economy and when we had the opportunity to vote for economy, strange to say those that raised their voices the loudest about economy then voted against it.

Members of the House, I hope to close this debate by saying to you that a necessity exists and demands attention. We must meet it. We may not like the duty of meeting it, but we have been elected and we must perform that duty and we must meet that necessity.

This tax is not for a long period of time. It expires on February 28, 1933; that is, next year; and then this House will be in session. Can we not for a trifling period of six months suffer this tax to relieve those in distress and those in need? I ask you members to say that there is absolutely no reason why we cannot for so little a period of time help out. Here and there you will find laborer after laborer suffering willingly to permit one day a month to be taken out of his pay for unemployment relief, and this is not a tax that reaches in magnitude or size that which the laborer contributes.

I ask you members to say to all of your constituents that this is in all fairness the proper thing to do.

Mr. BARTON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, during the eight weeks we have been here, I have listened with a great deal of interest to the various resolutions, addresses, interrogations, ways and means in the solution of this problem.

Economies were proposed, we are all in accord with this, but unfortunately for the people of this Commonwealth, the proposal failed in the solution. This failure in part is due primarily to the fact that it created two distinct factions in the House. Political supremacy was the reason for this. It was partial in its set-up. Destroying on one hand, and building up on the other.

Today we are confronted with the last, according to the best information I can gather, way or means, by which we can solve this problem; in my opinion this is not so. This way is the three-lettered word, "Tax." This three-lettered word has become one of the greatest monsters in the estimation of the general public that can possibly exist. Tax, poor tax, road tax, school tax, auto tax, gas tax, head tax, poll tax, county tax, State tax, and after you are dead, inheritance tax.

Now a sales tax. When we consider the fact that during the last fifteen years the cost of government in the United States—Federal, State and local tax—has increased three hundred and fifty per cent.; that is three and a half times. The taxpayers will contribute this year more than $14,000,000,000, between one-third and one-fourth of our entire income as a nation, to pay the costs of government. This represents on a per capita basis, nearly $110 from every person in the United States. During this same period, when the cost of government has increased three hundred and fifty per cent., the national income has increased only one hundred and fifty per cent., and the population only thirty per cent.

With this information before us, it seems to me, it is our patriotic duty to face the situation on a business-like basis. What we need in this House at this time is a group of members that will be as modern as selective free-wheeling, and as real as depression, which will start out by admitting that there has been a Great War, that there will be another, that there exists a gigantic depression, that the twentieth century is already one-third over, and that the mass of the people are correct when they demand retrenchment in governmental expenses.

We have several classes at this time, office-seekers and voters, city slickers and country rubes, wets and drys, and what-nots. These are not rival political groups but rival bidders to administer the money of this Commonwealth, all threatening the government with the vote they control unless the Commonwealth agrees to do this, that or the other thing at once.

The Republican Organization of this State which could give form and force to a constructive program to meet the needs at this time, concentrate on dodging issues, while those in need fail to obtain anything that they need, when they need it.

We may be re-elected as a member of this House because we condemn the present administration, or we may be re-elected because we support the administration. This is all very interesting but surely it is kindergarten material. Our interest at this time should be a mutual interest based upon the needs of our people, and if we do not have courage to take this financial cow by the horns and shake her until a lot of these governmental extravagances release themselves from her udder, then we have failed to do our duty.

Let us not impose additional taxes upon those not able to pay but rather do away with useless commissions, useless check receivers on the governmental payroll, duplicate and triplicate office holders not needed. Reform the entire tax system, change the method of collecting, which would automatically reduce the burden and solve the problem.

In conclusion, let me say, we do not need more taxes, we need courage to face facts with which we are all familiar. The money thus saved will more than meet the situation and will be hailed as the rescuing agent of all time.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to express my indignation at the speech and sentiments uttered in this House by the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Kleckner, and I think to every member of this House he owes an apology—

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. KLECKNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. KLECKNER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from McKean is out of order and I personally strenuously object to having him refer to me in this unfair and unethical manner.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson, or any other member of the House will not refer to any other member in disparaging terms. Any member has the right to express his view on what may have been brought upon the floor of the House. The gentleman from McKean will proceed.

Mr. WILSON. No man in the House has a higher regard for the gentleman from Lehigh than I, but I still say that it is in very bad taste to come upon this floor and refer to his colleagues in this House as puppets and rubber stamps, and I personally do not intend to sit here and allow statements of that kind to go unanswered.

I want to say this, Mr. Speaker, and it is the only thing I am going to say, and the only time I have been on this floor during this session: I have great respect for my colleagues in this House and for the way in which they have tried to handle themselves in this session. We came here and we started first to cut the bills as we should have cut them, possibly not so much as some members thought they should have been cut, but we cut them perhaps as much as they could have been cut in the last period of the biennium. When that period was over we started to pass tax bills. It has not been as has been represented by the papers at times, that we have not had the nerve or courage to pass tax bills. The fact that the session has continued so long is due to this one thing: That the members of this House have had two sentiments, one, their sympathy for those people who are needy and in trouble, and second the thought of their people back home who do not want taxes. We have gone from one to the other of these propositions in an effort to reconcile these two positions. I may not be in the next House, no one here knows whether they will be or not, but if I am not I want to pay this tribute to the members of this House, to my colleagues in this House, as I have heard them talk together and discuss these measures: That they have given to these matters serious consideration; that they have tried to find the solution; that they have thought of the people back home, and I resent the remarks and the insinuations made to the members of the House this morning, that when they vote, they vote because they are rubber stamps or puppets or somebody has placed pressure on them. I think there is no vote that has been taken in this House which will so well express the conscientious views of the members of this House as a vote upon this bill.

Mr. HEFFRAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have one thought that I wish to add to the discussion that has taken place on this bill. It is my thought, and I have not heard it expressed.

I have said repeatedly in the committee room and on the floor of this House that we ought not further burden the people of this State with taxation, but I have spoken with reservations, realizing that some time before we adjourned it would be necessary to consider some revenue measures if a relief bill was passed.

The thought I want to add to this discussion is this: That the responsibility for the dilemma in which the House finds itself now is due to the attitude of His Excellency the Governor of the Commonwealth, by his failure, as I stated last week, in his call for this Extraordinary Session to give the Legislature the powers that it should have had for the solving of this question. In that call he failed to give the Legislature the authority to consider and revise salaries, particularly the high salaries of either State, county or bureau officials. In that he made a serious mistake. Secondly, he has not co-operated with the House as he might have co-operated in its attempt to effect economies under the narrowness of the call.

Nevertheless it does not change the situation and we are faced now with this question of giving relief to the people of this State who need it. In no other way, as I see it, can the Talbot Bill be passed by the Senate unless a revenue measure is sent over to accompany it. This is the only measure it seems to me will accomplish this purpose. Persistently this House has refused to consider a single measure to tax a single commodity by reason of the unfairness involved in raising sufficient revenue by the taxation of one commodity. This spreads out the tax and it is only for a brief period of time, just long enough to raise sufficient revenue for the purposes of the Talbot Bill and for that reason it seems to me that we cannot consistently fail to pass it, and I urge upon you the necessity now of voting aye for this bill.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The motion was seconded by Messrs. Holcombe, Griffin, Peelor, McAlee, Meredith, White, Stott, Labar, Lynch, Storb, Peters, Baker, Hagmaier, Hart, Neely, Goehring, Rooney, Braham, Haws, Mathay and others.

On the question,

Shall the main question be now put?

REASON FOR VOTE

Mr. WITKIN: The apparent deadlock must be ended. The large number of rural members have in their best judgment seen fit to defeat House Bill No. 254, the passage of which would have prevented the imposition of new taxes.

I am unwilling to adjourn without having provided relief for the destitute, the hungry and the starving. And though I am unalterably opposed to new taxes, I vote in the affirmative upon this bill because the funds for relief must be provided. Every other endeavor to provide the moneys for the Talbot Relief Bill have been unsuccessful. The needy cannot wait.

The hungry, the destitute come first, and with them foremost in my mind, I reluctantly vote aye on this bill.

MORTON WITKIN.

BILL ON THIRD READING

The SPEAKER. The bill before the House prior to the Special Order was House Bill No. 70. The Chair again lays before the House, House Bill No. 70, Printer's No. 276.

Mr. RICHARDS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if there existed any reason for the passage of this bill two hours ago, the reason has now been dissipated. We have just passed the sales tax bill for which I voted, not because I wanted to, but because of the necessity. We are now asked to pass a bill which would place in the hands of the county commissioners, city councilmen, members of commissions and township and borough officials the authority to tax everything in sight, and I say to you that this bill and the bill which we passed previously denies every theory of taxation in Pennsylvania, and I believe with the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Staudenmeier, that this is one of the most vicious pieces of legislation that this House has ever considered.

I will not be a party to any plan or bill that will give authority to a group of municipal officers to simply run the hog wild in taxation and for that reason I am voting no, and I ask you to vote no likewise.

This bill is vicious. This bill gives increased powers of taxation and to a point we have never dreamed of before. I think it is entirely unnecessary, and I trust, with all my heart, that you will vote this bill down.

Mr. ROOT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill was introduced on June 28 at the very beginning of the session. Primarily it was for the purpose of giving Philadelphia additional powers of taxation and an increased measure of home rule. House Bill No. 214 supplied that need, and this bill was not pressed. On Monday evening of this week, at a conference held in the Governor's Office, I am now informed that leaders, outside of Philadelphia, wanted the same measure of home rule as Philadelphia had, and the Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee and that Committee reported that bill on Monday night.

This bill is your bill for your counties. We have no interest in it. Use your judgment accordingly.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, to my utter amazement, I have now learned that the reason for this bill coming out on the floor of the House today is by virtue of a conference held in the Governor's Office. The gentleman from Philadelphia only divulged one name of any person being present at that meeting, that was the name of the Chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means, and up until such time as the names of the other conferees are brought on the floor of this House, I state to you unequivocally that it is your duty to vote this bill down in no unmistakable way.

There is no justification for a bill of this type coming up here in the closing days of the Legislature. It smacks again, you might say, of another reapportionment plan.

Folks, if you are not awake now, you are not going to be awake, because it is going to be too late. The minute this bill is enacted into law you have deprived yourselves of the right to say what shall be taxed and what shall not be taxed, you are going to give that right to the county commissioners, you are going to give that right to city councils, you are going to give that right to officials in first and third class cities, and you are going to give that right to the township supervisors to say what shall be taxed and what shall not be taxed.

Now, then, if we have arrived at a point where we have lost all of our mental powers, then I say vote for this bill, but I still think that the remarks of the gentleman from Lawrence have demonstrated in no unmistakable way why we should refuse to vote for legislation of this type. Philadelphia has come here and stated very candidly that her needs are met by House Bill No. 214, which I understand also applies to Allegheny County, but until such time as people from the third, fourth and fifth class counties and so on, the rest of the counties, come here and ask for legislation of this type, I appeal to the members from Philadelphia and to the Allegheny County delegation to aid us in defeating this bill.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. GANGLOFF. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Ways and Means for further study and amendment.

The motion was agreed to.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE ON RULES

Mr. RICHARDS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer a report from the Committee on Rules.

Mr. JOHN A. RHODES offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read, considerated and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, August 17th, 1932.

Whereas, During the present Extraordinary Session of the Legislature, various estimates of the revenue received by the Commonwealth during the present biennium, together with the expenditures made from appropriations passed at the 1931 Session, have been submitted to the House and Senate in answer to resolution passed requesting such estimates, and

Whereas, These estimates very greatly and to such an extent that the Members of the Legislature are in great doubt as to the correctness and authenticity of any of them, and

Whereas, It is not only important but most necessary that such estimates as are furnished to the Legislature for their information should be correct and true, in order that such action as might be taken in the making of appropriations should be correct, and

Whereas, The Auditor General, an elective officer of the Commonwealth, is in possession of all such records, figures and estiamtes as would enable him to best furnish the Legislature with correct estimates, therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That the Auditor General is hereby requested to make a report to the Legislature at the beginning of the Session of 1933 containing the following:

(a) A full and complete statement of all appropriations made by the Legislature for the present biennium to all departments, boards and commissions, and to all State institutions and private institutions receiving State-aid.

(c) An estimate in detail by sources of the probable receipts of the Commonwealth during the biennium beginning June first, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, and be it further

MEETING OF JUDICIARY GENERAL COMMITTEE TUESDAY, August 16, 1932 IN HOUSE CAUCUS ROOM

Mr. McCLURE, Chairman. The meeting will come to order.

This is the meeting of the Judiciary General Committee held for the purpose of hearing from Mr. Lewis G. Hines, director of the employment service of the United States Department of Labor, this committee acting under authorization of the House by motion of Mr. Spangler, passed by the House on August 9th, 1932.

We will be pleased to hear from Mr. Hines.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Chairman, I move that the proceedings of this committee be reported stenographically.

The motion being duly seconded, it was agreed to.

Mr. HINES. Mr. Chairman, I want to make a brief statement and I would like to in as far as possible develop this subject in sequence. The statement is as follows:

To the Members of the Judiciary General Committee of the House of Representatives, State of Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen: In appearing before your committee today, it is my understanding that I do so in a voluntary capacity for the purpose of sustaining, if possible, the charges made by me publicly against the State Highway Department as appearing in the newspapers of August 6th.

I want to assure you that it is a privilege to have this opportunity to substantiate the statements I made at that time with documentary evidence based upon an investigation made by me covering a period of approximately three months. I have in my possession the reports of special agents in the employ of the United States Employment Service. These reports have been checked by me and I believe they are correct.

In addition to that I have a number of other statements and letters referred to me by various persons from all over the State of Pennsylvania setting forth the fact that employment in the State Highway Department in Pennsylvania is contingent upon political endorsement, suggesting the names of persons to be visited to corroborate this fact, and in general setting forth the conditions that prevail with regard to employment in the State Highway Department of Pennsylvania as it exists at the present time.

I beg the indulgence of the Committee in some instances where for obvious reasons, I do not desire to disclose the identity of certain of the persons furnishing me with this information. Some of them are in the employ of the State Administration; certain facts contained in this information may involve persons to the extent of losing their positions.

It may seen strange to you that these people would be willing, yes anxious, to give this information but the explanation for this has been found be me in travelling throughout the State where I find that a resentment against the present administration has been brought about by a feeling of insecurity and apprehension due to the coercive tactics employed by many of the so-called Pinchot County leaders, and particularly a resentment against the practice of inaugurating a compulsory political assessment.

I would therefore most respectfully ask of the Committee that they consider my request in these instances. It is my desire to give as much information as possible in this connection and to assist the Committee in every possible way in making a complete investigation of the whole situation. I am actuated only by a desire to assist the many thousands of persons who are in dire need of securing employment without the necessity of aligning themselves with any political group.

It is the policy of the United States Employment Service to keep free from all political entanglements and it naturally follows that we are in sympathy with the thousands of citizens of our State who have been denied the opportunity to work on the State Highways because they would not subscribe to the political doctrines of any one person or group of persons.

I will be guided by any suggestions that the Committee may have that will help to develop the subject.

I have here a copy of the statement that I made at that time, that I made for publication on August 6th.

STATEMENT
LEWIS G. HINES, PENNSYLVANIA DIRECTOR,
U. S. EMPLOYMENT SERVICE

Several weeks ago at a conference called in Harrisburg attended by representatives of the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor and various welfare agencies, in addressing the conference I advocated that a portion of the funds of the Highway Department of Pennsylvania be diverted to relief of the unemployed throughout the State.

I have made a complete investigation of the methods of placing men at work on the State highway, and from the reports received, I am convinced that employment on the State highways is contingent upon political endorsement from the various Pinchot county-political leaders.

At the conference referred to, the Governor being present I asked him if in his opinion the best results for giving unemployment relief were to be obtained by hiring men because of political preference rather than being selected by the various welfare agencies on the basis of providing work for the neediest cases, and he stated that it was his intention to issue an order that all persons hired for highway work would be selected on the recommendation of their local welfare agency. This has not been done.

As State Director of the U. S. Employment Service, I am in receipt almost daily of letters from unemployed persons throughout the State requesting assistance in securing employment on road construction work. The Federal Government for the year 1931 appropriated $5,524,512.00, for 1932 $5,517,738.00 and for the year of 1933 the appropriation will be $4,640,667.40.

We have listed with us throughout the State, thousands of persons including a large number of veterans, many who have disabilities because of their service in the World War, who feel that they are entitled to opportunities for employment on the Federal-State road construction.

Sometime ago, I visited the office of the Secretary of the Department of Highways for the purpose of seeking co-operation from the Highway Department to the end that some of these applicants, including the veterans, might be given opportunities for employment particularly in the remote sections of the State where very few employment opportunities exist otherwise. I was informed that the Secretary was too busy writing a speech to see me, but was told by his Chief Engineer that if our Department had any persons that we were interested in, we should advise those seeking employment that they should register with the welfare agencies in their vicinity, as in accordance with an order from the Governor's Office all persons employed on highway work were selected from lists given by the welfare committees in the various counties.

I immediately proceeded to investigate this matter and have before me the reports of a number of persons from various sections of the State which prove conclusively that this method is not being followed but rather employment with the Highway Department of Pennsylvania in most instances is contingent upon the endorsement of the Pinchot political boss of the county.

I quote from a report received from the northwestern part of the State which states: "I beg to advise you that I have carefully checked the situation in question in the following counties, Erie, Crawford, Warren, McKean, Elk and Cameron and I find that all persons receiving employment on the Pennsylvania highways must lend their supoprt one hundred per cent. to the political ideas of Governor Gifford Pinchot. Now this does not only mean that they vote as he directs, but they must use their influence with their families, neighbors and friends."

"It is true that every community has its welfare organizations, and they are supposed to select the neediest men for employment, but I have been unable to find one community where such an organization has been consulted by Governor Pinchot, or any of his lieutenants, when men are wanted to work on the Pennsylvania highways. I have been informed that the only men that would receive any consideration were those recommended by the Governor's lieutenants."

"I find that in Crawford County, Mr. Robert Culbertson, of Meadville, whom Governor Pinchot selected to look after his interests here, is given full authority for the picking of all men in the county to work on the highways, and it has developed that the work on the highways, which was to give relief to the needy in the various communities, instead of relieving unemployment is being used to build up a political organization to elect such men to office as Governor Pinchot desires."

From the anthracite region, I received a report stating that "a contractor has received a contract to build 12 miles of Federal aid highway in Lake, Ross and Fairmont Townships, Luzerne County." The person making the report proceeds to state that he got in touch with a member of the firm in Hazleton with a request to place some of the applicants registered with the U. S. Employment Service on the job. He was told to get in touch with the Superintendent," and a call on this gentleman revealed the fact that he had been in touch with an official of the State Highway Department and had been instructed to recruit his labor from the recommendations of Judge Fine of Wilkes-Barre.

He then called up this same official of the State Highway, "who informed me that Judge Fine was the last word and that his authority for this action came from the Highway Department in Harrisburg." Our representative proceeded to explain his interest in this matter pointing out that he was desirous of placing a number of veterans listed with us on this work and again he was advised to get in touch with Judge Fine.

"To date (he states on July 14) I have made several attempts to see the Judge or his secretary, but have been granted no interview," and he concludes by stating "my purpose in writing you is to inform you regarding this situation. It is a contract let by the State on Federal aid roads and still the situation is controlled directly from the Governor's Office in Harrisburg."

Our representative further advises that he has been in touch with the representative of the Central Poor District, a representative of the Red Cross, and a representative of the Catholic Charities and has been informed by them that they have placed no men from their lists with the Highway Department. One of these representatives of the welfare agencies stated the fact that the county political organization controlled the situation absolutely and that a letter with political significance was necessary in every case.

"From countless interviews with men seeking employment the matter of road jobs is not in the hands of relief agencies, welfare agencies or any other organization created for aid in this emergency. On or about June 1st, an office for receiving applications for road jobs was opened at an Independent Republican Headquarters. Evidently this was done to relieve pressure at the county court house where they have been stormed with applicants. From my personal observation, veterans or the disabled American veterans are given no preference when jobs are given out."

In Western Pennsylvania, I am in receipt of information to the effect that in Indiana County all recommendations for employment on road work are being handled by a representative of the Pinchot organization who was recently a candidate for office. Quoting from our representative's letter, he states: "I have recently interviewed two men from Westmoreland County looking for work. They reported that they had their applications in for road work since last November but as they were not right politically, they had received no appointment. The situation from what I can learn here in Pittsburgh is one of political endorsement before employment can be secured."

"The Allegheny County Emergency Relief Association does not know of any executive order issued by the Governor of Pennsylvania to the effect that persons seeking highway construction work should be selected from the welfare agencies. State Highway work is known to be underway in Allegheny County and it has been acknowledged by the Highway Department that they are employing on an average of 500 men, none of whom however have been obtained through the Allegheny County Emergency Association. The official in charge of State Highway construction in this district has repeatedly been requested to make use of the unemployed on the list of the Emergency Association, but since I last wrote you on May 27th, none have been placed. I have also learned that in the single instance of which I have written you, where the Commissioner of Mifflin County was asked to certify the actual need of a list submitted to him, nine were employed and after two hours work were laid off."

From Cambria County, I have a report which states that "I have been informed by the Community Chest, Poor Board, Red Cross, Welfare Exchange and Family Welfare that they have no jurisdiction over highway construction." It would further appear from this report that a recommendation from Mr. Andrew J. Gleason of Johnstown, is necessary to secure work on the highways.

I am in receipt of various letters from persons in that vicinity stating they have filed their applications for work with Mr. Gleason and apparently have not been successful in securing employment because they are not right politically. These letters are similar to many received from every section in the State citing the fact that they cannot secure employment on highways because their political connections are not the right sort.

From Lackawanna County I am in receipt of a report which after outlining the situation concludes by stating that "positions on the highways are secured through political sponsorship, and that local welfare agencies have not received any requests to furnish men for State road work."

In a recent conference with members of the Community Welfare Association, Scranton, I brought the matter up and asked them if they had heard of such procedure being followed whereby persons for highway work were selected from the lists of the welfare associations and they informed me that they never had, and it was readily admitted that politics dominate highway work in this county.

I have been informed by certain officials of the county that during the month of April, when the primaries were held in this county, several hundred additional persons were placed on the highways temporarily during that month. That this condition was general throughout the State is borne out by the fact that according to the records of the State Highway Department on April 1st, 18,905 people were on the payroll while on May 1st this increased to 35,105 or an increase of 16,200 people during the month that the primaries were held. This dropped to 26,815 on June 1st which indicated a decrease of 8290 over the previous month.

Governor Pinchot was carrying on an active campaign during the month of April to elect a U. S. Senator, delegates to the Republican National Convention, members of the Republican State Committee, and a member to Congress in the 15th district. It is generally conceded throughout the State where the political situation was tense that the Highway Department was used actively in garnering votes for the Pinchot ticket and that the bait held out was jobs in the Highway Department.

I firmly believe that a cessation of highway building at this time and a transfer of some of the funds from the Highway Department to unemployment relief throughout the State would affect a greater measure of the needier cases than is now the case where only those who have political endorsement receive any consideration. As the matter stands today, employment on the State Highways has become a political racket whereby preference is shown in many instances to persons without dependents and not in need of relief assistance to the detriment of heads of families with many dependents in dire need of assistance.

I quote from a letter typical of many received bearing out this contention. "I am a poor man with six children. I have been working three days a week on the highway and have been laid off while lots of men are working that have no families and others have lots of money."

As stated previously, Governor Pinchot agreed with my contention in the presence of those assembled in Harrisburg at the conference already referred to that the best method of selecting persons for highway work was through recommendation from welfare agencies rather than through political endorsement, yet apparently he had made no effort to change the conditions that exist. It would seem about time that those interested in the equitable distribution of employment designed as relief measures should make a thorough investigation of the political aspects of the State Highway Department and develop a remedy for the unfair methods used in placing men.

I might state briefly that the reason for making this statement was that it was the culmination of an effort on my part to try to get co-operation from the State Highway Department of Pennsylvania to the end that some of the men, hundreds of the men, particularly war veterans listed with our department as applicants for employment might be given some consideration. The Federal government is spending approximately five million dollars in the construction in Pennsylvania of road building. On the other hand, there are a number of, and many veterans of war veterans' associations who have worked out a plan with Washington whereby I might be and am entrusted with the job of trying to find employment for these men. I have received dozens of letters from these men throughout the entitre State asking me for assistance in getting them jobs in highway work.

They feel that, in view of the fact that the Federal government is spending the money in Pennsylvania, that they were entitled to some consideration on this highway work. I have one case in particular of a young man who is listed with our war veterans division, who applied for a place with the State Highway Department. He received a letter from the Secretary of the Highway Department which reads as follows:

"Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Highways, Harrisburg, April 27, 1931. Mr. John M. Pauzus, 231 North Proad Mountain Avenue, Frackville, Pennsylvania. Dear Sir: I have your letter of April 24th and attach hereto a blank form on which you can apply for employment with this Department. Please execute it and return. It will also be necessary for you to secure the endorsement of your local Pinchot leader. Very truly yours, (signed), S. S. Lewis, Secretary of Highways."

When I received that communication I felt that it was near time to work out some plan whereby Mr. Lewis, the Secretary of the Department of Highways, and ourselves could get together for the purpose of getting some of these jobs for some of the war veterans. I instructed our field workers to visit the superintendents and those in charge of road work throughout the districts and endeavor to work out some plan. In addition to that I called one of our men in from the Western part of Pennsylvania and instructed him to visit the office of Mr. Lewis and try to secure his co-operation in this connection. He replied to me:

"I stopped at Harrisburg, Wednesday, after leaving your office. Mr. Lewis was not there, but I saw Mr. Eckels and explained to him the conditions, and he referred me to Mr. Funk of Franklin, Pennsylvania, who has charge of the Pennsylvania Highway Department in this district. Mr. Funk told me that he would do what he could but he did not think he could handle many men, however I am furnishing him with a list of the men and what they are qualified to do. I also saw Mr. Thomas Frame, and he is going to arrange with his man at Clearfield, Pennsylvania, to handle a few men from McKean, Elk and Cameron Counties, so that will help some."

I received a letter later from this man in which he said, "I am indeed sorry that this condition exists, but it is a fact. You will recall our conversation while in your office on May 4th, when you called Mr. Samuel Lewis on the phone and arranged for me to see him regarding the matter of getting men work on the Pennsylvania highways. I advised you of that meeting and my conversation with Mr. Eckels, how he suggested that I call on Mr. Funk of Franklin, Pennsylvania, and that he, Mr. Eckels, would notify Mr. Funk to give us some consideration regarding work for the unemployed in this district. Mr. Funk asked me to give him a list of the men we wanted to place and I immediately mailed him the list of men and their qualifications, but to date have not as much as received an acknowledgment of them, nor has he called any men to go to work.

"I personally later visited Mr. Lewis but found him very busily engaged in writing a speech. He sent me out to see Mr. Eckels and Mr. Eckels was very curt to me and informed me that he had not much time but that if I had anything to say I must be brief. I tried to put my story across to Mr. Eckels but was dismissed with a brief statement that an executive order had been issued that these matters would be handled by the local welfare people and that under that order they are instructed to co-operate with the welfare workers in the various districts. I immediately started an investigation but I have as yet to find a single welfare committee who has been called upon to furnish any persons for work upon roads."

I want to read you a statement from a representative from the Northwestern part of Pennsylvania:

"This office is seeking information relative to the methods employed by the State Highway Department in Pennsylvania placing persons on the highways.

I have been informed that according to executive order issued by Governor Pinchot men employed on highway construction work are hired through the various welfare agencies in the communities where the work is done. This is for the purpose of giving the neediest men in those various communities opportunity for employment.

I desire to check up on this and ascertain if this is the method pursued in your vicinity, and if not, just how the employment of men on highways is conducted. In other words, I want all the information you may have available on this subject.

Please give this matter your careful attention and ascertain all the facts in connection with same, particularly as to who sponsors applications of the applicant.

The reply that I received from the Northwestern part of the State from one of the special representatives:

Your letter of the 20th instant at hand and noted. I beg to advise you that I have carefully checked the situation in question in the following counties: Erie, Crawford, Warren, McKean, Elk and Cameron, and I find that all persons receiving employment on the Pennsylvania highways must lend their support one hundred per cent. to the political ideas of Governor Pinchot. Now this does not only mean that they vote as he directs, but they must use their influences with their families, neighbors and friends.

It is true that every community has its welfare organizations and they are suppose to select the neediest men for emploment, but I have been able to find one community where such an organization has been consulted by Governor Pinchot or any of his lieutenants when men are wanted to work on the Pennsylvania highways.

Last December I received a letter from Governor Gifford Pinchot in which he stated he was going to look to the welfare organizations for men. A copy of this letter was sent to every mayor and burgess of the State. I being the burgess of Hydetown at that time thought I would be able to get some of the unemployed of this community working, but I was informed that the only men that would receive any consideration were those recommended by the Governor's lieutenants in this county and that none of the recommenations I made were given any consideration.

I find in Crawford County that Mr. Robert H. Culbertson, of Meadville, whom Governor Pinchot selected to look after his interests here after he, Governor Pinchot, ditched the regular Republic Organization, is given full authority for the picking of all men in the county to work on the highways and he will not allow any man to go to work until he purchases full support from the political ideas of the Governor.

It has developed that work on the highways which I believe is supposed to give relief to the needy in the various communities has been misappropriated, and instead of relieving the unemployed is used to build up a political organization to elect such men to office as the Governor desires.

I have here some affidavits covering a number of different sections of the State.

Here is an affidavit from Fred K. Montgomery.

Mr. TURNER. Have you made a check on these matters?

Mr. HINES. I have not as yet been able to make a complete check on these matters, but most of this material has been checked personally by me or my representatives.

Suppose we go over into the Wilkes-Barre district. I know that perhaps some people here will be interested in what is going on in Luzerne County.

Mr. SPANGLER. Have you gone into York County?

Mr. HINES. We will get down there presently.

I am now quoting

Pursuant to your request for information on the methods of employing men in State highway work I have made personal visits to every existing welfare agency in Wyoming Valley. This applies to Luzerne County. The results speak for themselves and purely indicate that employment on the highway projects is in no case secured through so-called welfare agencies. Neither is it secured through the Pennsylvania State Employment Bureau operating in Wilkes-Barre, nor the United States Employment Service which I represent in this district.

Mr. George K. Brown, Secretary of the Central Poor District advised me that they have placed no men from their list of people receiving poor funds with the Highway Department. Miss Elliott in charge of the Red Cross in Wilkes-Barre informed me that they had no placements in the Highway Department, and that theoretically the road supervisors in each township hired the men needed from their list of people out of employment. However, if a man applied for work, with a letter from the office of Judge John Fine, of the Luzerne County Court, it could not be ignored and the man was given work. Miss Elliott made mention of the fact that the county political organization controlled the situation absolutely and a letter with political significance was necessary in every case.

I called at the Associated Charities, Miss Burns, said they had no placements in the Highway Department and referred all their applicants to the Wyoming Valley Employment Office.

Mr. E. M. Dietrich an applicant for work on roads made the statement that he could get no work on the highways because it required a note or letter from Judge Fine, and he could get no such letter. He declared that he had a letter of recommendation from Senator A. J. Sordini, and United States Congressman C. Murray Turpin, with no results.

He found that if he could get a letter from someone controlling a block of votes or himself could control votes the job would be forthcoming.

From all this information and countless other interviews with men seeking employment it is evident that the matter of road jobs is not in the hands of relief agencies, welfare agencies or any other organizations created for aid in this emergency.

On or about June 1, an office for receiving applications for road jobs was opened in Independent Republican Headquarters, 54 West Market Street, Wilkes-Barre. Evidently this was done to relieve pressure in the county courthouse where they had been stormed with applicants. Very likely all those applying for jobs are already registered in the State Employment Office. This office to my knowledge has never been asked to supply labor for road jobs.

From my personal observation veterans or the disabled American veterans are given no preference when jobs are given out. In spite the fact that I have seen county officers about placements I have received no encouragement. At the present time I cannot expect assistance from this source due to the peculiar political situation in the county.

I trust that the statements that I have made will be of some value to you and I am sure you can draw your own conclusions as to the situations in the different counties involved. If there is any specific information you wish I will be happy to do anything I can to get.

Now, you see it very evident from these statements that not much consideration is given to the fact that a man may have a war record and might feel that because the Federal Government is spending money he is entitled to some consideration as being a ward of the government.

Another report from Luzerne County states:

The Central Pennsylvania Quarry, a shipping company, received a contract to build twelve miles of Federal aid highway in Lake, Ross and Fairmount Townships, Luzerne County. I got in touch with Mr. Butler in Hazleton, a member of the firm, in regard to placing applicants on the job. Mr. Butler told me he had been advised someone would see him about sending men out on the job. He told me to get in touch with the superintendent thinking I was the authority to see about it. A call on this gentleman revealed the fact that he had just been in touch with Mr. S. P. Longstreet of the State Highway Department, had been instructed to recruit his labor from the recommendations of a Judge Fine, of Wilkes-Barre.

I then called upon Mr. Longstreet in Scranton to inquire where he received his instructions to the effect that Judge Fine was the last word. Mr. Longstreet informed me that his authority for this action came from the Highway Department at Harrisburg. I explained my interest in disabled veterans as the reason for my call and he advised me to get in touch with the judge as he could do nothing for me.

I knew where the trail was leading but nevertheless was much surprised that private contractors could be so intimidated.

I made several attempts to see the judge or his secretary but had been granted no interview. I know there are jobs open and can obtain none for my applicants. My purpose in writing you is to place this situation on record. It is a contract let by the State on Federal-aid roads and still the situation is controlled directly from the Governor's Office in Harrisburg. I was told this by Mr. Longstreet who is an important representative in the Highway Department.

I will continue to attempt to interview this judge purely for the satisfaction of an answer one way or another.

I have a copy of the civil report.

Here is a further one from Luzerne County, dated Wilkes-Barre, August 11th:

Our Governor has the entire control of placing the employes of our State Highway Department in Luzerne County, the politically strong getting the preference. At least the contractors on a construction project would hire as they saw fit. Now there is a clause written in each contract stating that Judge

Fine is to provide the labor. I am told that experience in road making or construction is not even secondary consideration. * * * it is almost impossible to get a job in Luzerne County unless it be through Judge Fine's approval. It is being discussed everywhere where men meet, barber shops, lodges and so forth. In other words he is our Musolinni in Luzerne County.

Recently the father of a large family, very much in need walked eighteen miles to a construction project and was referred to Judge Fine's office. After many walks from his home to this office, a distance of about seven miles each way, he is referred to the committeeman of his voting district for a letter. After receiving the letter he made a few more trips to Judge Fine's office where he was refused a slip which would secure a job for himself which would pay him thirty cents per hour. This is one of many. I mentioned before about experience not being even secondary consideration, the need being the same. I dare say there being exception to the latter. In other words the Pennsylvania Department of Highways in our county is a joke but a mighty provoking one to those in need.

I have another communication from Luzerne County which is signed by Henry George, Squire Charles Wolf, G. E. Jones, Thomas Cheeseman and Al Freeland, who can supply some further information.

Now let us take a little trip out to the western part of the State. I have a report which reads in part as follows:

Relating to the policy of the State Highway Department on the employment of labor through the relief and welfare agencies. Investigation has developed since my last report to you, the Allegheny County Emergency Association has asked the Highway Department of this District for an expression of their intention in this matter.

The local Highway Department official has stated to them that he will employ on the road construction program only those who receive relief from the Allegheny County Emergency Relief Association. The custom heretofore has been of employing only those recommended by the local leaders in State politics.

There is a question of the custom demonstrated as to whether the State will abandon the old system and co-operate fully with the Emergency Association. This will be brought to issue in the course of the next week when I will at once acquaint you with the facts as they develop.

By Mr. McCLURE. Mr. Hines, who signed that letter?

Mr. HINES: The letter is signed by a special representative, Ralph N. Seimer, who is the special investigator.

Continuing: In the matter of using the unemployed on their relief list, the official in charge of State Highway construction in this district has been repeatedly requested to make use of the unemployed on the list of the Emergency Association, but since I last wrote you on May 7th, none have been placed. This official continues to renew his promise to call upon the relief associations for labor.

The Allegheny County Emergency Association does not know of any executive order by the Governor of Pennsylvania to the effect you have stated in your letter. As far as I am able to ascertain at this time no change has been made in the method of employing labor for State highway construction in this district nor is any change contemplated. However I have initiated inquiries which will develop this information more fully in the course of the next several days when I will acquaint you more fully on this subject and as to what sponsorship applicants must have in order to obtain this work.

The only occasion where any contact was made was when three weeks ago the Emergency Association received a list of applicants for State highway road work from Mifflin Township asking the Association to certify those on the list that were receiving relief through the association. Of the twenty-two names on this list, nine were certified, the list returned to the Mifflin Township authorities and nothing was heard of it.

Here is another report. Indiana County is the district of the sixth division and on good authority I learned that Mr. Edward Edwards Bennett, of Indiana, Pennsylvania, makes all recommendations of employment. Mr. Bennett was recently nominated on the Independent Ticket for State Senator.

From Westmoreland County of the Sixth Division, I have interviewed two men who were in Pittsburgh looking for work. They reported that they had their applications in for State road work last November but as they were not right politically they received no appointments. The situation, from what I can learn here in Pittsburgh, is one of political endorsement before appointment can be secured. I understand on good authority that in previous years there were employed on road maintenance about six to seven thousand men.

When Governor Pinchot started his program of State road construction there was placed on the Highway Department pay roll for construction and maintenance about twenty-seven to twenty-nine thousand men. In May 1932 it reached its peak of thirty-four thousand seven hundred thirty-seven employes in the State Highway Department of which thirty-two thousand five hundred and seventy were in the Construction Department.

That report is signed by William Clothier, a representative of our Department.

Up in Lackawanna County our special agent, Mr. Mosley, dismisses the whole subject by a very brief statement:

The local welfare association has not received any request for money spent for State road work.

I might say I met with the local relief association of Scranton and asked them if they were ever called upon by the Highway Department for men and they replied that they had never heard of such an order. It was the general opinion of all persons that the indorsement of the Pinchot leaders of Lackawanna County was necessary to secure employment on the highway.

From Scranton we have this signed by Oscar Lynch in which he reported that they did not have any applications from the Highway Department this year. He says:

I visited the headquarters of the Red Cross, the Welfare Association, the Community Chest and the Salvation Army, the representatives of these organizations reported that they had made no placements with the State Highway Department this year. From the information that I could gather regarding the maintenance work in our own district, with headquarters at Clark's Summit, they have in the neighborhood of one hundred and twenty men. These jobs were secured by political sponsorship prior to April 26.

I have a letter here from Moscow, Lackawanna County, Mr. H. J. Davenport in which he says:

Two weeks before election, on a Saturday afternoon there was no work and all hands were called in to Chinchilla and told how to vote, and I said when I am told how to vote it will be in some place other than the United States of America, so you can see for yourself.

Most of the letters contain rambling statements setting forth grievances and more or less containing the same facts that it is necessary to have the endorsement of the Pinchot County leaders before even considering getting an application.

I might say that I made a personal trip through Wayne County and interviewed a number of citizens of Wayne County, and in many instances I talked with anyone, such as storekeepers and people of that kind. I was told by them that Mr. Chester A. Garrett of Honesdale was the last word in regard to securing employment in Wayne County. There has been lots of talk in Susquehanna and Wayne and remote sections of Lackawanna about this thing. I don't care to indulge in this evidence. I like to confine myself to more or less the facts that I can substantiate.

I have a communication here from Everett, Bedford County:

I want to extend my congratulations on the able manner in which you have presented the charges of political favoritism in connection with the employment of men on the highways in Pennsylvania. The whole state owes you a debt of gratitude for bringing this political graft to light.

Just what information you have on the conditions along this line in Bedford County, I do not know, but if it is necessary in order to sustain your charges, many of the residents of our county would gladly welcome a full investigation of conditions as they exist here. For the past year the requisite for employment on the highways has been the support of the Pinchot organization and those who are responsible for the employment of men whether laborers, caretakers or others, have been given lists by the Pinchot leaders showing who may be employed. Those not on the list are not to be given work without the O. K. of one of the leaders. The names on these lists are not selected as to date of employment but whether they will work and vote as they are instructed at each election. This has resulted in many men being employed who do not actually need the work as a means of support, while others who are practically destitute are not given a chance.

Recently the Pinchot leader and county chairman of the county had a letter published in the county papers in which he stated that hereafter the employment of labor on the roads would be in the hands of the county unemployment committee which statement is a joke as the committee is composed entirely of Pinchot workers and appointed by the Governor on the recommendation of his county leaders. The actual facts in the case, however, are that the lists for the various districts are made up by Jere C. West, George W. Derrick, W. D. Blackburn and H. A. Shimer, who have been the Pinchot leaders of the county are intensely partisan.

Before the election last fall and again this Spring, State employes and State cars were used for weeks to line up the various employes and others for the Pinchot candidates and to distribute the funds collected by the three per cent assessment. Men who were elected local committeemen who would not run as Pinchot candidates were immediately approached and offered State jobs if they would vote for the Pinchot candidate for county chairman, while highway employes who did not support the ticket have been dismissed or slated for dismissal. Voters in certain townships have been told that no roads would be built in those townships unless their district was carried by certain candidates. Many other instances could be brought to light by a complete investigation which I will not take the time to mention here. I sincerely hope this matter will be fully investigated by the Legislature to the end that the people of this State may know how State funds are being used for the sole purpose of building the Governor's political organization. Personally I have no direct interest and am not interested in securing employment or favors but do know that partisan politics for the purpose of building up political organizations has been used to a greater extent in this county during the past year than ever before, and am bringing these facts to your attention in the event you may need them to sustain your statements.

Again thanking you for the service you are rendering the citizens of this State, and with best wishes, (Signed) Leslie Blackburn.

I have here a letter written on the stationery of the county commissioners of Columbia County:

Regarding the attitude of the United States Employment Bureau on appropriations to Pennsylvania on roads, if further information and proof of allegations made by your department are desired, they can be readily furnished by Dr. W. G. Berryhill, of Orangeville, Pennsylvania, and other reputable citizens.

This letter is signed by Clyde K. Croft, and the letterhead shows he is one of the county commissioners.

Here is a letter from Coudersport:

Here is the situation in full, Mr. Harry Kane is Pinchot's campaign manager in Potter County. Mr. E. P. Huntingdon is Pinchot's right-hand bower and Mr. Coleman Smith his left-hand bower. Any poor or unemployed who need work has to have their O. K. on all applications. Men are working on the highway of Potter County who are worth from $5000 to $30,000. Men are working on the highways from other states. Men are working on the roads on or near Coudersport that do not belong in this locality. In Roulette Township and also Bingham Township they are letting the farmers have the work on the highways instead of poor families that need it. I am a Spanish-American War veteran, fifty-four years old, with nine children and a wife to support. My boy is twenty-two years old and one boy is past nineteen, but neither one can get a job on the highway.

That letter is signed by Charles B. Chillisee.

I have here a communication from Erie County:

Another example of politics in Erie County. Married men begging for jobs and given two days a week if any work by Pinchot's gang. A boy about twenty-two years of age named John Hall of Springsboro, no dependents, has a father who works for the State and a boy steadily employed as an equipment operator, while married men with families are begging Pinchot's gang for work and receive none. One John Kendall, a divorced man about twenty-eight years of age, also employed as an equipment driver and taking flying lessons at seven dollars an hour, while dozens of married men with families are receiving seven dollars every two weeks from the Pinchot gang in Erie County. They work some of them two days in two weeks, others four days in two weeks. Kendall is said to be a nephew of Charlie Davis, the Pinchot leader and former county commissioner. Another young man named Leo Trott, an equipment operator, not married and no dependents, is another example of Pinchot's gang politics in the Highway Department. Married men with children are begging for work. Charlie, Pinchot leader, reported regularly at the State Highway Department offices and garage. It is said he is running the department in co-operation with George Mason. Hines' statements are correct. A check-up in Erie County will prove Pinchot is playing rotten politics in the Highway Department.

I have another communication from Mifflin County:

A section foreman that I relate to, owns the store and gives his work to customers who owe him.

I presume he means this man owns the store and as section foreman he sees that customers get a job so that they can pay their grocery bills.

Another case is that of a bakery that got a storekeeper work on the road so he would quit selling any other bread but theirs. We have a good many storekeepers and farmers working on the roads this year. This ring up here resembles the underworld. They seem to keep everything in their own powers.

This is one of the letters that severely criticizes certain people and I don't care to read the rest of it.

Now here is one from Downingtown. This is an expression of grievance against the manner in which the situation is handled down there.

I want to tell you, out here near me lives a man who is a retired farmer. He came here and bought a very large stone house with plenty of ground. In it then he has apartments made in his house which he has rented, a road stand and repair garage which is rented also. Then he has four race horses which he boards at the Green Tree Hotel at Duffryn Manor. He enters them at the Rose Tree races and he works on the road every day, and in the winter he is night watchman at the Green Tree for the State garage. Now do you think that is fair to the poor workingman?

Here is a brief item from Bucks County:

Last Spring a road about two miles long was built along the north boundary line of Bristol. This road runs west from the Delaware River to Beaver Dam Road and was built primarily in order to enhance the value of a tract of unimproved land owned by several local politicians. It is a nice road, but except that it did give work for a while to some Grundy-Pinchot followers, it serves no real purpose now. Perhaps some day if Bristol becomes the metropolis it may be of some use. Now—well, it's a nice road. At the time this road was being built there were quite a few veterans here out of work. Most of these men had no positions and no political alliances, or at least were not recognized Grundy-Pinchot followers and as a result did not get work. I know of one case where a man who did not 'stand right' who got a job on this road.

Mr. Hines says that the whole thing is a 'labor racket.' It is and is the cheapest, meanest kind of racket.

This communication is signed by F. W. Reynolds.

Now here's one from Clearfield County. I might say these are just a few of dozens of letters that we have received in our office in the last three months.

I am writing to you in regards to the way the State road work is being conducted in the town of Karthaus where I live. Seeing by the papers that you are the right man to write to and that you understand these things. I am a War Veteran and have had no work to speak of for the last six years and only six days in over three years. There is State road work going on here and I understand that the unemployed and needy are to be given turn at this work, but it is not being divided up in that way as the men in charge of this work are not being fair and they are giving some all of the work while others who are more in need do not get any work at all. This work is not being conducted in the proper manner and should be looked into. Please see what you can do to stop this racketing; send a man here to investigate.

This letter is signed by Charles W. Stone.

Here is one from Royersford. A gentleman writes me and says:

If by any chance you get to see the Governor and he wants proof of what is going on tell him to get in touch with T. Duncan Just, the Pinchot leader in Montgomery County; he's the man who placed sixty men from our town through his leaders here last April and now he is starting again. He placed three men on Monday, one is single and the other two are married but have no children. Just to show you what is going on here in our small community a crowd of our unemployed went up to a small town called Linfield on Monday. There is a bridge connecting Linfield and Haversford across the Schuylkill river. They asked for a job and were told to see T. Duncan Just. Now can you imagine a politician stooping so low as to offer a man a pick and shovel job just for his vote.

I think you may be interested in this one. I don't know what there is to it.

Wind C..p, August 7, 1932.

I enjoyed reading the Philadelphia Inquirer Sunday paper of August 6, 1932, with a large headline 'Pinchot held racketeer on highway job.' We need more men like ·ou Mr. Hines. I know of a road job that was done at Marsh Creek where there was some crooked work going on.

The company worked nights to mix dirt in with fine rock dust and they got away with it. I tipped the road inspector off about it and the road inspector caught them the next night but the way the road inspector talked he would have them in court but this thing didn't even come out in the paper.

If you would like to know more please write as I would like to tell you about it and I am sure our dear beloved Governor Pinchot knows something about that job. I also worked for the State and your news in the Sunday paper was no new news to me. I found that out a month ago.

That letter is signed by E. A. Bauchman.

Here's a brief quote from Cambria County which I know is rather authentic.

I personally believe most of the highway jobs are secured on the recommendations of the county political leaders. I have been informed by the Community Chest, Poor Board, Red Cross, Welfare Exchange, Family Welfare, they have no jurisdictions over the highway construction work. They also informed me once in a while they are able to place a man through Mr. Andrew J. Gleason for that type of employment.

Another report in my possession says that the situation in securing jobs became so rotten that the Republican County Committee passed a set of resolutions calling attention to the conditions existing a copy of which was sent to Governor Pinchot and General Martin, State Treasurer and State Chairman of the Republican State Committee.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Hines, you have a copy of these resolutions?

Mr. HINES. No. I do not have a copy of those here.

Now here's one from Punxsutawney:

I want to say that the Pinchot State road work in Jeffe· on County is controlled by a bunch of henchmen of the political ring of Jefferson County, and if you wanted a job you would have to see one of those fellows before you could get it. My boys and I went to the employment camp at Cramer, Pennsylvania, and signed for work and I never got a day's work, and I have a wife and seven children and needed the work bad to get my family something to eat for I have only had an odd day's work now and then for the last four years. I even wrote and told Governor Pinchot and several weeks after they sent a young man by the name of Long from Sykesville to my home, but still I never got a day's work. Mr. Long is a single man and a son of the postmaster at Sykesville. They took a man by the name of W. A. Lamison, put him on road work as an inspector, and he had never had any experience on road work and has no one to keep but his wife and has had steady work for over thirty years. There was another man and his son got work right along and his other son and daughter were working steady at the time and they own two farms and they were able to buy themselves a new automobile this spring when the road work finished, and there were single men who even came over from Indiana County into Jefferson County and got work on the roads. My one son got to work five days and three hours, and he made at least thirteen trips of thirty miles a day to get that. He was helping to tear down coke ovens for one for the roads and days they couldn't work on the roads they would send him home and put men off the roads, and there were lots of men treated the same as my son and right here in Jefferson County.

That letter is signed by Levi McConnauchy.

Here is one from Colwin, Pennsylvania, and after going on and telling about the troubles existing down in that section he states quite a number of employes are actually engaged who are from foreign countries and from other states including unnaturalized citizens. That would seem to be a matter to be worth while looking into and I think our department will go into that. Here is a man who states he is employed by the Highway Department six years, has quite a family of four children and was fired outright for supporting ——— as the Hoover delegate. This letter is signed by Mr. J. T. Thompson of Newville.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Hines, will you not read the whole letter, please.

Mr. HINES. "Just a few lines of information in regards to statements in papers and do a favor for you. I understand by reading this clipping I have enclosed, published in a Philadelphia paper, that they doubt your statements about politics being played in road work. You are right and no one knows better than I, and if you need any sworn statements or affidavits I can get plenty of those including myself and would be glad to do it in your behalf. I was employed by the Highway Department for six years, a wife and family of children, and was fired outright for supporting the Davis ticket and Hoover delegates. I am enclosing a clipping out of the newspapers published just five days ago to clarify my statements. Also have thirty-five fellow employes to back me up. I never was in conjunction with Pinchot politics, I have always been old line Republican and that is why I was dismissed two days after the primary April 28th and have been out of work ever since and have been living off of just what I can get and that is very little, seven days work since April 28th. After holding my job for six years, was fired when I needed it most. These people can verify my statements and I am at your service at any time. Signed, T. J. Thompson." Then the enclosed clipping which refers to Thomas Thompson of Newville, and a man by the name of W. S. Arbegast. I might say, Mr. Chairman, that I received dozens of these letters. I have not brought them all up here or anywheres near all of them.

Here is one from a woman at State College:

I wish to say that the conditions relative to the necessity of pull in order to obtain employment on highway construction has been a common complaint in this part of the State.

Moreover, highways that are much needed have not been built, others where they are positively not needed but where political influence was brought to bear, are built. In the borough of State College, Center County, a relocation of highways Route No. 307 has been made although a concrete highway was built several years ago in Allen Street in the borough to connect with this route. This paved route through the borough is now being abandoned and another highway running parallel to the old one at a distance of only three blocks is now to be built on South Atherton Street, over the protest of a majority of the abutting family owners. Bids have already been let for the building of the highway. The building of this highway means an almost insupportable burden and expense on abutting property owners in these times of depression and in some instances it may mean that owners will lose their homes. The street is now macadam in good condition as is also the road from State College to Boalsburg which is part of this same route and which is to be torn up and rebuilt. Just why Federal funds should be appropriated now to build highways that are not needed is a mystery to all but the political bosses and it is certainly not in harmony with the government's plan to use all possible funds for the needy."

This is signed, Miss Ellen Johnson.

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Your own engineers helped to locate this road, did they not?

Mr. HINES. The federal engineers?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Yes.

Mr. HINES. I believe they take part of the federal State-aided roads. I don't know about this one particular road.

Mr. SOWERS. Do all these letters show it is political relief that is being granted and not work relief?

Mr. HINES. They all have the same trend in them.

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Do you have any data to show how many ex-service men are employed on the roads of the Commonwealth?

Mr. HINES. I have data to show how many men there are that are listed with us, and let me say that the United States employment service maintains a separate branch for the employment of veterans. Veterans generally are advised to register with us in conjunction with these through a plan worked out through the United States employment service and organizations representing the disabled veterans. Every disabled man in the State of Pennsylvania has been referred to our department and they in turn have been referred to me. We have contacted every single man requesting from him information as to whether he is employed, if he desires employment, and sending him application blanks. They are all filed under my supervision. We have three key offices in Pennsylvania: Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Scranton. In addition we have seven special agents. Due to the economy program this number has been cut to three. These men have travel authority and they cover the counties and they try to tie in with the central office at Scranton, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. In this way we have the whole state covered. We have the names of these disabled men. Every single one is registered with us. We in turn refer these names to our nearest contact man who goes and visits the man and ascertains just how badly he is disabled, whether he is able to work and what sort of work he is fitted for. It is my thought that the Highway Department could co-operate with us particularly in those sections where jobs are scarce and that we would be able to place a good many of these poor fellows, particularly the man who is a gassed man but otherwise fit. I can give you the figures of the number of men that are listed with us, that are employed on highway projects, in fact I would say definitely there are less than twenty-five out of approximately——

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Hines, do you mean ex-service men or those who have filed with you?

Mr. HINES. Those who have availed themselves of the facilities of our office,—I couldn't say all ex-service men.

Mr. SOWERS. They are the disabled men?

Mr. Hines. They are the disabled men. We have approximately 7,000 registered through our office, and from every section of the State. Our man in the northwestern part of Pennsylvania who covers the counties in that section of the State, by reference to his record—I have a report that he made to the Disabled Veterans Convention in Los Angeles—and his record shows that at this date when this report was written, he had received a hundred and fourteen disbabled veterans' applications. He had up to that time personally visited seventy-six of these disabled and had found suitable employment for twenty-eight of them. He found that fourteen of them where already at work, three were found to be unable to work and he assisted in providing relief for four, and for two he secured hospitalization. In other words, he found these two men in such condition that they go to the hospital and he sent one to Aspinwall and brought the other one to the hospital at Philadelphia.

Here is a man in the Wilkes-Barre district——

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Hines, before you leave that you say there are twenty-eight employed. Are all of them on highways?

Mr. HINES. No sir, they are not. We have been unable to get more than twenty-five, as I say, over the entire State.

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. You have no data as to the entire number of ex-service men that are employed on the State Highways?

Mr. HINES. No, because they have not all availed themselves of the facilities of our office. Wilkes-Barre has a total of two hundred and one, and our man personally visited a hundred and fifty-six. He placed thirty-eight of these disabled in employment, he found three of them that were permanently disabled and eight of them were temporarily unfit for service. We are the recognized agency of the United States government working in behalf of the veterans, and the disabled veterans, to secure them employment, according to an act of Congress this veterans' office was set up as an exclusive veterans' office. That is only one branch of our work. In addition we try to find employment for men and women, other than veterans throughout the State. Many of these letters that I am reading to you here today come from veterans, others again come from non-veterans. I constantly receive letters asking me if I could not get them an endorsement for a job on State highways. I am compelled to write back to these men and say, "No, I am informed by the Highway Department that you must register with your local welfare committee," and then these men write back and tell me that the Highway Department does not take any people from the lists of the welfare committee. There is not a thing that I can do about it, and that is what I am up against.

I could go on here indefinitely reading more of these letters to you, but as I said I have only a small number of them here; I have a bushel basket full of them in Philadelphia. I think I have substantiated the statements I made in the press on August 6th. The mere fact that a letter over the signature of the Secretary of Highways in which he says to the applicant it will be necessary for you to have the endorsement of the local Pinchot leader should be sufficient to establish the charges that I made or to substantiate them—the affidavits have read to you here.

I want to invite your attention to one significant thing. I have the records here for the Highway Department for the years 1931, April 1st, May 1st, and June 1st. It is a very significant fact that last year in 1931, there was a total as of April 1st of 9,247 people employed on the highways. On May 1st there was 11,871 and on June 1st there was a total of 15,391. In other words, there was a gradual increase in the number of persons employed through the months of April, May and June. In 1932 however, there is a different story. On April 1st, there were 18,905 employed, and on May 1st, there were 35,105 or almost one hundred per cent increase in the personnel. I refer you to a chart here which indicates these increases took place among the laborers, truck drivers, teamsters, and so forth on the so-called small jobs. Then there was a decrease then from the thirty-five thousand so that on June 1st the total was 26,615 with a further decrease as of July 1st to 23,867.

Now, I don't know, but from my visits throughout the State I have been told continually that the bait held out to those who are looking for jobs was jobs on the Highway Department, and they were told that if they would subscribe to the policy of the Pinchot-Butler ticket they would get jobs. I have been told in Lackawanna County that the rush was so great for applications that they had to send to Harrisburg to get more. It would seem to me from the records where you have an increase of nearly 100 per cent. from April 1st and a gradual decrease through May, June and July, it is indicative of something. As I made the statement to the newspapers, the Governor was certainly at that time trying to elect a State-wide ticket.

I want to tell you gentlemen that I have no political axe to grind, and there is nothing personal about the thing to me. I am only anxious to get co-operation with the Highway Department especially in view of the fact that the Federal government is spending five million dollars yearly on roads in this State and I might say that I think I am going to get it. I have had the same trouble in connection with the Department of Agriculture, but I feel this way, that when I have been entrusted with a job of getting jobs for men that have been referred to me by the Federal government and Federal money is being spent on this State, that I have a resonable right to expect co-operation from the State itself.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Hines, what money the Federal government is spending here is money that is to be paid back by the State to the Federal government?

Mr. HINES. No. That is Federal-aid work.

Mr. SPANGLER. From the figures you have just read there showing the trend of employment in 1932, do not those figures indicate to you conclusively, or would they not; that the high peak of employment of men on the highways was immediately prior to the Pennsylvania spring primary, and that soon after the spring primaries were over, the trend gradually decrease?

Mr. HINES. Certainly it would indicate that and that is born out by statements made to me by countless people throughout the State who told me that they were given several days work before the primary, and immediately after, they were let out.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Hines, are you familiar with the Federal Road Act

Mr. HINES. Yes.

Mr. TURNER. The five million dollars and over of Federal money spent in Pennsylvania is not a loan from the Federal government to the State of Pennsylvania; we don't pay that back?

Mr. HINES. No sir; it is my understanding that your money is spent in proportion to the same amount to build Federal state roads or trunk lines throughout the State; roads like the Lincoln Highway or other roads that run from one state to another.

Mr. TURNER. In other words we have to match the federal money?

Mr. HINES. Yes. The federal government carries this kind of program through in other departments, such as the Department of Labor and Industry. We pay the salaries of some of the employees of the Department of Labor and Industry. We give them the franking privilege. The Bureau of Rehabilitation has the same practice. In other words the federal government assists the State in carrying on their work.

Mr. TURNER. We merely match this federal money for road work.

Mr. HINES. That's my understanding.

Mr. TURNER. Do you know what these appropriations amount to?

Mr. HINES. The appropriation in 1931 was five million five hundred and twenty-four thousand, five hundred and twelve dollars. The appropriation for 1932 was five million, five hundred and seventeen thousand, one hundred and thirty-two dollars and the appropriation for 1933 will be four million, six hundred four thousand, six hundred and sixty-seven dollars and forty cents.

Mr. TURNER. Must any of that be paid back by the State?

Mr. HINES. It is my understanding it must not. Incidentally I do not care to go into that too deeply, because that concerns another department. I do not want to encroach upon the prerogatives of another department, but in order to develop it among ourselves, I will say, there is one hundred and twenty million dollars federal emergency highway construction fund that has been appropriated by the federal government to make good the amounts diverted. This State could avail itself of a portion of that money up to five million two hundred sixty-eight thousand, two hundred and sixty dollars, provided they match it and agree to certain terms that will be laid down by the federal government which will include among other things minimum wages for both skilled and unskilled labor, the maximum of hours which will be thirty hours weekly and no convict labor shall be employed and that these men employed shall be employed through the United States Employment Service and the Service Employment Bureau of the State and other recognized welfare agencies of the State, to the end that most needy may be given the preference. That is the stipulation that the federal government has laid down. Apparently the Highway Department has not seen fit to avail themselves of this subsidy from the federal government. I don't know why. Whether they don't want to subscribe to the terms laid down by the federal government or not. But it is my understanding from general knowledge that they could avail themselves of all or some of this money if they cared to. Mr. Lewis came out recently with a statement I understand, that due to certain contracts that had been made it was impossible to do it. However, I believe you that it could be done.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Hines, do I understand you to say that you made frequent application to the Department of Highways and the Governor's office for the purpose of complaining about the conditions that you allege do exist and that you get no hearing from them?

Mr. HINES. I called this to the attention of the Governor at an open meeting held by the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor in conjunction with various volunteer agencies throughout the State. The Governor appeared at that meeting and spoke and I took occasion to arise and ask him, "Do I understand correctly or was I correctly informed by the Highway Department, that you had issued an order that all persons employed on the highways were to be hired upon the recommendation of the welfare agencies in the various communities in order that the most needy cases should be given preference?" It is my recollection that he said he had not issued that order but that he contemplated doing that. I ask him if he didn't feel that this procedure would be more preferable than the one now in existence where men are hired because of political endorsement, and he agreed it would. I tried to work this problem out with the Highway Department. As I said before, I called the Secretary of the Highway Department. Mr. Lewis was very busy writing a speech, and although I only asked him to give me five minutes of his time—I had come all the way from Philadelphia to see him—and he sent out one of his subordinates who in a most discourteous manner told me I would have to make it brief and dismissed me with a statement that if I was interested in anyone, to have them registered with the welfare agencies. That doesn't sit very well with me when agencies like the Disabled Veterans are co-operating and writing to me and asking me why they can't get work where there is federal construction work and I have to write back and tell them that they must get in touch with their charitable organizations.

Now, gentlemen, I think I have established the fact in my statements and that I am not extreme.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Hines, have you read the Governor's message that was delivered at the time of the convening of this special session in which I understand the Governor admitted that irregularities had been discovered in the manner of employment on State Highways but that he was going to reform them?

Mr. HINES. Yes sir.

Mr. SPANGLER. Do you think he has reformed them?

Mr. HINES. I don't think that he has. Let me call your attention, gentlemen, to the fact that these letters have been written within the last week or ten days and that would not indicate that there had been much change in the situation.

Mr. MASON. In reference to Luzerne County, the basis of your charge is in these three reports of your investigators and those three names that you have turned over?

Mr. HINES. Supplemented by personal investigation.

Mr. MASON. How many unemployed heads of families would you say there were in the County of Luzerne?

Mr. HINES. I don't know.

Mr. MASON. Would you say naturally it would run into the thousands?

Mr. HINES. I would assume so. We have a monthly report on employment trends. The reports I get from the Anthracite Region indicate that there are a great number of persons out of employment. I understand that there have been as high as one hundred and sixty anthracite miners employed normally there would be one hundred and twenty, and my information now is that the reports indicate that it is less than thirty which would indicate a large number of unemployed in that region.

Mr. MASON. You are familiar with the Federal Aid work in that locality?

Mr. HINES. To some extent.

Mr. MASON. How many jobs are there in the process of construction, do you know?

Mr. HINES. I am not in a position to say right now.

Mr. MASON. In addition to the Red Rock Road, is there not another one being opened by the Union Paving Company which extends into Wyoming County?

Mr. HINES. I would not want to commit myself on that without being able to substantiate my statements.

Mr. MASON. Have you any idea how many men can be employed on road work in that community?

Mr. HINES. I have no idea.

Mr. MASON. If I told you the total number of men employed on these two jobs under construction approximate one hundred and twenty to one hundred and thirty, and you will agree with me that there are thousands of families unemployed in Luzerne, is it not a fact and a natural fact that there would be thousands who could not get employment and that the thousands who could not get employment would be disgruntled because they did not get it?

Mr. HINES. Positively, but the fact still remains according to my information that this hundred and seven would still need the endorsement of Judge Fine in order to get employment and would not be selected by the welfare organizations.

Mr. MASON. Have you checked up to see if they are family men whose families have been starving and see what type of men there are that are working there?

Mr. HINES. I have not gone into each and every individual case, but let us assume that each and every one is starving, does that justify the procedure?

Mr. MASON. I do not see that it makes any difference if they feed the starving class. They have to do it somehow up there.

Mr. HINES. According to your theory, if you have a thousand starving and can only afford employment for a hundred, the hundred that subscribe to the policy of the political leaders are to be favored?

Mr. MASON. Not necessarily, but I want to ask you, as between a starving family that are enemies of yours, who would you give the job to?

Mr. HINES. If I was in the Governor's position I would not distinguish between friends and foes, particularly if I were trying to make it appear that the road-building work was being conducted as work relief. I would make no distinction. I would try to work out some program whereby the most needy cases would be recommended for the jobs either through the recognized agencies such as the State Employment Office or through the various welfare agencies who know the needs of the people best rather than upon the political endorsement of any one.

Mr. SOWERS. Do I understand you then, that you object to public money being used for paying political favors?

Mr. HINES. I object to public money being spent in the manner I indicated here today and particularly federal public money.

Mr. SOWERS. May I ask if I may see the letter which you say you received from Mr. Lewis?

(Mr. Hines secures and hands to Mr. Sowers the letter referred to.)

Mr. HINES. Yes. I don't care to turn that over to the Committee as yet. I will give you a photostatic copy of it.

Mr. SOWERS. Is that a rubber stamp signature?

Mr. HINES. It looks to me like it is written with a pen. I would ask the Chairman to read that letter.

Mr. SOWERS. (Reading) "Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, (seal indicating "justice"), Department of Highways, Harrisburg, April 27th, 1931. Mr. John M. Pauzus, 231 North Broad Mountain Avenue, Frackville, Pennsylvania. Dear Sir: I have your letter of April 24 and attach hereto a blank form upon which you can apply for employment with this Department. Please execute it and return. It will also be necessary for you to secure the endorsement of your local Pinchot leader. Very truly yours, signed, S. S. Lewis, Secretary of Highways. I-N-C, and a couple of initials to make sure it is right, and the date of the letter is April 27th, and up in the right-hand corner it says, 'In your reply please refer to O. R. 103. That means that you are out.

Mr. KLECKNER. Does that condition seem to have existed in all the counties where there was a Pinchot organization?

Mr. HINES. Yes.

Mr. SOWERS. You referred to a chart giving the number of employes in the department. Who issues that chart?

Mr. HINES. The Department of Highways. The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Highways, Personnel Statement No. 2, Totals of Field Organization.

Mr. SOWERS. I kind of have an interest in York County. Can you tell me before the primary about how many approximately were employed in York County, especially in Mr. Spangler's district?

Mr. HINES. That is not given according to counties. I have read you the totals. I thought this would be interesting to you, Mr. Chairman. On April 1st, 1932, we had twelve thousand.

Mr. SOWERS. That is four weeks before the primary?

Mr. HINES. Yes; before it—12,663 laborers and on June 1st—and this is the report for April—it had jumped to 18,908 laborers.

Mr. SOWERS. 1932—this year?

Mr. HINES. Yes.

Mr. SOWERS. That is about seven thousand more voters.

Mr. HINES. Well, about seven thousand more voters or any way you want to put it. It drops back again on July 1st to 14,370, and I think that would bear out your statement that many of these fellows were given temporary jobs during the month of April.

Mr. SOWERS. Is there anything on that chart that indicates the political assessments?

Mr. HINES. No, but I have heard plenty about that in my travels through the State. As I read to you in my preliminary statement that you might be surprised that many people employed by the Pinchot organization were not only willing but anxious to give information that there was a definite resentment against what many of them term the "Boy Scout Political Leaders" in the counties did not know what they were doing. They don't know from one day to another what they are doing.

Mr. MASON. Mr. Hines, then a lot of these letters show political resentment more than the fact that they couldn't get work?

Mr. HINES. I would not say that. It would appear to me that these poor fellows are appealing to me in despair and hoping that something will come from this.

Mr. MASON. I would suggest that you read that letter from Crawford County. That would certainly appear to be full of political venom?

Mr. HINES. I wouldn't say that.

Mr. MASON. With reference to your investigators, are their jobs filled through taking a civil service examination?

Mr. HINES. No.

Mr. MASON. They are political appointments?

Mr. HINES. Just the same as your jobs are.

Mr. MASON. Political?

Mr. HINES. Not necessarily. I want to make this statement: there is no political significance attached to my appointment whatsoever. I might seem to be slightly egotistical about this, but I was told by the Secretary of Labor that I had been selected without consultation with any of the political leaders of Pennsylvania because of what he termed my peculiar fitness for this job. I might say that I never conferred with any political leader in Pennsylvania to get his endorsement for my job.

Mr. JOHN A. RHODES. Let me ask you, is your department only interested in securing jobs and appointments for disabled veterans?

Mr. HINES. No, we have in Pennsylvania a complete setup whereby we co-operate with the Department of Labor and Industry in thirteen cities and maintain three offices of our own and a field organization. We endeavor to secure employment for men and women regardless of whether they are veterans or not. But we do maintain a separate division for veterans and a separate division for disabled veterans and we incidentally are the only government agency in the State that does that. Consequently when a veteran wants a job, when he appeals to the government for work he is immediately referred to us. I receive hundreds of letters every month from veterans, from the Veterans' Bureau, from the Secretary of Labor, from my immediate supervisor, and from various veterans' organizations who have written into the government asking them to help them find work. In the case of the disabled men we made a special survey whereby the name of every disabled man in Pennsylvania was referred to us and in turn we checked through our office to find out whether or not they had employment, what their qualifications were and thus we are able to contact with those men.

Mr. JOHN A. RHODES. You would lend your office to the aid of any persons seeking employment?

Mr. HINES. Absolutely. Approximately we have on the registry in Philadelphia alone 20,000 names and out of these 9,942 are veterans.

Mr. JOHN A. RHODES. Do you think that persons who register themselves with you, seeking a position, should have preference over people who do not register?

Mr. HINES. I believe that inasmuch as we are a government agency and we are devoting our time exclusively in trying to find employment for men and women that we should have the co-operation of everyone who has a job to give out in order that we may be able to place those men. It seems to me a more orderly method than the haphazard method of hiring a man from the street or hiring a man who is not registered. Experience has indicated that in the last year more and more of the unemployed persons have come to realize that through the public employment agencies they have a much better chance of employment. The employer in turn is beginning to recognize that he has a better chance of getting the right sort of applicant for the job.

Mr. JOHN A. RHODES. The number of persons that you have registered that may be asking for aid in securing a position would be a very small percentage of the total unemployed.

Mr. HINES. I don't know whether it would or not. I would say a fairly large percentage of all unemployed in Pennsylvania are registered with us or through our efforts with the Department of Labor and Industry.

Mr. JOHN A. RHODES. Do you think your department should place everybody out of jobs on public work?

Mr. HINES. I think that when the Federal government is spending money in Pennsylvania to build roads our department should have something to say about disabled veterans securing jobs and they should not require the political endorsement of Governor Pinchot to get them jobs.

Mr. JOHN A. RHODES. If you secure a certain number of disabled veterans on each particular job, do I understand that that is what your complaint is. I am not speaking of any influence, personal or otherwise.

Mr. HINES. My complaint is that we have contacted every disabled man in Pennsylvania and we have ascertained whether he desires employment. He is registered with us and naturally looks to us to secure employment for him, and I have been anxious to work out some program of co-operation with the Department of Highway in view of the fact that the Federal government is spending money in this State toward the building of roads.

Mr. JOHN A. RHODES. Is that what you are only especially interested in?

Mr. HINES. Yes.

Mr. JOHN A. RHODES. The disabled men only?

Mr. HINES. Not necessarily the disabled men but every one.

Mr. JOHN A. RHODES. You say "yes" then you qualify. Just what do you mean?

Mr. HINES. I don't want to be pinned down to a certain group. I don't want to be placed in the position of discriminating the large block of non-veterans in preference to one particular group. We are trying to assist everybody, but it seems to me that these man as wards of the government have a particular call on the government and when the government is spending money here they have a right to ask that they be given work on the highways.

Mr. SOWERS. Was this discrimination among veterans carried on while General Butler was running for office?

Mr. HINES. Here are the facts, as I stated before, this investigation covers a period of three months, which includes that time.

Mr. KLECKNER. May I inquire whether these political tactics were used in the primaries and whether pressure was brought to bear to have them work for the State ticket?

Mr. HINES. There is a letter there that indicates that, the one that comes from Everett; that they used such machines and used the full facilities of the Highway Department.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Hines, you don't need to say that. all the members of the Legislature know that.

Senator HARVEY. How does the force now compare with the force a year ago.

Mr. HINES. What I was reading were comparative figures from month to month.

Senator HARVEY. Did you compare this year with the previous year?

Mr. HINES. There were less men employed in the previous year.

Senator HARVEY. By how much?

Mr. HINES. April 1st, 1931, 9,247 people were employed.

Mr. SOWERS. That is in April of 1931?

Mr. HINES. That's right.

Mr. SOWERS. That is when there was no primary?

Mr. HINES. That's right.

Mr. SOWERS. Now let's have April of 1932 when there was a primary.

Mr. HINES. In April of 1932 there were 18,905.

Mr. SOWERS. A hundred per cent. increase.

Mr. HINES. A hundred per cent. increase. May 1, 1931, 11,871; May 1, 1932, 35,105; June 1, 1931, 15,391; June 1, 1932, 26,815; July 1, 1931, 17,576; July 1, 1932, 23,687. And the point I want to make, Mr. Chairman, is that while the figures increased in 1931 very gradually to July, they increased for only one month of 1932 and then they gradually decreased which would indicate that during the month of April there was one hundred per cent. increase in personnel.

Mr. SOWERS. There seems to be a lot of truth in that old saying, "When the election is on we eat."

Mr. McELWEE. Is it not a fact that between April, 1931, and April, 1932, there were twenty thousand miles added to the State highway system?

Mr. HINES. I did not have access to those figures; I don't know and I do not believe you gentlemen of the Legislature are in position to determine that much better than I am. They have a method of putting out figures in the Highway Department that I am unable to understand at times and I know that there are certain features of bookkeeping whereby you can make things appear different from what they are.

Mr. McELWEE. You mean to suggest, then, Mr. Hines, that the members of the Legislature do not know how much mileage was added in that period?

Mr. HINES. I would not suggest that, no. I want to say in conclusion, as I repeated before, that there is no political significance to this or personal animosity. All I want is an opportunity to co-operate with the Highway Department to the end that the many thousands of needy people who apply to me may be given some consideration. If the man is not worthy, if he is unfitted for the job I can readily agree that he should not be given any consideration at all, but I do believe that it should be unnecessary for him to have the endorsement of a political leader to work with a pick and shovel on the highways, in order to earn a livelihood for his family.

Mr. SOWERS. Will you be willing to come back here later? Your statements are so startling, you ought to give us a day or two to think them over.

Mr. HINES. Yes sir, any time at all.

Mr. JOHN A. RHODES. May I ask you if your department were placing men on public work in the State of Pennsylvania, you would place citizens of Pennsylvania alone?

Mr. HINES. We would confine ourselves to citizens of Pennsylvania and to citizens of the immediate locality.

Senator HARVEY. How would that give relief to Philadelphia and Allegheny County and Pittsburgh?

Mr. HINES. I am afraid it would not give very much relief to Philadelphia. As I said in my statement of August 6th that if this condition was to continue I felt that some moneys from the Highway Fund should be transferred to the General Relief Fund so that the people of the various sections of the State that are not going to be assisted by this should be given some consideration. I am not speaking solely on behalf of people of Philadelphia or Pittsburgh or any other large city, but I do feel the way the matter is being handled at the present time the citizens of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh and other large sections are being discriminated against.

Senator HARVEY. These federal-aid roads are let on contract after due bidding?

Mr. HINES. Yes sir.

Senator HARVEY. And insofar as employment is concerned, after that it is left up to the contractor?

Mr. HINES. No; there are specifications in the contract he shall avail himself of the services of the United States Bureau of Employment and other recognized welfare committees in the various communities where the work will be done.

Senator HARVEY. Can you check up on that one contractor in Luzerne County? You will find that there are six hundred and eighty-three employed and thirty of them are from Philadelphia.

Mr. HINES. No; I have not.

Senator HARVEY. I would suggest that you do that.

Mr. McCLURE. That will end the hearing and this hearing now stands adjourned.

Legislative Journal.

Extraordinary Session of 1932.

Vol. 14 HARRISBURG, PA., THURSDAY, AUGUST 18, 1932. No. 29

SENATE

THURSDAY, August 18, 1932

The Senate met at 11 o'clock A. M. (Eastern Standard Time).

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Edward C. Shannon) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. Christian H. Shirk, offered the following prayer:

Thou Holy and Ever Blessed God, the heavens declare Thy glory and the firmament showeth forth Thy handiwork. Thou hast revealed Thyself in the various forms of nature. The power of Thy hand is manifested in the course of human history. Thou didst give unusual perception of things spiritual to seers who recorded for us the words of sacred scripture. Thou canst be seen in the lives of all who walk in true fellowship with Thee.

Give us the power of spiritual discernment which will enable us to behold Thy beauty and glory, and to hear Thy words of comfort and counsel. Then will we respond to the celestial vision, and attain life's highest goal, unto the glory of Thy name. Amen.

HOUSE MESSAGES

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was read as follows, and referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

In the House of Representatives, August 17, 1932.

Whereas, During the present Extraordinary Session of the Legislature, various estimates of the revenue received by the Commonwealth during the present biennium, together with the expenditures made from appropriations passed at the 1931 Session, have been submitted to the House and Senate in answer to resolution passed requesting such estimates, and

Whereas, These estimates very greatly and to such an extent that the Members of the Legislature are in great doubt as to the correctness and authenticity of any of them, and

Whereas, It is not only important but most necessary that such estimates as are furnished to the Legislature for their information should be correct and true, in order that such action as might be taken in the making of appropriations should be correct, and

Whereas, The Auditor General, an elective officer of the Commonwealth, is in possession of all such records, figures and estimates as would enable him to best furnish the Legislature with correct estimates, therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Auditor General is hereby requested to make a report to the Legislature at the beginning of the Session of 1933 containing the following:

(a) A full and complete statement of all appropriations made by the Legislature for the present biennium to all departments, boards, and commissions, and to all State institutions and private institutions receiving State-aid.

(b) A statement showing the actual operating expenses of all such departments, boards or commissions, and the expenditures made from appropriations thereto and to State institutions and private institutions receiving State-aid from the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one, to January first, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three.

(c) An estimate in detail by sources of the probable receipts of the Commonwealth during the biennium beginning June first, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, and be it further

Resolved, That the figures so reported to the Legislature of 1933 may be considered authoritative and shall be made the basis for any and all action by the Legislature in deciding upon the necessity for additional revenue, and in regard to appropriations to be made from such revenues.

The resolution was read as follows:

In the Senate, August 16, 1932.

Whereas, A demand for public utility regulations became general in this Commonwealth prior to 1913 and in consequence and after the best legal minds in Pennsylvania had devoted months to its study the Public Service Act was passed, since interpreted and constructed by the State and Federal Appellate Courts forming a substantial body of law intimately affecting comfort and happiness of our people, and

Whereas, In the administration of that law certain weaknesses have been shown to exist demanding substantial amendatory legislation and the Senate of Pennsylvania in the Regular Session of 1931 passed such relief legislation, namely the McClure Bill, Senate Bill No. 414, known as the People's Counsel Bill and which would have given speedy substantial relief to rate payers and any communities complaining against a utility rate without any cost to such communities; the Parkinson Bill, Senate Bill No. 483, which would have denied to any public utility the right to issue securities until such securities had been approved by the Public Service Commission thus preventing the watering of utility stock and other abuses of similar character and the Howell Bill, No. 259, which took away from Public utilities the right to increase rates by merely filing a scheduled increase, all of which legislation was killed by orders of Governor Pinchot, and

Whereas, The public is entitled to know all the facts both as to the law creating the Commission and its personnel so that public confidence in the integrity of the efficiency and personnel of the State Government may be fully restored; and

Whereas, The revelations in the W. D. B. Ainey proceedings and the failure of Mr. Ainey to meet the charges on the ground of financial inability and health has shaken public confidence in the Public Service Commission; therefore be it

Resolved, That the President Pro Tempore of the Senate is hereby authorized to appoint a committee consisting of seven Members of the Senate, which committee is hereby directed to make a full, complete, impartial and searching investigation, (a) of the allegations that money and other valuable considerations were paid, given or extended to or for the benefit of Members of the Public Service Commission by public utility companies or individuals connected therewith to influence their decisions, (b) whether public utility companies and individuals connected therewith other than the ones named in the prior investigation have had improper relations with members of the Commission, (c) whether public utility companies have been securing unfair advantage by corrupt means, (d) of the administration of the Public Service Company Law by the Public Service Commission, and of the changes needed in said law to render full justice to the public and to utility companies, (e) of the affairs and personnel of the Public Service Commission since 1913, and (f) such other facts, matters and affairs as shall be deemed necessary by the committee in order to enable it to make a comprehensive report to the Senate or such recommendations for action by the Senate, as it deems necessary;

Resolved, That said committee shall have all the powers of the Senate when engaged in the transaction of executive business, power to transact which is conferred only upon the Senate by the Constitution and laws of the Commonwealth;

Resolved, That said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman, duly attested by the Secretary of the Senate, requiring and commanding any person or persons to appear before it and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary, and to take testimony of witnesses outside of Pennsylvania and for that purpose to issue commissions or other appropriate proceedings. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person, and shall have the same force and effect as subpoenas issuing out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of the committee shall have power to administer oaths or affirmations to witnesses appearing before it. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to appear and testify before said committee, or to produce any books, papers, records and documents, shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of this Commonwealth in such cases;

Resolved, That the committee be authorized to request the Attorney General to render such advice and service as it deems necessary and to turn over to it such information as he may have in his possession;

Resolved, That the committee be authorized to employ such attorneys, accountants, experts, stenographers, clerks and other agents as it may deem necessary in conducting said investigation, to fix the compensation of the persons so employed, which compensation and the expenses of the members of the committee shall be paid out of an appropriation made at this session of the Legislature;

Resolved, That the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate be directed to attend said committee to serve subpoenas issued by it, and generally to enforce all orders which said committee may make, his compensation to be fixed by the committee, which compensation and the expenses of the Sergeant-at-Arms shall be paid from appropriations made at this session of the Legislature;

Resolved, That the powers of the committee created by this resolution to investigate the matters comprehended by this resolution be and the same are hereby continued after the adjournment of the Senate in order that the executive business of the Senate may be duly expedited;

Resolved, That the committee shall make its report to the Regular Session of the Legislature of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, in order that appropriate action may be taken as early as possible.

Mr. RIAL. Mr. President, I move that the resolution be adopted.

Mr. KRAUSE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, the Senate now has under onsideration the resolution offered by the Senator from Westnoreland, Mr. Rial, appointing a committee of this Senate to onduct a Senate investigation with reference to the Public ervice Commission and the public utility companies of this ommonwealth. There was also introduced into this Senate resolution on the same subject and in some respects somehat similar by the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris. Both f these resolutions were referred to the Committee on Appropriations. The Chairman of that committee very kindly and very willingly called a meeting of the Appropriations Committee for the consideration of these two resolutions which were hen pending before it. The result of that meeting was that he Harris Resolution stayed in the committee, and that the Rial Resolution was reported by that committee to this Senate as committed, and without amendment. There is no doubt, Mr. President, that the people of this Commonwealth demand some sort of an investigation of the matters spoken of in these resolutions. I regret, however, very much that the Senators in charge of these resolutions did not recognize the public will to such an extent as to start out with those resolutions providing for an investigating committee in a manner that would be satisfactory to the people of the Commonwealth and would have the confidence of the people of this Commonwealth. On the other hand, they saw fit to start out with the flag of politics in the second preamble of this resolution, wherein, after reciting certain bills which were passed at the session of 1931 by the Senate and at least one bill amended by the House and afterward defeated, they saw fit to interject into this resolution a statement referring to these various bills: "all of which legislation was killed by orders of Governor Pinchot."

Mr. President, I of my own knowledge do not know whether or not that statement is a fact; I do not know whether or not it is true; but, whether it is true or not I do not care, for the purposes of this investigation, and I think it would have been a great deal better and a great deal wiser for this Senate to have said nothing about these things, and to have gone into this investigation and to have appointed this committee without starting out on the left foot instead of the right foot. It would have been better for them to have said nothing about anything that had taken place in the past. They saw fit, however, to do so

I have made an effort on one or two occasions, to eliminate that statement and certain other features of this resolution. I was unsuccessful,—as usual; with the result that today this is the only resolution that this Senate has before it or probably will have before it at this Extraordinary Session.

Mr. President, I believe that it is a fact that the people of this Commonwealth are back of the Governor in this matter. I believe that is especially true since a committee of this Senate investigated certain charges against the Chairman of the Public Service Commission, with such effect that the Chairman of the Commission saw fit to resign rather than to go into a trial on those charges.

The stock of the Governor of this Commonwealth has gone up a hundred per cent. during this Special Session, in my judgment, and I regret, as I say, that they saw fit to inject partisan politics into this resolution; but, notwithstanding all that, Mr. President, notwithstanding the wording of this resolution, to which I have heretofore taken exception, and have been joined by certain of my colleagues,— notwithstanding all that, I intend to vote for this resolution, and ask my friends to do likewise, for the sole reason that the people of this Commonwealth demand some sort of investigation, and if this is all the investigation they can get, or if we are obliged to take this committee, this investigating committee, under these circumstances, I, for one, am willing to vote for this resolution notwithstanding these objectionable matters that are contained therein; and I shall ask my friends to do likewise.

Mr. RIAL. Mr. President, this resolution was prepared with a definite purpose in view. Governor Pinchot, in his address to the Senate a week ago, said to us that public confidence in the Public Service Commission had been shaken. Public confidence in any administrative body is dependent upon two considerations: the law which creates that body, and the personnel of the body itself.

There has been a great deal of criticism of the personnel of the body known as the Public Service Commission. I do not believe that this Senate has a right to make an investigation of any character except as that investigation may enable the Senate to frame the proper legislation. The Senate of the United States have made a number of investigations, and the Supreme Court of the United States has very recently said that their only justification for investigation lies along the path of suggestion as to what should be put into the law of the land; and I think that, if the same question were raised about our power to create an investigating committee, probably, if that question should arise before our own Supreme Court, the only authorization which we may have for an investigating committee lies in a desire on our part to find out what we ought to do with reference to this very much disputed question, that is, the Public Service Commission law, and in aid of legislation to that end.

The power of investigation lies in the Senate. It is not a normal constitutional power. The power of this Senate normally is to legislate. In certain exceptional instances we may investigate; and therefore there was introduced into the preamble of this resolution certain facts which were well know in this Commonwealth, and which would close the door to any objection in case the question were raised in the courts as it well might be. The investigation by this Senate is an investigation by a co-ordinate branch of the government in the exercise of its constitutional power. We are not subordinate to the Executive Department, because the Constitution says that the branches of government are Executive, Legislative and Judicial.

We are acting here as a co-ordinate branch of the government, exercising our own constitutional privileges, and I ask the members of the Senate to vote for this resolution.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the Resolution?

It was agreed to.

RECESS

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for ten minutes.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed the Senate will be in order.

SENATE COMMITTEE TO ASSIST IN THE REVISION OF SCHOOL LAWS

The PRESIDENT. The Chair announces, on behalf of the President Pro Tempore, the following committee on the part of the Senate to assist the Department of Justice in the revision of school laws, as provided by House Resolution No. 39: The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Mansfield, the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Earnest, and the Senator from Cumberland, Mr. Prince.

COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

The PRESIDENT. The Chair announces, on behalf of the President Pro Tempore, the following committee under the terms of the resolution to investigate the Public Service Commission: The Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Rial, the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Earnest, the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Coyne, the Senator from Franklin, Mr. Clippinger and the Senator from Northampton, Mr. Roberts.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I am thoroughly appreciative of the honor conferred upon me by the Senate in appointing me a member of the committee to investigate the Public Service Commisson and the public utility companies of this Commonwealth, but, by reason of the fact that in my private practice as an attorney at law, I represent certain public utility companies, I do not think it would be proper for me to accept that appointment. In asking to be relieved from that service, I want to make this statement: I was honored by this Senate by being appointed a member of the committee that investigated the Public Service Commission at the Session of 1921, and also of the committee which investigated the charges which were preferred against W. D. B. Ainey, Chairman of the Public Service Commission, at the present Extraordinary Session.

I want to say that I have never served on any committee in this Senate, or any other place, where there was more harmony and co-operation than there was on the Ainey committee. The committee was a unit in everything that was done. The co-operation received from the Attorney General and given to him was magnanimous.

I want to say that it is without any reflection whatsoever upon my colleagues on this committee that I ask to be relieved from this service, but, as before stated, by reason of my private practice as counsel for public utilities, I ask the Senate to relieve me from this appointment and to appoint some other Senator in my stead.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, with pleasure.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, Senator Buckman is recognized the State over as the particular friend of the Governor, he is likewise recognized as his spokesman on the floor of the Senate—is he not?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, if the Senator from Huntingdon, Mr. Williamson, makes that as a statement I will not deny it.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I would like also to ask the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, if when he served on the other two utility investigating committees he did not perform his duties with fidelity, in spite of the fact that he at that time represented utilities.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, most of the utilities that I now represent, I then represented.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I am likewise going to presume that certain other gentlemen on the two utility investigating committees of the Senate, who rendered such faithful service on the two previous occasions for the Senate, perhaps represented some utility companies.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, that may be so, I have no particular knowledge on the subject.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I ask the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, whether he does not think that his presence on that committee will dignify the committee, and give to the citizens of this State the confidence in the committee that his presence would create, and whether with this fact before him he cannot see it as his duty to serve on the committee, and, therefore, withdraw his objections to serving on the committee.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, it would be presumptuous for me to think that my presence on any committee would add dignity to it, I cannot assume any such thing.

Answering the latter part of the question, I have given the matter very careful thought and consideration and am thoroughly convinced that I should not serve, and I respectfully ask to be relieved from that duty.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I am not quite familiar with the proper procedure on Senator Buckman's request to be relieved. Whether that requires the consent of the majority of the Senate or not, I do not know, but when the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, gets on the floor here, and for personal reasons, or with the intention, an honest intention on his part, as far as I know, when Senator Buckman makes a statement he means it, that it is for his best interest that he should not serve on that committee, I think the members of this Senate ought to grant his request. I know that when Senator Buckman makes a request, he does it after serious consideration. I have sat in this Senate nigh unto twenty years with Senator Buckman and I want to say to the members of this Senate, and to the community in general, there is no man who has ever been in this Senate whose word is better than the word of Senator Buckman, and I want to make this statement after twenty years of association with him.

Mr. PRESIDENT, I move that the request of the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, be granted.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Earnest, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, it is probably unnesessary to do so, nevertheless, I desire to state that I own no stock in any utility company, I hold no retainer from any, I represent none, nor have I during the time of any of these investigations.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, in view of the fact that this has been started, I, too, rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, it is very nearly the same statement made by the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Earnest, which I desire to make, with the exception that I have been practicising law for thirty years and never represented any utility directly or indirectly.

MEMBER OF COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair announces on behalf of the President Pro Tempore, the appointment of the Senator from Wayne, Mr. M. D. Pethick, as a member of the committee to investigate the Public Service Commission, in place of the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman.

RECESS

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess until 10:30 this evening (Eastern Standard Time).

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed the Senate will be in order.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. RIAL. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Rial, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. RIAL. Mr. President, when my attention was called this afternoon to the misconstruction placed upon my statement in the Senate this morning, I said, "The remarks I made in the Senate today were in regard to a single paragraph of the resolution relating to certain legislative acts, which was objected to by Senator Buckman, and any thought that they indicated limitation or restriction of this inquiry to proposed legislation is unwarranted."

That statement stands. And I wish to repeat it with all the emphasis of which I am capable. Anything else is unthinkable. The action of the Senate in adopting without a single dissenting vote the resolution I had the honor to present, clearly expressed the desire of the Senate that the inquiry be thorough. The action of the committee, which organized an hour after the Senate concluded its morning session, calls for "a thorough-going investigation."

I wish to inform the Senate the investigation is going to b made as the Senate directed. It is going to be conducted wit all the power this branch of the Legislature has conferre on it. It will be a Senatorial investigation such as the Con stitution ordains, such as becomes the courage, the dignity an the honor of the Pennsylvania State Senate, and not an execu tive affair for any one's political aggrandizement. I feel, afte the statement issued by the Governor tonight, which exceed in violence some of his recent utterances, that Mr. Pinchot ha not wanted to co-operate with this committee, but that h wanted to dominate it. The Governor has been attemptin to bully the Senate for weeks. The vote here this mornin demonstrated he cannot.

Every member of this Senate knows that I am an attorney For years my office has represented the Baltimore and Ohi and the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Railroads as local counsel It does not represent any other utilities, and for the Governo of the Commonwealth to insinuate that my service in the Sen ate, or as a member of this investigating committee, has bee or would be on a plane different from that of other Senator who have sat on investigating committees and voted in thi Senate since the commencement of the Pinchot administra tion, is so raw that I will not attempt to comment upon it fur ther. Chagrin and fear sometimes cause people to make state ments of which they stand ashamed for years.

Now, as I read this latest outburst of childish petulance I am wondering if Mr. Pinchot has someone he is trying to pro tect. And if he has—and I am only surmising, of course, that this exemplar of public virtue has some friends he is trying to cover up—I wish to serve notice on him that none will be protected, whether he is a friend of the Governor or of anyone else. And the more intemperate his statements the deeper the suspicion will grow that the clamor he is making is not over fear of what he calls a whitewash but that someone is going to be tarred.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. KITTS. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Erie, Mr. Kitts, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. President, having been absent this morning when the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Rial, made his re marks upon the resolution relative to investigation of the Public Service Commission, I obtained some information this afternoon with regard thereto.

When a young man I was stationed at Greensburg, working my way through school. I had that county, Fayette, and the county from which Senator Ealy comes, Somerset, and I be came quite well acquainted in that neck of woods. I have known the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Rial, for many years, both as a citizen of that county and as a lawyer, and I have watched his work in the Pennsylvania Senate.

Mr. PRESIDENT, I have the utmost confidence that the Sena tor from Westmoreland, Mr. Rial, as Chairman of this In vestigating Committee, will conduct the investigation with dignity, and with that same honesty and ability that has marked every act of both his private and public life in the past; and I want to say,—this being my last day in this great body,—that if there is anything I can do to assist the members of this committee in carrying on a full and impartial investigation, I hope they will call upon me.

I trust that His Excellency, the Governor, if he wants a fair and impartial investigation of the Public Service Commission, will get on the bandwagon along with these members that have been appointed.

Let us all co-operate; let us not have politics in it; because, if those things which Governor Pinchot said about Chairman Ainey, when he spoke in this Senate Chamber, are true, certainly an investigation is in order. I think it is time to cut out quibbling and little, ungentlemanly tactics and politics in this matter.

Mr. PRESIDENT, for my part, I have the utmost confidence that as chairman of that committee the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Rial, will go to the bottom of affairs, and I hope he will.

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 193 (HOUSE BILL No. 257)

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 193 (House Bill No. 257), entitled:

An Act authorizing collectors of delinquent taxes to accept payments of delinquent taxes or water rents or rates in instalments passed finally.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, for the benefit of the members of the Senate I will state that this bill is an act authorizing collectors of delinquent taxes to accept payment of delinquent taxes and of water rents on instalments. If that bill were to pass as it is now worded it would require five times as many clerks in Philadelphia as we now have in this particular department; and inasmuch as the Mayor and others in Philadelphia are practicing economy, they have asked that Philadelphia be left out. The rest of the State can do as they please about it, but we would have to employ five times as many clerks as we do now in our Water Department if this bill goes through.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed third reading.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring.,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend title, line 1, by inserting after the word "taxes" the following: "except in cities of the first class"; amend section 1, page 1, line 4, by inserting after the word "city" the following: "except a city of the first class and of any."

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

RECESS

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for ten minutes.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed the Senate will be in order.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. McCLURE, from the Committee on Finance, re-reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 192 (House Bill No. 104), entitled:

An Act authorizing the abatement of penalties on local taxes.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE SECRETARY OF BANKING.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I have been requested by the Secretary of Banking, William D. Gordon, to present the following answer to a request received from the Senate on July 24:

August 18, 1932.

Honorable E. C. Shannon, President of the Senate,
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Dear President Shannon:

On July 21 I received a copy of a Senate Resolution introduced by Senator Parkinson:

"Requesting the Secretary of Banking to Deposit Funds of Closed Banks in the Community Banks and Secure the Highest Rate of Interest Consistent With Safety."

Realizing that this resolution was passed by the Honorable Members of the Senate without their having before them the actual information concerning the handling of deposits of closed banks I deem it proper to answer this Resolution.

The answer would have been presented to your Honorable Body several weeks ago except for the press of business under which I have been laboring.

It is stated in the Resolution that:

"Whereas, It is rumored that the Secretary of Banking is depositing such moneys in favorite banks in cities distant from the closed banks from which it was taken and outside of the community from which it was deposited and that interest thereon is paid by such banks at the low rate of one per centum per annum, and

"Whereas, Such depositing of funds in distant banks is unfair to the depositors and to the communities, and the low rate of interest asked on such deposits is not only unfair to such depositors but is a form of favoritism that should not be permitted, therefore be it

"Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Senate that moneys in the control and custody of the Secretary of Banking should be deposited in banks paying the highest rate of interest thereon consistent with safety and whenever possible should be placed in banks in the community wherein the closed bank was situated."

In answer to the statements contained in this Resolution I wish to say that apparently the practical conditions surrounding the depositing of funds of closed institutions are not known to the Honorable Members of the Senate. It would seem to me that the blanket terms of the Resolution would unnecessarily jeopardize the interests of the depositors of the closed banks which are now thoroughly safeguarded.

To insure maximum safety I require a depository bank to pledge high grade bonds consisting for the most part of Liberty Bonds to an amount in excess of the deposit. Not every bank is in a position to pledge such bonds and only where the banks of a given community are unable to do so do I place the funds outside of the community in a bank able to meet this requirement.

Many banks in given communities have refused these deposits because they either were unable or unwilling to pledge the necessary collateral as security for the deposits. Accordingly, in such instances the funds were deposited in other institutions meeting these standards.

I have required that the funds of closed banks shall be deposited in the County in which the institution is located and wherever possible in the exact section of the County concerned, for it is my belief that local communities should be given the benefit of deposits which rightfully belong to them.

Deposits in distant banks have never been made as a result of favoritism as alleged in the Resolution, but whenever they have been made it has been due to our inability to procure the required collateral as protection.

With respect to the payment of interest on the part of banks I may say that interest rates in various communities are determined by the Clearing House Associations of those communities. I in no way have any control over such rates. The strength of the bank and its ability to pledge the required collateral are paramount factors for the determination of the depository rather than the rate of interest. Were I to turn over the money to the bank which offered the highest rate of interest in my judgment a competition would develop which probably would cause the weakest bank to take the greatest chance by offering a high rate of interest.

Apparently the Honorable Senator who introduced this Resolution and the Honorable Members of the Senate who approved it were not familiar with the fact that wherever possible the money of a closed bank always is placed in a depository of the community in which the closed bank is located provided that the banks of that community are able and willing to pledge proper collateral as security for the deposit.

From the beginning of my term of office I have followed out this practice and always have endeavored to procure the highest rate of interest commensurate with safety permitted by the Clearing House Associations or the Member banks of various communities.

Emphatically I deny that the Secretary of Banking is depositing such moneys in banks outside of the community i . which closed banks are located on the basis of favoritism.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM D. GORDON,
Secretary of Banking.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. SARDONI. Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Senate: I feel every person in the State of Pennsylvania is vigorously opposed to the enactment of new taxes. However, we have an unemployment situation on our hands that needs attention. The only way we can help these unemployed people is to have funds available to do so. There are only three ways that wealth is created, in my estimation. First, by farming; second, by mining; and third, by manufacturing. This bill exempts the farm produce and the sale of real estate, but I have been very much concerned as to how it would react against mining and manufacturing industries. The factory workers and mine workers, the factory owners and mine owners are entitled to every protection that is possible for us to give them, so that they can compete in every way possible with similar industries in other States.

There has been considerable controversy in connection with the provisions of this bill. Some of the Departments of the State did not agree.

In connection wtih House Bill No. 264, Senate Bill No. 198, which comes before us for consideration today, I wish to say that I have been trying to get information on the application of this Bill if it becomes a law, and wrote Dr. King as follows:

"Dear Dr. King:

"Will you be good enough to let me know what would be the ruling of your Department in connection with House Bill No. 264, which comes before the Senate for action?

"For instance, the Carnegie Steel Company sells bars to the McKeesport Tin Plate Company, they in turn selling tin plate to the Wilkes-Barre Can Company, the Wilkes-Barre Can Company in turn selling the completed can to the X Y Z Oil Company. The X Y Z Oil Company filling the can with oil and selling it to the Blank store, who in turn sells it to the consumer. Would there be a tax on each of the companies mentioned or would the tax apply only when the can is at last sold to the consumer, namely the man who buys the can and oil for his use?

"Thanking you for your prompt reply, I am,

"Yours very truly,"

In reply I got the following from Dr. King:

"My dear Senator Sordini:

"With reference to your letter of August 18th, I beg to say that in the opinion of the Department of Revenue the tax to which you refer would be paid when the can is at last sold to the consumer and will be paid by the vendor who sells to the consumer.

"The act specifically exempts from the tax all sales to those who sell again.

"Sincerely yours,

"CLYDE L. KING."

Gentlemen, I merely mention these facts to you so that they can be incorporated in the records of the Senate, because if we are to pass a law that would pyramid the taxes on the manufacturing industries of our State, we soon put them in a position where they could not compete with manufacturing industries outside of the State of Pennsylvania, so that you can vote for this measure without fear of pyramiding taxes on any manufacturing industries whatsoever.

I thank you.

PRAYER

Rev. Hugh M. Stevenson, a member of the House, offered the following prayer:

Blessed be thou, O Lord of Israel, our Father forever. Thine, O God, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the victory and the majesty, for all that is in Heaven and earth is thine. Thine is the kingdom, O Lord and thou art exalted as head over all. Thine is the power and might and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength to all.

Lord, we pray thee that thou wilt take posession of this restless world, annoint thy people afresh with the life giving spirit of the Christ. Plant the truth of thy word in every heart, that this world may be transformed by thy grace.

Lord, give us leaders after thine own heart, that our State and nation may be directed in the ways of rightousness that thy people may be conscious of the fact that God is interested in the affairs of government and the welfare of his people, that thou art our friend; that we are partners with thee, and dost share our adversities, and we also share the riches of thy kingdom.

We have little, but thou art rich, we are thy children, and the world has never seen "The rightous forsaken or their seed begging bread" Lord, may all thou has favored have a helping hand, a sympathizing heart toward the suffering and unfortunate of our land.

Lord, give us a generation of public leaders who will dare to follow thee, dare to council thee, dare to do thy bidding, dare to legislate in the light of the gospel of the Christ that politics may be purged of the causes of corruption, bring to an end graft and greed, that robs thy people of their rightful heritage.

We pray for a special blessing on the members of this Legislature, may we perform every duty, discharge every responsibility, as men who are willing to bear the burdens of the weak, the suffering and needy, and give ample protection and provide security to those that come after us.

This we ask for Jesus' sake. Amen.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. DeFREHN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. DeFREHN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I find that on the vote taken yesterday in this House on the sales tax bill, I am recorded as having voted against it. I have no thought that to be otherwise recorded will be of any benefit to me. However, I voted for the bill, not that I was pleased with it, for as every other member of this House I was opposed to adding any additional tax burden upon the people of the State, or any new burden or record-keeping and of making reports.

To avoid these we have planned and worried for eight weeks, trying to do the impossible thing of finding some more satisfactory way of meeting the situation which confronted us, and which was hoped could be accomplished in three weeks. As this appeared to be the last and only hope of State aid to feed the hungry, shelter and clothe those who would suffer without it, I voted in the affirmative and am willing to bear my share of the responsibility, by being recorded accordingly.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question personal privilege.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have a received a reply to my letter to the people of Pennsylvania. The gentleman evidently misunderstood and thought that the replies were to go to the Governor. He says that he is sending a copy of it to the Governor. I should like to read the letter for the edification of the members of the House.

Laceyville, Pa., August 16, 1932.

Hon. E. C. Turner, Harrisburg, Pa.

My dear Mr. Turner:

I have read your open letter in the press this morning with great pleasure, and as you appear to be one of the so-called leaders of the State, [I want you to get that] am pleased to give you my opinion of affairs at Harrisburg as they have been reported in the daily press, and received from those who have attended your very interesting session.

First of all, you gentlemen do not appear to have any guts, for as soon as Ed. Martin left the capitol, you ran around in circles until his return, when he gave his consent to a tax on cigarettes, with a proviso that a tax also be placed on cosmetics and soft drinks; that is, if needed, which according to your theory, they would not be.

You state in your open letter, that twelve million is all that will be needed for relief. Will you kindly explain through the press, how you get that way. You do not know when the present depression will end any more than I do, and you must not build too much hope on the fact that Hoover will be re-elected, for it is my opinion that he will not, and I have as good grounds for my opinion as you can possibly have.

In the former Special Session, you gentlemen threw out a sop in the Talbot bill without providing revenue to meet it and with what result.

It now looks as though you were bound to repeat just such a fiasco in this session or more so.

I do not understand why you are so determined to take the money from the highway department which will throw thousands of men in the rural districts out of work with a cold winter coming on, and they cannot be left to starve.

Why do you not get down to brass tacks and place an income tax on incomes of over $2500.00 of one and one-half per cent, to be in force for one year and in this way make sure of enough money to put the relief plan through.

Evidently you are afraid to do this with the present campaign coming on for fear that the big money men will refuse to come across with the necessary war fund.

I sincerely trust that the Governor will adhere to his present stand and insist upon an income tax. [Of course he is a little mixed up about the Governor standing for the income tax; he is a little switched in the Senate].

I shall send a copy of this letter to Governor Pinchot and also our Representative and Senator.

Now let the public know whether you gentlemen have the guts to do something, or must you wait for the overlord at Philadelphia, or perhaps Atlantic City, to speak.

Remember that there is an election coming in November, at which a great many or all representatives must be elected, and I predict that there will be a great many strange faces in Harrisburg at the next Regular Session.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) F. J. AUSTIN.

Then he adds a P. S. that I want you members to hear:

If you pass a sales tax, [and I hope the Governor gets this in his letter] your fate is sealed, as the voters will not stand for that from you fellows, and the sales tax imposed upon them by the federal government is going to result in the defeat of Hoover.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, many of us have awaited anxiously the editorial reaction of the large daily newspapers of Philadelphia to the passage of the sales tax bill. It is with pleasure that I can state that they fully appreciate the magnitude of our problems and with unanimity approve our solution as the best possible under all the circumstances, and Mr. Speaker, I ask for consent to incorporate in the Journal at this point those editorials.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman from Philadelphia under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal. The gentleman from Philadelphia asks the consent of the House that the editorials to which he refers be also spread upon the Journal. If there are no objections, the Chair will direct that this be done. The Chair hears none, and so directs.

"Evening Public Ledger," August 18, 1932:

THE SALES TAX

The bill providing a retail sales tax of one per cent for six months and designed to raise $15,000,000 for State relief passed what is probably its most difficult test when the House approved it by a vote of 123 to 61. This action, coming after about eight weeks of futile efforts by the General Assembly to find other methods of meeting the unemployment emergency in Pennsylvania, is evidence that party leaders demand adoption of the sales tax as the "last resort."

With such support, it is confidently expected that the measure will go through the Senate without delay, and its enactment tonight or tomorrow is possible. Governor Pinchot has already announced that he will approve it when it is placed in his hands by the Senate.

Such action cannot come too soon. There are 250,000 persons in Philadelphia and many more in other parts of the State who are desperately in need of food, shelter and clothing. The sales tax will become effective September 1, and will remain in operation during most of the winter, when the need for relief will be most acute.

The experience of New Jersey, which is still seeking relief funds because its Legislature backed down on the sales tax, afforded proof enough that this method is indeed the "last resort" of the Pennsylvania lawmakers. But it is regretted that the legislators at Harrisburg chose to regard it in that light. For no fairer tax has yet been devised, or one calculated to levy the least possible burden upon the family of moderate means. Moreover, it will be inexpensive to collect, as the present resources of the Department of Revenue are considered ample for that purpose.

A great deal of worry, criticism and political bickering would have been avoided if the sales tax had been taken up and pushed at the beginning of the present special session with the determination that is now being shown. But speedy concurrence by the Senate with the House's action of yesterday will help materially to redeem the reputation of the General Assembly. And the appreciation for the help thus provided for the unemployed of Pennsylvania will be far stronger than any protest against the new levy.

"Public Ledger," August 18, 1932:

A SALES TAX FOR RELIEF

Contrary to eleventh-hour pessimism among observers of the workings of the legislative machine at Harrisburg, the House yesterday by the surprisingly large vote of 123 to 61 adopted and pressed to final passage the one per cent sales tax for six months to provide money for unemployment relief. It is expected that this tax will yield from $12,000,000 to $15,000,000, and this sum may or may not be adequate to meet the immediate requirements. But it might be sufficient until the regular session of the General Assembly in January, when the problem will again have to be faced.

This action is a compromise forced upon the Legislature by the urgency of the demand for action, and has been effected by concessions on both sides. Necessity has overcome the widespread rural opposition to any form of new taxes and the sales tax has been wisely preferred to a draft, even though temporary, upon the highway funds. The measure has yet to pass the Senate, but the Republican Organization of the State has pledged itself to its enactment and Governor Pinchot's promised approval was one of the conditions of the compromise and of the submission of the House to a course unwelcome to a large part of its membership.

Philadelphia "Record," August 18, 1932:

NOTE

The sales tax for relief has passed the House and will be on its way to final passage in the Senate by the time this Note appears.

Opposed as it is to sales taxes, this newspaper would rather see a sales tax for relief than no relief at all.

But this tax will raise only $12,000,000 or $15,000,000, and the Legislature after eight disgraceful weeks seems determined to adjourn without attempting to raise the rest of the $40,000,000 needed.

Of the remainder, $15,000,000 could easily be obtained from the road fund.

The Governor still opposes that plan.

By his statements he places the State's duty to motorists above its duty to hungry workingmen and their families.

By his ACTIONS he places the politics of rural road patronage above human need for relief.

Nobody expected a sincere attempt from the organization to aid the unfortunate.

Everybody expected such an attempt from the Governor.

Won't he rise above politics, act as one expects Pinchot to act, permit a diversion of highway funds, insure adequate aid for Pennsylvania's jobless?

Philadelphia "Inquirer," August 18, 1932:

GETTING SOMEWHERE AT LAST

At last the General Assembly is getting somewhere.

It has taken more than seven weeks to reach the point where the House was willing to admit that with all possible economies only the Budget could be balanced with no provision for unemployment relief. Adoption by it of a one per cent. tax on retail sales as a final resort will no doubt be accepted by the Senate. Adjournment can follow.

The estimate of the revenue to be diverted is between $12,000,000 and $15,000,000—not enough, not nearly enough. But it is something, and in the circumstances the Reconstruction Finance Corporation may be induced to help out with a few millions, which will in a measure tide us over until January when the Legislature, to be elected in November, will organize.

The new body will have a financial problem on its hands that will tax its patience and its ingenuity, even should there be much less unemployment by that time.

The "Evening Bulletin," August 18, 1932:

AN EMERGENCY TAX

Original opinion contrary to the sales tax or any other form of added taxation ought to be waived, in view of existing conditions in the State, and the action of the Legislature in levying a tax of one per cent. on all retail sales for a period of six months be accepted in the same spirit in which the law is being passed. Added revenue for the State is a necessity, if the State is to meet its responsibilities in caring for the needy.

The sales tax levies upon approximately every person in the State, in ratio to his purchases. At the rate of one per cent. one cent tax on every dollar of purchases, it is not likely to be burdensome in any instance where the retail purchaser shall pay the tax directly. In the great majority of small transactions the tax will be absorbed in the calculation of the overhead and finally being figured into the sales price, even though it is not identifiable by the purchaser.

Naturally there may be abuses under the law. There are likely to be gougers who will seek to make a commission for themselves on the sales tax they collect for the State. There may be difficulties in collection, although the Hagmaier bill contemplates the most simple and least expensive manner of collection, through the State Revenue Department. Unfortunately this emergency sales tax is superimposed upon the mercantile license levy of the State, which is in itself a sales tax and which properly would be abandoned if the sales tax were to be permanent.

These are only a few of the complaints imaginable, and of the snags that may be thrown in the way of the effective operation of the tax bill. It is not unlikely that the law could be held up by court action for a considerable time.

But for the general welfare of the State, in the name and interests of the thousands of out-of-works and their families who are in need, it is to be hoped that obstructive opposition will be withheld, and that this revenue producer will be given its fair opportunity. It is devised to meet a necessity.

"Evening Public Ledger," August 17, 1932:

THE NATIONAL TREND TOWARD SALES TAXES

They Are Advocated to Provide Needed Revenues and Correct Existing Inequities in Taxation

The general sales tax idea is being rediscovered and restudied throughout the country. Pennsylvania's General Assembly, turning to it as virtually the last hope for providing adequate relief funds, is for the first time taking serious thought of the advantages of this broad and equitable system of taxation.

Pennsylvania is not alone in this respect. A recent nation-wide survey showed a trend in about half of the forty-eight States toward a modified sales tax. The Chamber of Commerce of the United States has undertaken a thorough examination of the manufacturers' sales tax as a method of curing present inequities in taxation. Congress is expected to have another try at it next winter.

A few months ago the sales tax was conspicuous for its lack of friends. When the House Ways and Means Committee reported a bill to rehabilitate the Government's finances by levying a sales tax on manufacturers, the measure was torn to pieces by Representatives who branded it "an outrage upon the plain people of the Nation." The idea was treated scarcely less roughly in the Senate, where Mr. La Follette made a demagogic reference to "soaking the poor." The idea met a similar fate in various Legislatures.

Various factors have contributed to the revival of the general idea. The experience of Mississippi has attracted wide attention. This State was the first to adopt a general retail sales tax as a major method of raising revenue. Against the opposition of merchants and the threat of litigation by the Anti-Sales Tax League, a two per cent levy was voted and went into effect about May 1.

At the end of the first week the predicted revolution had shown no further signs of development. Shortly before the first returns were due on June 15, the State Government became so curious over the lack of adverse reactions that it sent investigators to find how the new levy was coming on. On July 16 the threatened court action had apparently been forgotten. Merchants had been converted to the new mode of taxation and the individual taxpayers first treated the contribution as a joke and then as a part of the routine of living.

An even more important factor has been an increasing realization of the inequities in existing modes of taxation. This was effectively summed up by Henry I. Harriman, president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, when he said in an address Saturday night that—

"* * * our whole system of taxation, national, State and municipal, which bears down upon us like an ill-adjusted pack saddle, should be overhauled. We have depended too much upon income and corporation taxes and other taxes resting on a narrow base."

As a means of remedying that condition, he offered the following advice:

"The time is at hand when the National Government should give consideration to the manufacturers' sales tax, and municipal Governments should weigh the possibilities of a retail sales tax, not primarily as a source of additional income but as a partial substitute for the overheavy burden laid upon real property and certain classes of productive industry."

Chairman Smoot, of the Senate Finance Committee, predicts that the December session will see a new study of the tax situation. The Democrats already have a committee surveying this problem for the House. They are bearing in mind the statement of President Hoover's acceptance speech that—

"* * * recent increases in revenues, while temporary, should be again examined, and if they tend to sap the vitality of industry, and thus retard employment, they must be revised."

There is a widespread and growing conviction that the penalties placed on picked industries under the new tax bill are tending to sap their vitality and to retard employment. Moreover, some of the new income, corporation and excise levies are so severe as to enter the field of diminishing returns. Early estimates of the revenues expected from them have been materially discounted.

All this is winning new attention for the sales tax. Legislators, State and national, are beginning to realize that it will bring the least amount of trouble from enraged voters and, far from "scaking" any class, it spreads the load according to the individual's ability to pay. The big spender, who can best afford to do so, pays the larger tax. The man who spends little scarcely is aware that he is being taxed.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as I survey the work accomplished by this Legislature I do so with some regret. We were assembled here at a time of great economic crisis. We should have been sobered by the heavy responsibility that confronted us. Realizing that responsibility, we should have been solemnly impressed with the obligation to the people of the Commonwealth by adopting a program of legislation that would relieve our people of any further unnecessary tax burdens. We should have taken up the slack of governmental extravagance and turned it to the useful purpose of helping the needy. It is true that we received no assistance from the Governor in our efforts to accomplish the economies demanded of the times. The call of the Governor for this Extraordinary Session, which limited our actions to a much too narrow scope, was ambiguous in its language, confusing in its purpose and utterly devoid of economical intent. Instead of economy as the guide and the prime objective of our Legislative body, the Governor by his words and acts discouraged it. We were urged by the Chief Executive of the State to supply the needs of want by the enactment of new tax bond legislation. We, however, can not shift the full blame on the shoulders of others. Notwithstanding the obstructions of the Governor to measures looking to economy, our duty to the people of the state was clear. Our primary obligation was not to tax until we had exhausted every means of governmental savings. This we failed to do.

At the beginning of the session an able sub-committee of the Appropriations Committee of this House entered upon the work of investigation of the several executive departments, bureaus, boards and commissions, the large spending agencies of the State. This committee after exhaustive research made a report which was later incorporated into a reduction bill known as the Steedle Bill. This bill after the most careful consideration of this House and over the unwarranted objections of the Governor was passed and messaged to the Senate. The bill as it passed the House carried reductions to the 1931 appropriations of twenty-three million dollars. The Senate struck out eight million dollars of the House reductions. The Senate amendments were unacceptable to the House and a conference committee was appointed. To our astonishment the House conferees, without giving reasons, subscribed to the reductions made by the Senate and this House affirmed that action. In submitting to the will of the Senate the House reversed its former mature judgment and repudiated the painstaking work of the committee on Appropriations of this House and, strange to say, the sub-committee submitted to the virtual scrapping of this work without a protest.

Although the salaries of State officers had in the main been increased, some of them several times, during the past decade on the plea of the falling value of the dollar, at present the same dollar has steadily increased in value since 1929, therefore the compensation fixed in 1929 for the State's public servants has automatically increased by fifteen to twenty percent. The income of the people, who supply the high wage level of the public servants, derived from labor, investment and business, have had a precipitate decline. We therefore have the absurd situation of the public servants of the State receiving automatically increased salaries and wages paid by taxpayers whose own wages, salaries and incomes have progressively declined in many instances to the vanishing point.

The burden of supporting the government today, if economically administrated, is oppressive. To ask our people at this time of severe depression to support extravagant government is inexcusable and outrageous. We have permitted extravagance to continue in our State government which we should have corrected. We have refused to lower salaries and generally reduce compensation in State employment commensurate with the changed times and the diminishing level of our people's incomes. We have failed to abolish also the unnecessaries of governmental administration. We have failed to wipe out or curtail the activities of useless bureaus and departmental appendages. We have refused to transfer departmental funds that could be spared into the General Fund for the benefit of the destitute. We have unwisely defeated the Witkin bill. This bill, if enacted into law, would have permitted the transfer of twelve million dollars from the Motor Fund, where it could be spared, to the General Fund for use under the Talbot Act. In defeating this bill parochial selfishness was permitted to overshadow the general welfare. We were overcredulous in accepting without careful investigation the artfully juggled figures relating to general balances submitted by the fiscal officers of the Commonwealth. These figures piled up increasing deposits to bewilder the legislature and frighten it away from a recourse to economy to one of taxation. Had the Legislature taken a firm and unyielding stand for a policy of raising the required revenue by the establishment of rigid economies in the three branches of the government. such a policy would have produced revenue in excess of the sales tax bill we recently passed in this House.

Let us see. A conservative estimate of salary reductions would yield three million five hundred thousand dollars, the passage of the Witkin bill twelve million dollars, sale of Delaware River Bridge bonds, nine million dollars, at least four million dollars of reductions could have been restored to the Steedle bill without impairment to the reasonable efficiency of the departments from which drawn. The above items would have given the Commonwealth eighteen million dollars immediately available for distribution under the Talbot plan and the people of the State spared the burden of taxation.

It was the duty of the Commonwealth during this period of depression not only to protect the people from unnecessary increases in tax burdens, but to set the example of commendable economical state housekeeping. We have passed a number of remedial bills highly important to the relief program. We have however, failed in the enactment of economy measures that would have relieved the much harrassed taxpayer at a critical period of our economic difficulties.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under the question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

HOUSE BILL No. 121 TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 121, Printer's No. 238, entitled:

A Supplement to an act approved the twenty-sixth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Appropriation Acts page one hundred six) entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Department of Welfare for the maintenance of certain hospitals" making an additional emergency appropriation be taken from the table.

The motion was agreed to.

RESOLUTION

BILL RETURNED TO GOVERNOR WITHOUT AMENDMENT

Mr. STEEDLE offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, August 18, 1932.

Resolved, (If the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 121, Printer's No. 238, entitled "A supplement to an act approved the twenty-sixth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one, (Appropriation Acts, page one hundred six), entitled 'An act making an appropriation to the Department of Welfare for the maintenance of certain hospials,' making an additional emergency appropriation," which was recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment, be returned to the Governor without amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, contrary to the expectations of many members of the House I do not come here tonight with a prepared speech and I am going to prove it. I expect to come back and torment you at future sessions, so there is no reason why I should sing a swan song tonight. However, in this evening's mail I received a petition from some three hundred citizens of Newcastle and Lawrence County, which I desire to present at this time and ask that it be noted in the Journal and printed in the appendix to the Journal.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal. The petition referred to by the gentleman will be noted and printed in the appendix to the Legislative Journal.

RESOLUTION

EXTENDING THANKS TO SPEAKER

Mr. LUCAS offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, August 18, 1932.

Resolved, That we, the Members of the House of Representatives, do hereby express our appreciation to the Honorable C. J. Goodnough, Speaker of this House, for the efficient and courteous manner in which he has presided over the deliberations of the House during the Extraordinary Session of 1932.

The question was put by the Chief Clerk, Hon. E. F. White, and unanimaously adopted by a rising vote.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, my colleague and myself have had prepared a statement of the taxes collected in the city of Philadelphia and the amounts of money returned to it. To the end that the members may have the advantage of it, I ask that it be incorporated in the Journal at this point of tonight's proceedings.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege, together with the statement in question, will be spread upon the Journal.

It will be noticed that among the beneficiaries of the State which I am charging to Philadelphia are the Eastern Penitentiary, the University of Pennsylvania and Temple University. Surely all of the appropriations to these institutions should not be charged to Philadelphia. We have to keep the "bad men" of the rural counties in the penitentiary and the two great institutions of learning include in their student bodies residents of every county in the State, including those who are granted scholarships by every up-State Senator.

In 1930 the city of Philadelphia was fortunate in receiving $375,000 from the State for the up-keep of the streets, but Governor Pinchot in his wisdom saw fit to even take this money away during the 1931-32 biennium.

RESOLUTION

ESTIMATE OF REVENUE OF SECRETARY OF REVENUE ADOPTED

Mr. TURNER offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, August 18, 1932.

Whereas, Honorable Clyde L. King, Secretary of Revenue, appeared before the Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives during the Special Session of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one and presented a statement made June first, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one, showing an estimate of General Fund revenue for the 1931-1933 biennium of one hundred fifty-five million six hundred thousand dollars ($156,600,000), and stated to the Committee that this estimate included an estimate of the proceeds of the sale of bonds of the Delaware River Bridge, and

Whereas, In answer to House Resolution, Serial Number twenty of the one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two Special Session, he presented a copy of said estimate as of June first, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one in detail, by sources, by years, showing the estimate to be one hundred fifty-five million forty thousand eight hundred twelve dollars $156,040,812). which did not show that the estimated proceeds of the Delaware River Bridge had been included, and

Whereas, The Honorable William A. Schnader, Attorney General, did in formal opinion Number 51-A, state:

"We are firmly of the opinion that the budget estimates as officially submitted to the Governor as a basis for his action on appropriation measures at the close of the regular biennial session of the Legislature must be treated as the inflexible test which fiscal legislation is evaluated for the biennium. It is true that an estimate is not a fact but only a prediction, and that the prediction may fail by being either too high or too low. That, however, is an inescapable uncertainty in the administration of any budget system. An estimate of revenue can never be guaranteed as accurate. In times of prosperity it is almost certain to be too conservative and in times of depression it is almost certain to be the reverse; but we cannot believe that it was the intention of the framers of our Constitution and of the people who adopted it, to provide a system under which an appropriation valid on the date of it approval could later be invalidated by the action of a single executive officer."

Whereas, According to this formal opinion Number 51-A of the Attorney General, the only official estimate of revenue that we can consider at this time is that of the Secretary of Revenue made June first, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one, either one hundred fifty-five million six hundred thousand dollars ($155,600,000), or one hundred fifty-five million forty thousand eight hundred twelve dollars ($155,040,812), corrected to include items that his own statement shows were not included in them, and

Whereas, The Governor in communication dated August eighth, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two, addressed to the Honorable C. J. Goodnough, Speaker, House of Representatives, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, forwarded a statement which appears in the Legislative Journal of August eighth, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two, in which it is claimed that the Budget is not balanced by two million eight hundred one thousand four hundred eighty-one dollars and seventy-nine cents ($2,801,481.79), as follows:

"Statement showing the condition of the General Fund budget since bills restoring $6,357,192.05 in abatements made by the Talbot Act decision have been approved by the Governor. Approximately $13,500,000 reduction in appropriations now contemplated by the General Assembly is taken into consideration. It is assumed the reductions will equal this amount."

August 8, 1932.

Total 1931-1933 appropriations, less $31,252.30 expended prior to June 1, 1931. The proposed reductions of $13,500,000 apply against this total	$203,804,356.12
Less: Reductions contemplated by General Assembly	13,500,000.00
Remainder of 1931-1933 appropriations. This remainder includes restorations in the amount of $6,357,192.05 approved by the Governor	$190,304,356.12

To this must be added the June 1, 1931 liabilities on account of appropriations for bienniums prior to June 1, 1931, ($14,756,196.76) less estimated lapses ($3,546,371.17)		11,209,825.59
The total of appropriations to be met during 1931-1933, taking into consideration $6,357,192.05 of abatements restored and approximately $13,500,000 of cuts, is		$201,514,181.71
To meet this, there are:
Cash Balance in the General Fund June 1, 1931	$49,070,690.96
Estimated General Fund Revenue 1931-1933	150,040,812.00
Total		$199,111,502.96
With restorations in the amount of $6,357,192.05 made and approximately $13,500,000 in appropriation reductions considered, and without considering any additional revenue or appropriations provided for or contemplated by the present Special Session the budget is not balanced by		$2,402,678.75
If we add the two additional appropriations approved:
Expenses of Special Session—H. B. 64	$363,803.04
Legislative Printing—S. B. 83..	35,000.00	398,803.04
The total amount to date by which the budget is not balanced is.....		$2,801,481.79

and,

Whereas, It will be noted that in order to have the deficit of two million eight hundred one thousand four hundred eighty-one dollars and seventy-nine cents ($2,801,481.79), the estimate of revenue for 1931-1933 is one hundred fifty million forty thousand eight hundred twelve dollars ($150,040,812) instead of the one hundred fifty-five million forty thousand eight hundred twelve dollars ($155,040,812), the official estimate as designated in the opinion of the Attorney General, and

Whereas, In the above statement there is no reference made of the item of nine million five hundred thousand dollars ($9,500,000) proceeds of the sale of bonds of the Delaware River Bridge, that was omitted.

Therefore Be It Resolved, That this House accepts as its estimate of revenue the statement as of June first, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one, presented to the House of Representatives by Honorable Clyde L. King, Secretary of Revenue, in answer to Resolution, Serial Number twenty of the one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two Special Session showing the estimate itemized by sources and by years, which has been made a part of the records of this House, as follows:

Estimate of Revenue 1931-1932	$ 78,816,663
Estimate of Revenue 1932-1933	76,224,149
Total 1931-1933 Biennium	$155,040,812
To this must be added the item omitted in the estimate made by Secretary of Revenue of the sale of bonds of the Delaware River Bridge....	9,500,000
And, also, the Bill passed at this Special Session transferring the unencumbered balance of the Fire Insurance Tax Fund	800,000
And the constitutional provisions for casual deficiencies	1,000,000
Total estimate of Revenue	$166,340,812

And Be It Further Resolved, That the House of Representatives accept the statement of the Governor as its statement of Appropriation Liability, except the estimate of revenue which is not in accordance with the Attorney General's opinion and by using the same figures as those used by the Governor rearranged to show the unencumbered surplus at June 1, 1931 was, $37,860,865.37. The Revision of the Governor's statement, using his own figures except the estimate of revenue, is as follows:

RESOLUTION

COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT

Mr. E. P. BROWN offered a resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, August 18, 1932.

Whereas, It is charged that the Department of Highways is extravangently administered, and,

Whereas, At a hearing before the Judiciary General Committee of the House of Representatives, Lewis G. Hines, director of the United States Employment Service submitted a mass of evidence that work on the State highways was being parceled out in the various counties not to the needy unemployed, but to those who were of political service to this Administration, and

Whereas, In this economic crisis it is inconceivable that human misery should be exploited for political purposes, and

Whereas, These charges should be thoroughly probed to establish their truth or falsity, therefore be it

Resolved, That a legislative committee is hereby constituted to consist of Hon. Joseph C. Steedle, Hon. Morton Witkin, Hon. Charles F. Bidelspacher, Hon. Fred W. Patterson, Hon. Robert S. Spangler, Hon. John F. Stone and Hon. Frederick Peters, whose duty it shall be to make a full, impartial and searching investigation:

(a) Of the manner in which the Department of Highways is being administered and the moneys in the Motor License Fund being expended;

(b) Of the employment of labor on the State highways of the Commonwealth;

(c) Of the manner in which the work on State highways has been parceled out to the unemployed of the Commonwealth;

(d) Whether the power of employment has been used for political purposes; and

(e) Any other facts and affairs which are deemed necessary by the committee to make a full and comprehensive report to the House of Representatives of matters proper for the attention of the House;

Resolved, That said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman, requiring and commanding any persons to appear before it and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoena may be served upon any person and shall have the same force and effect as subpoenas issuing out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of the committee shall have power to administer oaths or affirmations to witnesses appearing before it. Any person who shall wilfully negelect or refuse to appear and testify before said committee, or to produce any books, papers, records and documents, shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of this Commonwealth in such cases;

Resolved, That the committee constituted by this resolution shall have full power to carry on its investigation after the adjournment of this Special Session of the Legislature, and shall make a report of its findings to the House of Representatives at the Regular Session of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three.

Mr. E. G. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of the Resolution.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of the resolution? Is there objection? The Chair hears objection and consent is not granted.

The resolution lies over for printing.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. EDERER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. EDERER. Mr. Speaker, I ask that the report submitted in accordance with Resolution No. 19, Printer's No. 171 be printed in the Journal in full.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under the question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

Are there objections to printing in the Journal the report referred to? The Chair hears none, and the report will be spread upon the Journal.

Department of Justice, Harrisburg, August 1, 1932.

Honorable C. J. Goodnough, Speaker, House of Representatives, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania:

Dear Mr. Speaker:

In accordance with House Resolution No. 19, I beg to submit herewith information requested regarding the salaried attorneys attached to this department, including those assigned to assist the Department of Banking in the handling of closed banks.

In the short time at my disposal it was impossible for me to obtain accurate information with regard to the amounts paid by the Department of Banking out of the estates of closed banks to the attorneys assigned to closed bank work to June 1, 1932. However, I have given you the salary rate of all of these lawyers except the few who are on a fee basis. In these instances a fee basis has been stipulated because it was felt that the volume of work did not warrant the payment of a stated salary.

Respectfully yours,
(Signed) WM. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR CONCURRED IN BY SENATE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 85.

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the twenty-sixth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (Act number fifty-six A Appropriation Acts of one thousand nine hundred thirty-one) entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Sleighton Farm School for Girls situate in Delaware County Pennsylvania"

Said bill having been recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment, the vote had on final passage and third reading reconsidered in the House and the bill amended, in which amendments the Senate has concurred.

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED RESOLUTION RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned resolution from the House of Representatives as follows:

In the House of Representatives, August 17th, 1932.

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That the General Assembly adjourn sine die, on August 19th, 1932, at 12 o'clock noon.

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendment in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendment.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend by striking out "12 o'clock noon" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "1 o'clock A. M."

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendment made by the Senate?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that it would only be proper to explain to the House that there might be some measures coming from the Senate in which the concurrence or the nonconcurrence of the House was necessary. The Talbot bill is over there and I suppose there might be some question about printing—

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, it has been the common practice in this House to turn the clock back where there is a delay necessary in adjournment.

Mr. TURNER. It may be a common practice, but suppose the House don't agree to that.

Mr. FLYNN. It doesn't need to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the amendment.

A division was called for and ninety-one members having voted in the affirmative and thirty-five members having voted in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendments were concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, there has just been introduced in this House a resolution in which it is asked that the Highway Department be investigated. That resolution was objected to by the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Flynn; for what reason I don't know; but that is his prerogative, which necessitates that resolution lying over for printing.

It appears to me to be a rather important resolution. Charges have been made by a Federal official of high rank against the highest executive officer within the confines of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. He has been charged with racketeering in the use of highway employment and, if I am correct he has failed to answer that charge either in the public press or by any other statement.

It seems to me members of this House, that it comes with ill grace to endeavor to adjourn without giving the membership of this House an opportunity to vote upon that resolution.

Shall we permit or shall we not permit charges to be made against the Executive of our State without having an investigation, so that he may either be exonerated or the charges proved. It is now, according to Standard Time, eight minutes after eleven o'clock. In order to vote upon that resolution it would have to be printed prior to the time that has been voted by you for adjournment. I therefore ask, Mr. Speaker, that directions be given to the printer to endeavor to do his utmost to bring that resolution before this House immediately and before 12.00 o'clock Standard Time, in order that this House may have an opportunity of either voting in support of that important resolution, as I see it, or of voting against that resolution. If that is done by the printer then we will have the resolution in time to be voted upon. I urge as well as solicit the Speaker, if he will, to instruct the printer to have the resolution printed as rapidly as possible.

The SPEAKER. The Chair might well question our authority to issue instructions to the printer. We will, however, request that the printer use due diligence in providing the members of the House with that resolution at the earliest possible time. Does that comply with the requirement of the gentleman from Philadelphia?

Mr. WITKIN. Yes sir.

The SPEAKER. That the printer use his best endeavor?

Mr. WITKIN. It does, and may I thank the Speaker for making that request.

FILES OF MEMBERS TO BE FORWARDED

Mr. LUCAS offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, August 18th, 1932.

Whereas, The files of the bills presented to and the proceedings of the General Assembly of the Extraordinary Session of the one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two are the property of the members thereof, and are desired for preservation by said members, and

Whereas, Said files have, at former sessions, been forwarded to the homes of the members at the conclusion of the session by the Department of Property and Supplies, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Secretary of the said Department of Property and Supplies shall be requested by the Resident Clerk of the House of Representatives to forward such files and supplies belonging to the members of the House of Representatives as they may designate, to such address as shall be furnished by them to the said Resident Clerk of the House of Representatives, and that a copy of this resolution be forwarded by the said Resident Clerk to the Secretary of the said Department of Property and Supplies.

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION CONCURRED IN BY SENATE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives, as follows:

In the House of Representatives, August 18, 1932.

Resolved, (If the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 121, Printer's No. 238, entitled "A supplement to an act approved the twenty-sixth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one, (Appropriation Acts, page one hundred six), entitled 'An act making an appropriation to the Department of Welfare for the maintenance of certain hospitals,' making an additional emergency appropriation," which was recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment, be returned to the Governor without amendment.

The SPEAKER. We open now the order of business, Bills on Third Reading Postponed, in order that they may be called up if the sponsors of the bills so desire.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 4, Printer's No. 118, from page 1 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Legislative Journal.

Extraordinary Session of 1932.

Vol. 14 HARRISBURG, PA., FRIDAY, AUGUST 19, 1932. No. 30

SENATE

FRIDAY, AUGUST 19, 1932

The Senate met at 12.01 o'clock A. M. (Eastern Standard Time).

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Edward C. Shannon) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. Christian H. Shirk, offered the following prayer:

Our Heavenly Father, we thank Thee that through Thy divine providence Thou hast brought us in safety to the final meeting of this Extraordinary Session of our General Assembly. Thou knowest how difficult were the problems awaiting us and demanding a solution as we began the Special Session. We looked to Thee for help and guidance, and we believe that Thou didst hear our petitions, for which we devoutly thank Thee.

Forgive us for whatever we may have left undone that we should have done, and for all errors we may have committed.

Command Thy blessing to rest upon the citizens of our great State, represented by this legislative body. May any who are disappointed with the legislation enacted exercise large charity in their critical judgments of what was done. May all cheerfully obey the laws enacted, as loyal citizens should.

May Thy richest blessing rest upon the large number of unemployed. May an early relief come to them in the way of steady employment and larger prosperity.

May Thy benediction attend us all as we return to our homes. May we abide in Thy safekeeping until we meet again, either in this Assembly or in the Great General Assembly of God's Elect, to rule with Thee eternally.

We ask for these mercies in the exalted name of our Lord. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the proceeding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. EINSTEIN, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

As we rapidly draw near to the close of this Special Session not knowing when or whether ever we shall meet as we are met here this hour, may a deep sense of humility be upon us. Remember in great mercy those in authority over us in this Republic and in this Commonwealth. Bless each and every member of this House. Think for good upon the officers, the employees, the page boys; and may Thy presence keep all our hearts in perfect peace. Amen.

Burgner, Resident Clerk of the House of Representatives and the Reverend Omer B. Poulson, Chaplain of the House of Representatives, for the courteous, able and efficient manner in which they attended to the duties of their respective offices during this Extraordinary Session of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise on a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Philadelphia insisted last week that I go to the "mike." It seems to me that the rules of the House contain a provision that no one member shall be extended any greater privilege than that accorded every other member. The gentleman from Philadelphia, therefore, should reciprocate and go to the "mike" himself.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is of the opinion that under numerous decisions that may be found in Hind's, Jefferson's Manual and various other authorities the point of order is not well taken.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this House has heard "E. J. T." broadcast but it has not heard "C. A. S." broadcast over the microphone, and I hardly think that in this Extraordinary Session my education has developed so much as to graduate me to that degree. I want to call the attention of the House to the fact—

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise on a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. WITKIN. Is it possible to have the "mike" brought to the desk of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers?

The SPEAKER. The Chair refers that question for information to the operator of the microphone.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I think it is a crime to impose upon a man with a nice clear ringing voice like Mr. Sowers has to have it dampened by speaking over the microphone.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Stadtlander.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STADTLANDER. Gladly, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. I did not hear you. You said "ringing" or "wringing wet?"

Mr. STADTLANDER. Both, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this session has been one of the most important that I have ever attended and this Legislature has passed legislation for the relief of Philadelphia which is of great importance. It is of such great importance that it can only be rivalled by the Charter Bill of 1919.

I think the passage of House Bill No. 214 is remarkable under the circumstances of this session. By House Bill No. 214 you have essentially created Philadelphia a state unto itself, a principality unto itself; you have relieved it from coming to Harrisburg at any future time and asking for relief. You have given Philadelphia the power to tax itself and to retain all of the tax instead of following the old procedure of being taxed, having the tax brought up here, and getting but one-third of it back.

I wanted to mention this fact to you with gratitude and thank you sincerely from the bottom of my heart, for giving us the relief from finding ourselves taxed and then only getting part of the money back.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under the question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

THANKING DIRECTORS, OFFICERS AND EMPLOYES OF LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU

Mr. BECHTEL offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, August 19th, 1932.

Resolved, That the members of the House of Representatives extend their thanks and appreciation to the Director and other officers and employes of the Legislative Reference Bureau for the valuable assistance rendered to the House during the Extraordinary Session of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two.

RESOLUTION

THANKING REPRESENTATIVES OF PRESS

Mr. STEWART offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, August 19th, 1932.

Resolved, That the thanks of the members of the House of Representatives be extended to the representatives of the press for the fair and impartial manner in which they reported the proceedings of the Extraordinary Session of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two.

RESOLUTION

THANKING BUREAU OF PUBLICATIONS

Mr. FOX offered a resolution and asked and obtained unamious consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, August 19th, 1932.

Resolved, That the thanks of the members of the House of Representatives be extended to the Bureau of Publications of the Department of Property and Supplies and to the public printer for the efficient manner in which the printing for the Extraordinary Session was expedited.

RESOLUTION

COMMITTEE TO WAIT ON SENATE

Mr. HEFFERNAN offered a resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, August 19th, 1932.

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to wait upon the Senate and inform that body that the House is ready to adjourn sine die this day, August 19, 1932, at 1 o'clock A. M.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE

The SPEAKER. The Chair appoints as a Committee to wait upon the Senate Messrs. Heffernan, McClure and Staudenmeier.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to take advantage of this opportunity because I am not going to have the pleasure and the honor of being in the session of 1933. As most of you know, I did not aspire to the Legislature this time; I thought that I was ready for Congress and fortunately for me the Democrats in my district believed that I was more of a Democrat than a Republican, and, therefore, they nominated me on the Democratic ticket.

However, I do want to say this, before the House adjourns that I desire to thank from the bottom of my heart every member of this House because of the hospitable treatment I have received from you. You have been very kind and considerate. Never once has a member failed to give me information when I desired it. Many times I was going alone by myself and I was assisted kindly by the members.

Before I conclude I also want to say as a tribute to our Speaker, regardless of whether or not he be chosen the next time as Speaker of this House, that I think it will be very difficult to get a man who will be as fair as he has been. He has always recognized every one in this House and he has also been extremely patient. I know that because many times he could have told me to sit down and he would have been in order and I would have been out of order, but he did not do that.

In conclusion, I want also to thank all the clerks and the page boys for the wonderful treatment that they have manifested in my behalf.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE TO WAIT UPON GOVERNOR

The SPEAKER. The Chair appoints as a committee on the part of the House to act in conjunction with a similar committee on the part of the Senate, to wait upon the Governo: and inform him that the General Assembly is ready to adjourn sine die this day, Messrs. McElwee, White and T. J. Brown.

REMARKS BY THE SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. Fellow members of the House, in the absence of something better to be put over the table the Chair desires and craves the indulgence of the House while we indulge in a few reflections.

In a few moments the gavel in the Senate and House of Representatives will drop for the last time and the Extraordinary Session of 1932 will become history.

In retrospect I want to say that I have the feeling that the members of the House have performed their duties with diligence and application which has rarely been exceeded and I believe never excelled in any session of the House. There may be some, I am aware, who may not agree with this statement. Therefore, I feel inclined to refer to some of the principal achievements of the General Assembly in this Extraordinary Session.

In the economy program we have recovered a matter of sixteen millions of dollars from appropriations made in the regular session of 1931, and I am sure that that is an accomplishment of no small moment, particularly is that true when we remember that these abatements are spread over a period of only eight or nine months instead of the biennium. Someone has estimated that for the full period of twenty-four months this abatement would be comparable to forty millions of dollars.

In addition to this, we have set in motion the machinery by which, if finally approved, twenty-five millions of dollars may be received from a bond issue with which to reimburse various municipalities for expenditures that they may be compelled to make during this period of depression for the relief of the unemployed in those districts.

In addition, we have passed legislation, as has been recently referred to upon the floor of the House, whereby various municipalities may tax themselves and retain all of the tax for the benefit of the unemployed in that municipality.

In addition, we have passed legislation that permtis the banking department to secure loans under certain prescribed conditions from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for the benefit of the depositors in those banks which, I am sure, will mean much to many in this Commonwealth.

In addition, we have passed the Talbot bill appropriating twelve millions of dollars for direct relief. To finance that proposition necessarily additional funds must have been secured through channels of taxation. While additional taxation is repugnant probably to most of the members, I believe that the means adopted and the source from which this tax will be received has been in the best judgment of the General Assembly, and will provide these funds with a minimum of burden upon the taxpayers of the Commonwealth.

So, I say that these achievements reflect credit upon the General Assembly and I believe that when the results are fully known to our constituents we will be entitled to receive their commendation and I believe that we will receive the same commendation.

I should also like to express my personal appreciation for the many courtesies that I have received from the members of the House, and there is no person can understand quite as well as those who have stood at this desk the co-operation of the Chief Clerk, the resident clerk, the reading clerks and all the staff at the desk, and this co-operation I have had in full measure, pressed down and running over.

I want, therefore, at this time to express sincere appreciation, saying what I know to be true, that if this desk has functioned with any degree of success it is the result of this co-operation more than any other thing.

In closing, may I thank you for all the courtesies that you have extended, particularly for the tribute of this evening.

Again permit me to thank you.

Whereas, By confession and avoidance it now has been made to appear that His Excellency, The Governor of this Commonwealth, has a hair brush, and, indeed, for the two years last past may have been the proud possessor of two of those luxuries, which, like every question, has two sides to it, one for parental instruction, and the other as an aid to personal adornment, and

Whereas, Many of the members of this House either have reached, or are rapidly approaching that stage in life where a towel is both a more comfortable and an equally effective instrument for the combing of that place where those luxuriant locks once grew or now are mechanically attached.

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That this House extend to His Excellency, the Governor, its felicitation on the fact that he has a hair brush and the further fact that he needs one.

EXTRAORDINARY SESSION OF 1932

REASONS FOR PARDONS GRANTED BY THE GOVERNOR FROM OCTOBER 1, 1931 TO MAY 31, 1932

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, June 27, 1932.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to present herewith the reasons for pardons granted by me from October 1, 1931, to May 31, 1932.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Cyrus M. Woodell—No. 351

October Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Cyrus M. Woodell, convicted of robbery, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Erie County, on April 26, 1929, be commuted from three and one-half years, to two years, six months, expiring on October 26, 1931.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant and a co-defendant, A. K. Lanning, the latter being the older of the two, held up the attendant at a gasoline station in Erie, Pa., forcing him into a lavatory with a gun while applicant took $57.53 from the cash register. Both were arrested within an hour, made restitution, and pleaded guilty. Three days later Lanning was sentenced to the Huntingdon Reformatory and the applicant was sentenced to serve from three and one-half to seven years in the Western State Penitentiary.

2. Applicant was never before arrested in this or any other State, always bore a good record and has an honorable discharge from the U. S. Marines. He has now served two and one-half years. We feel that he can safely be released on parole.

3. The trustees of the Western State Penitentiary, and the State Supervisor of Paroles recommend commutation, and there are a number of letters of recommendation from prominent citizens, city and county officials and judges, including Hon. A. R. Chase and Hon. Singleton Bell, who are personally acquainted with the applicant.

4. Upon his release, applicant will be employed with the Lauterbauch Bakery, Inc., 121 E. 21st Street, Erie, Pa., and will be on parole until April 26, 1936.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Raimondo Valentino—No. 340

October Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of Raimondo Valentino, convicted of murder first degree, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Clinton County, on March 25, 1926, be commuted from imprisonment for life to a minimum of six years and a maximum of twelve years.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant was convicted of causing the death of Howard Wagner on Labor Day, September 7, 1925. Donald Charles and Howard Wagner were crossing a bridge from the Main Street, to the south side of Avis, Clinton County, to take a street car for Jersey Shore. They were both very drunk. Applicant is alleged to have stabbed Wagner causing his death, but has always maintained his innocence and claims it was a question of mistaken identity.

2. The trial judge says in part, "In my judgment the ends of justice would be served by the commutation of sentence from life imprisonment to a determinate term of not less than six nor more than twelve years and that he may safely be released from prison." Applicant has now served six years. The private prosecutor, the present district attorney, the trustees of the Western State Penitentiary and the State Supervisor of Paroles are all favorable to clemency.

3. Applicant has friends at Avis, Pa., who will care for him, and he will be employed by Mr. Joe Mandorello, Jersey Shore. He will be on parole until March 26, 1937.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Domenick Stanzeone—No. 339

October Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Domenick Stanzeone, convicted of obstructing railroad engine, (two counts), in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Clinton

County, on April 30, 1925, be commuted from eight and one-half years to six years, six months, expiring on October 30, 1931.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant on November 28, 1924, found a piece of steel known as a derailer and mischievously placed same on a railroad track. An engine was derailed and no great damage done, nor anyone injured. He is supposed to have committed the same offense on April 30, 1925. He entered a plea of guilty to the first offense, but claims to be innocent of the second charge.

2. The district attorney, private prosecutor, trustees of the Western State Penitentiary and State Supervisor of Paroles are all favorable to a commutation, conditioned upon immediate deportation.

3. Applicant served six years and five months of his sentence and will be on parole until April 30, 1942.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,

In re Application of Fred Allen Senft—No. 457

October Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Fred Allen Senft, convicted of murder second degree, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of York County, on May 23, 1929, be commuted from seven and one-half years to three years, expiring on May 23, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant while highly intoxicated went to the home of his paramour, a widow, where he secured a gun which belonged to the widow's son and attempted to leave the house with the gun. His paramour and her son attempted to prevent this and the son struck applicant in the face with his fist. During this scuffle which ensued, the gun discharged, and a granddaughter of applicant's paramour, who was in the room, was killed. About an hour after the shooting applicant had sobered up, entered a restaurant, asked that a police officer be called, remained there until the officer came for him, and at once pleaded guilty to the crime.

2. The trial judge, the trial district attorney, the parents of the deceased child, and the warden of the York County Prison, recommend commutation.

3. Applicant has a position awaiting him with John C. Becker, 217 Hartley Street, York, Pa., and will be on parole until May 23, 1944.

In re Application of Paul Richell—No. 456

October Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Paul Richell, convicted of robbery, in the Courts of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of York County, on August 12, 1929, be commuted from three years to two years, two months, expiring on October 12, 1931.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant along with William Anderson, both members of the U. S. Army were stationed at Fort Meade, Maryland, and started for Laurel, Maryland, a distance of nine miles. They obtained a "hitch hike" and held up and robbed the man with whom they were riding. At the time of the crime applicant was only 19 years old. He pleaded guilty, returned everything he had taken and was sentenced to from 3 to 6 years in the penitentiary. He has served more than two years.

2. The trial judge, the trial district attorney, the State Supervisor of Paroles, and the victim of the crime L. C. Madison, professor of Animal Husbandry, Pennsylvania State College, all recommend commutation.

3. Applicant has a position upon his release with J. A. Cunningham, Inc., 1155-1161 S. Broad Street, Philadelphia. He will be on parole until August 12, 1935.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Louis McCarthy—No. 296

October Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Louis McCarthy, convicted of rape, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County, on November 25, 1929, be commuted from three years, to one year, eleven months, expiring on October 25, 1931.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant, convicted of the crime of rape, still claims his innocence. He has now served two years of a three year minimum sentence. He had never before been accused of crime. The Board feel that there is substantial doubt whether applicant was guilty of this offense.

2. The trial district attorney, the Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary and the State Supervisor of Paroles recommend clemency.

3. Upon his release applicant will have a position with William Leech, 220 Chartiers Ave., McKees Rocks, Pa., and will be on parole until November 25, 1935.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Leslie Merker—No. 312

October Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Leslie Merker, convicted of larceny in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Beaver County, on March 2, 1931, be commuted from two years to six months, expiring on September 2, 1931, and that his minimum sentence for escape, imposed in the Court of Quarter Sessions, of Centre County, on May 25, 1931, be commuted from one year to two months, expiring on November 2, 1931.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant, then 19 years of age, was a student at St. John's College, Brooklyn, N. Y., on January 21, 1931. For some unknown reason he left college on that night and roved into Pennsylvania where he arrived in Aliquippa, Beaver County. He was tired and hungry and asked a police officer where he might get a night's lodging. The officer ignored him. Thereupon the boy broke the window and walked into the police station saying to the sergeant that he had stolen the watches in order to get a night's lodging. He was arrested and sentenced to from one to two years in the Western State Penitentiary. He was sent to Rockview Penitentiary and on May 22, 1931, fearing that his parents would learn of his whereabouts and be disgraced, he escaped from Rockview, was captured and sentenced by the Centre County Court to from one to two years for escape.

2. Applicant's mother does not as yet know of his imprisonment. Through worry over her son's disappearance, she has suffered a nervous breakdown.

3. The trial judges of Beaver and Centre counties, the trial district attorney of Beaver County and the Board of Trustees of Western State Penitentiary recommend clemency. Applicant's father, Mr. A. B. Merker, 41 W. 45th Street, New York City, N. Y., appeared before the Board and asked that his son be released so that he could return to college. We suggested that possibly the boy was in need of mental treatment and the father cheerfully agreed to provide it, if necessary. Applicant will be on parole until May 25, 1935.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant and two co-defendants, one Theodore McHenry and Morris Stout had been drinking liquor on the night of August 15, 1927. They entered the Elks Club by force and committed a robbery.

2. The trial judge is not opposed to clemency saying in part, "The young man has been sufficiently punished, and his two confederates have been pardoned," the State Supervisor of Paroles and Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary recommend clemency.

3. Applicant has served over four years and has a position awaiting him with the American Car & Foundry Company, Berwick, Pa. He will be on parole until August 22, 1937.

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Joseph Klarik, convicted of arson, fire with intent to defraud, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Fayette County, on August 6, 1929, be commuted from four years to two years, two months, expiring on October 6, 1931.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant on the evening of July 21, 1929, being alone in his home became intoxicated as the result of drinking home brew and set fire to his own home. Some of the neighbors discovered the fire and sent in an alarm. The fire was extinguished, the damage to the house amounting to about one hundred dollars. Eight days later the fire marshal questioned the applicant as to the origin of the fire and he admitted his guilt. He was later sentenced to imprisonment to from four to eight years. He has now served over two years.

2. The trial judge, the trial district attorney, the Board of Trustees of Western State Penitentiary and the State Supervisor of Paroles are favorable to commutation.

1. Applicant was convicted and sentenced to from 6 to 12 years for chicken stealing. He is sixty-five years of age and has now served five years in the penitentiary. He owns two farms in Chester County of which one is his home. He will go there upon his release. We believe that he has been sufficiently punished.

In re Application of Martin Fleming—No. 346

October Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of Martin Fleming, convicted of murder, first degree, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Dauphin County, on July 13, 1914, be commuted from imprisonment for life to a minimum sentence of 17 years, three months, expiring on October 21, 1931.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant is serving a life sentence for the murder of his mother-in-law. His wife and baby were living at the home of her mother, in Harrisburg, and applicant was forbidden to come to the house. He was about to leave the city and accept a position in Altoona, and desiring to see his child before going, he went to the home of his mother-in-law at midnight, entered through an open window and went to the bedroom where his wife, child and mother-in-law were. He sat beside the bed for some time, then leaned over and kissed his wife, and reached over to get the baby so that he might hold it in his arms. His mother-in-law awoke and ordered him from the house. He pleaded with her to allow him to see the baby, but she refused. She was a large woman, weighing nearly two hundred pounds. She came towards applicant to force him from the house, and in his crazed condition he shot and killed her.

2. On July 13, 1914, the applicant was sentenced to be hanged. On August 21, 1914, his sentence was commuted to life imprisonment. He has now been imprisoned for eighteen years.

3. The trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary and the State Supervisor of Paroles both recommend the further commutation of sentence. The trial judge and district attorney are both deceased.

4. Applicant has a fine institutional record. He has been very useful in the medical department. He is at present in bad health.

5. Upon his release he will be employed by Mr. Henry G. Brock, at Muncy, Pa., in the capacity of caretaker on his farm. He will be on parole for the remainder of his natural life.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant had been confined in the Western State Penitentiary for breaking and entering, receiving stolen goods and escape. He was sentenced to from six to twelve years on January 26, 1923.

2. Applicant has served his minimum sentence and three years of his parole. He desires to leave the State with his wife to avoid being annoyed by his father-in-law. Applicant is an Italian and his wife a Syrian. The father-in-law was always opposed to the marriage.

3. The trial district attorney, the assistant trial district attorney, various county officials and the State Supervisor of Paroles all recommend a pardon. A former Warden of the Western State Penitentiary recommends a pardon for the valuable services applicant rendered to the Commonwealth while in prison,—he made it possible for the Warden to convict three prison guards on charges of bringing contraband articles into the penitentiary.

4. Upon receipt of a pardon, applicant and his wife will at once leave the State.

In re Application of George Andrew Diehl—No. 284

October Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of George Andrew Diehl, convicted of statutory rape, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County, on August 13, 1926, be commuted from eight years to five years, two months, expiring on October 13, 1931.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant was arrested for rape on two girls. He admits having made an attempt on one, but denies that he actually committed the offense. He was placed in jail and after awaiting trial for five weeks, he offered to plead guilty to the charge as to the one girl, but by mistake a plea of guilty was entered in both cases and applicant was sentenced to imprisonment for from four to eight years on each charge. He has now served over five years of a eight to sixteen year sentence.

2. This is applicant's first offense and we believe that he has been sufficently punished for the offense committed.

3. The trial judge is not opposed to clemency, and the trial district attorney, the trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary and the State Supervisor of Paroles recommend it.

4. If applicant is released he has a position awaiting him with Mr. Earl Webster, 201 Water Street, Pittsburgh, Pa., and he will be on parole until August 13, 1942.

In re Application of Arsenio Alivinti—No. 387

October Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Arsenio Alivinti, convicted of pandering, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Luzerne County, on December 8, 1928, be commuted from five years to three years, ten months, expiring on October 8, 1931.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant, in September, 1928, drove an automobile with Louis Ferruci and a Miss Carpenter to a restaurant at Mocanaqua. At a later date Miss Carpenter testified that she was compelled to become a prostitute and had the applicant arrested charged with the crime of pandering. Applicant denied this charge at the trial and still denies it. He has now served two years, ten months of a five to ten year sentence.

2. The trial judge is favorable to clemency, the district attorney is not opposed, and in a petition presented to the Board, eight of the trial jurors recommend clemency. The State Supervisor of Paroles is favorable if applicant is properly sponsored and returns to New York. We recommend that the commutation be conditioned on having applicant go to that State.

3. Applicant will be on parole until December 8, 1938.

In re Application of Louis Yankovich—No. 600

November Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Louis Yankovich, convicted of statutory rape in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County, on March 11, 1930, be commuted from four and one-half years to one year, nine months, expiring on December 11, 1931.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant was sentenced on March 11, 1930, to from four and one-half to nine years for statutory rape. He has always asserted he was innocent of the offence charged, but guilty of immoral conduct with a girl of known bad reputation. We believe his story. Applicant has now served one year and nine months in the penitentiary and we feel that he has been adequately punished.

2. The State Supervisor of Paroles after investigation recommends clemency.

3. Applicant has employment awaiting him with Jones & Laughlin, Pittsburgh, Pa. He will be on parole until March 11, 1939.

In re Application of Benjamin Williams—No. 554

November Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Benjamin Williams, convicted of murder, second degree, in the Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on October 28, 1924, be commuted from ten years to seven years, two months, expiring on December 28, 1931.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant and his wife had been separated for some time, and he sent his fourteen-year-old son with fifteen dollars to his wife. She requested the boy to tell the applicant that she wished to see him. He went to see his wife and she drew a revolver from under her coat. In a tussle the revolver was discharged and the applicant's wife fell to the floor. Applicant then went to the police station and gave himself up. His wife died.

2. The trial judge is not opposed to clemency, and the State Supervisor of Paroles recommends commutation.

2. Applicant has employment with P. L. Sullivan & Sons, 223 Wood Street, Philadelphia, Pa. He will be on parole until May 26, 1947.

In re Application of Thomas Wallace—No. 427

November Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant and one Joseph Conway, were convicted of holding up and robbing a paymaster. There is grave doubt as to applicant's guilt. Joseph Conway was pardoned in December, 1929. Applicant has now served eight years in the penitentiary.

2. The Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary and the State Supervisor of Paroles recommend clemency. We feel that under the circumstances commutation is justified.

3. Applicant has a position with the Model Heating & Engineering Company, 5223 Haverford Ave., Philadelphia, Pa. He will be on parole until February 1, 1944.

In re Application of William Nugent—No. 605

November Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that William Nugent, convicted of larceny, receiving stolen goods, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on July 21, 1914, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. On July 21, 1914, applicant was placed on probation for one year on the charges of larceny and receiving stolen goods. He reported regularly and was discharged from probation July, 1915. He is now desirous of removing the stigma from his former good record. He was represented before the Board by Mr. E. M. Hackney, Chief Probation Officer of the Quarter Sessions Court of Philadelphia County.

2. The district attorney and the State Supervisor of Paroles recommend a pardon.

3. We feel that under the circumstances an absolute pardon is warranted.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Joseph McGlinchey, convicted of murder, second degree, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County, on January 22, 1929, be commuted from seven years to two years, ten months, expiring on November 22, 1931.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant has been on a drunken debauch for quite some time and upon entering a restaurant in Columbia Avenue, Philadelphia, attempted to shoot a derby hat off a negro who was sitting at the counter. The bullet struck the man in the head and caused his death.

2. The applicant is suffering from advanced tuberculosis. The Board asked Dr. Appel to have a physical examination made. This examination was made by Dr. Gorman, Medical Director, Hamburg State Sanitarium, who recommends applicant's removal to a location better adapted to the treatment of his disease. He will be on parole until January 22, 1949.

3. We feel that applicant's physical condition justifies clemency.

In re Application of Walter McClarigan—No. 334

November Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Walter McClarigan, convicted of Burglary (two counts), in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Chester County, on April 23, 1928, be commuted from ten years to three years, seven months, expiring on November 23, 1931.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant was sentenced on two charges of burglary. The value of the articles stolen was eighty dollars ($80.00). He has now served three years, seven months in the penitentiary. As this was his first offense we feel that he has been sufficiently punished.

2. The trial judge does not oppose, and the State Supervisor of Paroles recommends clemency.

3. Applicant has employment with M. L. Jaschik, 509 North Street, Lancaster, Pa. He will be on parole until April 23, 1943.

Respectfully submitted,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Joseph Muha—No. 470

November Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Joseph Muha, convicted of robbery, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County, on October 15, 1929, be commuted from four years to two years, one month, expiring on November 15, 1931.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant and an accomplice attempted to enter the window of a gasoline station for the purpose of taking an automobile tire, but upon seeing an officer approaching they abandoned their purpose. They then went to a "Blind Pig" (speakeasy) and attempted to take money from the proprietor, and again did not succeed. However, they were arrested and convicted on both counts. The accomplice was sentenced to one year in the Allegheny County jail and is now at liberty. Applicant was sentenced to the penitentiary from four to ten years. He has served more than two years.

2. We feel that as this was applicant's first offense, and his accomplice, who was equally guilty, has been at liberty for more than a year, applicant has been sufficiently punished.

3. Applicant has a position awaiting him with Speros Bukes & Company, 205 E. 8th Street, Homestead, Pa. He will be on parole until October 15, 1939.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.
RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.
PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Max Morgenthau—No. 463

November Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Max Morgenthau, convicted of murder, second degree, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Cumberland County, on November 5, 1922, be commuted from nineteen years to nine years, expiring on November 5, 1931.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant, now seventy-nine years of age, was in the huckstering business, going through the country buying eggs, chickens, etc. He stopped his team to get a piece of binding cord at a farm house. The farmer took him for an intruder and ordered him to put up his hands, which order he obeyed. Nevertheless the farmer fired and shot applicant through the wrist. Thereupon the applicant drew his revolver and shot in self defense, killing the farmer. He was sentenced to death, but the Supreme Court reversed the decision of the lower court. Later applicant received a sentence of nineteen to twenty years for second degree murder. He has been in prison for over seventeen years.

2. The trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary and the State Supervisor of Paroles recommend clemency. We feel that this recommendation is warranted.

3. Applicant has a home to go to upon his release, with Miss Bianca S. Simon, 310 Riverside Drive, New York. He will be on parole until November 5, 1942.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.
RICHARD J. BEAMISH,

In re Application of Stanley Mackewicz—No. 542

November Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Stanley Mackewicz, convicted of rape, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Chester County, on November 10, 1930, be commuted from five years to one year, expiring on November 10, 1931.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant with two accomplices was charged with rape. He has always maintained his innocence of the charge. The trial judge says, in part, "In my judgment this application should be granted." We feel that it is perfectly apparent that applicant was not guilty of rape.

2. Applicant has a position awaiting him upon his release with the Dohler Die Casting Company, Pottstown, Pa. He will be on parole until November 10, 1940.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,

In re Application of Modesto Loquastro—No. 612

November Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Modesto Loquastro, convicted of robbery in the Courts of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Luzerne County, on June 11, 1931, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant was arrested and convicted on June 11, 1931, for robbery. It was afterwards discovered this was a clear case of mistaken identity.

2. The Honorable Clarence D. Coughlin, P. J., of Luzerne County, directed Assistant District Attorney Harris to make application to the Board of Pardons for the pardon of the applicant. Under the circumstances he is clearly entitled to it.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

In re Application of Leo Lawler—No. 579.

November Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Leo Lawler, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon, entering with intent to rob, in the Courts of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on November 15, 1927, be commuted from forty years to five years, expiring on November 15, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant was sentenced November 15, 1927 to from forty to eighty years for robbery, being armed with a weapon, and entering to rob. He was but 19 years of age at the time these offenses were committed and all took place within a period of five weeks. His three accomplices were older than he.

2. The trial judge, the assistant trial district attorney, and the trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary, and the State Supervisor of Parcles all recommend a commutation of sentence.

3. We feel that the sentence was extreme for a first offender, especially one of such tender age. Applicant's father died last month leaving three children for the widowed mother to provide for. Applicant has two jobs offered him, one with the Stratford Laundry, 3605 Haverford Avenue and with the Fox Film Corporation, 1238 Vine Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

4. We feel that when applicant has completed five years of his sentence, he should be paroled. He will be on parole for 75 years.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

November Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Raymond E. Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant broke into the store of Davidson Supply Company at Port Marion, Pa., and stole between two and three hundred dollars worth of merchandise. He then gave himself up to the police and pleaded guilty. He has now served two years, ten months of a four to eight year sentence.

2. The trial judge and the Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary recommend clemency, and we feel that commutation is proper.

3. Upon his release applicant will be employed by John Atkinson, Chaplin Collieries Company, Morgantown, W. Va. He will be on parole until August 31, 1936.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant was sentenced March 7, 1927, to pay a fne of one dollar ($1.00), and to undergo imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years, on a charge of accessory before the fact to robbery. He has now served four years, and nine months. We feel that he can safely be paroled.

2. The trial judge, the trial district attorney, the trustees of the Western State Penitentiary and the State Supervisor of Paroles recommend commutation of sentence.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Harry M. Green, convicted on receiving stolen goods in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on March 28, 1929, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant was convicted on March 28, 1929, of a charge of receiving stolen goods. He was sentenced to the Philadelphia County Prison for a term of from six months to one year. After serving two months of his sentence he was placed on parole, and was discharged from parole on March 28, 1930. Applicant has been at liberty for the past year and one-half, during which time his conduct has been entirely satisfactory. He desires a pardon to enable him to accept a position in Baltimore to qualify for which he has to be bonded. We feel that he will justify your confidence in pardoning him.

November Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant was sentenced from Montgomery County on November 15, 1924, for breaking, larceny and receiving stolen goods. While at Rockview he escaped. His motive was his anxiety to see his little boy who was very ill. He was at liberty forty days. Upon his capture he was sentenced to from five to ten years for escape. He has now been in prison 7 years, 1 month.

2. The trial judge, Hon. Arthur C. Dale, of Centre County, who sentenced the applicant appeared before the Board in his behalf. The State Supervisor of Paroles recommends commutation.

3. Mr. A. G. Fraser, of the Pennsylvania Prison Society, Philadelphia, Pa., has promised to secure employment for applicant, who will be on parole until August 15, 1935.

In re Application of Thomas B. C. Gilgallon—No. 548

November Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Thomas B. C. Gilgallon, convicted of rape, statutory rape, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Lackawanna County, on April 11, 1927, be commuted from seven and one-half years to four years, eight months, expiring on December 11, 1931.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant and one Michael Provpack were found guilty of rape and were sentenced on April 11, 1927, to from seven and one-half to fifteen years.

2. The accomplice, Michael Provpack, was released on parole in December, 1930. As he was at least equally guilty with the applicant, and as this is applicant's first offense, we feel that in fairness, applicant should also be paroled.

3. The trial judge is not opposed to clemency, and the trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary, and the State Supervisor of Paroles recommend it.

4. Upon his release applicant will be employed by James Kearney Company, 114 Olive street, Scranton, Penna. He will be on parole until April 11, 1942.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Lawrence Edwin St. Clair Gibson—No. 407

November Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of Lawrence Edwin St. Clair Gibson, convicted of murder first degree, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County, on August 3, 1904, be commuted from imprisonment for life to a minimum sentence of 27 years, 3 months, expiring on November 3, 1931.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant went to the Houston Club of the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, to make a friendly call, but while there he stole four dollars ($4.00), from the cash register in the basement. He started to leave the basement, but at the top of the stairs he was met by John Thomas, night watchman, who, armed with an iron bar, struck applicant over the shoulder. They grappled and a struggle ensued, in which they rolled down the stairway. The applicant ran to a closet nearby where he knew a hatchet was kept, and with this weapon killed the watchman. The applicant was arrested in his bed the next morning charged with murder, and was sentenced August 3, 1904, to be hanged. On March 5, 1905, his sentence was commuted to imprisonment for life. There is a real question whether the crime could properly be held to be first degree murder.

2. Applicant wishes to return to Jamaica, his native country. He has been imprisoned 27 years, and the Board feel that he has been sufficiently punished and can be safely released for deportation.

3. The district attorney is not opposed to commutation and the trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary and State Supervisor of Paroles recommend it.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

In re Application of William Leroy Coleman—No. 389

November Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of William Leroy Coleman, convicted of burglary and breaking, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Luzerne County, on June 15, 1929, be commuted from five years to two years, five months, expiring on November 15, 1931.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. This application is based on the claim that applicant is suffering from an advanced case of tuberculosis. Accordingly the Board requested Dr. Appel to have an examination made and give it a report. Dr. Henry A. Gorman, Medical Director at Hamburg State Sanatorium, found that applicant is suffering from advanced tuberculosis as stated in his application and recommends institutional treatment.

2. In view of applicant's physical condition, the trial judge, the trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary, and the State Supervisor of Paroles recommend clemency.

3. Applicant is able to pay his own hospital expenses and will be on parole until June 15, 1939.

In re Application of John Francis Clapper—No. 545

November Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that John Francis Clapper, convicted of assault and battery in the Municipal Court of Philadelphia County, on April 17, 1929, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. In April, 1929, applicant pleaded guilty to a charge of assault and battery. He and a former friend engaged in an argument which ended in a fist fight. The court placed applicant on probation for a year. This period has expired, and apparently applicant's conduct has been consistently good subsequent to the date when he was placed on probation. He has taken a civil service examination and passed it satisfactorily, but cannot obtain public employment until his record is cleared.

2. The trial judge and district attorney are not opposed to a pardon, the State Supervisor of Paroles recommends it.

3. In view of the fact that applicant was never in any trouble except the instance cited, we are disposed to recommend that he be pardoned.

E. C. SHANNON,

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant when seventeen years of age pleaded guilty to three counts of breaking, entering and larceny. The thefts totaled a small amount but a sentence of from ten to thirty years was imposed. Applicant has served three years and seven months. His accomplice was commuted over two years ago. We are of the opinion that he has been adequately punished.

2. The trial judge and the Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary are not opposed to clemency, and the State Supervisor of Paroles recommends it.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of James Roland Brown, convicted of aggravated assault and battery, robbery, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on April 14, 1921, be commuted from twenty years to ten years, expiring on April 14, 1931, and that his minimum sentence for breaking and escaping penitentiary, imposed in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on April 8, 1924, be commuted from 19½ years to 7 months, expiring November 14, 1931.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant was arrested March 17, 1921, on the charge of robbery and was sentenced to 19½ to 20 years, July 14, 1923. He and five others escaped the Eastern State Penitentiary. He was caught in New York and returned November 1, 1923. In April, 1924, sentence for the escape was imposed equal to the original sentence. Applicant has been confined in prison ten years, two months, and ever since his capture after escaping, has had a fine institutional record.

2. The trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary, the deputy warden at Graterford, and the State Supervisor of Paroles recommend clemency. We feel that under the circumstances we can join in this recommendation.

3. Several of applicant's accomplices in the escape have been pardoned. He has two hundred dollars ($200.00) saved and a good home to go to in North Carolina. He will be on parole until April 8, 1944.

In re Application of Ralph Johnson Boyd—No. 377

November Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Ralph Johnson Boyd, convicted of fraudulent conversion (2 counts), in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Lancaster County, on April 21, 1930, be commuted from five years to one year, seven months, expiring on November 21, 1931.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant was city clerk and for a time city controller of Lancaster, Pa., and misappropriated city funds, for which crime he was convicted. Full satisfaction of his indebtedness with interest was made and he assisted in the disclosure of other financial irregularities.

2. The president judge of the Lancaster county court recommends commutation. He says, in part, "He and his forbears were always honorable men. Ralph Johnson Boyd himself is essentially honest and I am certain that there would be no danger of him ever committing an offense against the law in the future, if your Board would see fit to extend clemency to him." The Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary recommend clemency. We feel that he has been sufficiently punished.

2. Applicant has a position awaiting him with Jacob Hess, Millersville, Pa. He will be on parole until April 21, 1940.

In re Application of Louis Boyd—No. 560

November Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Louis Boyd, convicted of robbery, being armed with weapons and striking and ill using, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Erie County, on January 28, 1929, be commuted from three and one-half years to two years, eleven months, expiring on December 28, 1931.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. On January 28, 1929, applicant was sentenced for robbery and being armed with weapons. He was charged with holding up a taxicab driver and taking from him approximately eighteen dollars ($18.00). The sentence was three and one-half to seven years. We have affidavits from the two officers who made the arrest that they did not find any weapons on the applicant.

2. Since applicant's arrest and conviction his wife has deserted his four children ranging in age from two to eight years. As this was his first offence we feel that the ends of justice will be met by paroling him so that he may support his children.

3. The district attorney, the trustees of the Western State Penitentiary, and the State Supervisor of Paroles all recommend clemency. Upon his release applicant will be employed by Dougherty's Dry Cleaners and Dyers, Erie, Pa., and will provide for his children. He will be on parole until January 27, 1936.

Bisbing, convicted of breaking and entering with intent to commit a felony, aggravated assault and battery, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Somerset County, on April 14, 1931, be commuted from three years to seven months, expiring on November 14, 1931.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant became engaged in a gun fight with one William McCracken, whom he discovered living in adultery with his wife. Applicant shot McCracken four times and the latter shot applicant through the arm and escaped. Applicant was a miner and McCracken one of his bosses. Applicant received a sentence of from 3 to 6 years, and McCracken a fine of $100.00 and costs, with no imprisonment. Applicant's children have since been abandoned by his wife.

2. The trustees of the Western State Penitentiary and the State Supervisor of Paroles recommend clemency. We feel that commutation is proper.

November Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Donald Bastress, convicted of larceny, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Northumberland County, on May 24, 1929, be commuted from four years to two years, six months, expiring on November 24, 1931.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant with several accomplices tore up an old railroad siding the property of the Johnson Coal Company which had gone out of business. The tracks had not been used for a period of eight years. The rails were sold to a junk man. Applicant was the only one apprehended and arrested, and was sentenced to from four to eight years. At the time of his arrest he was nineteen years of age.

2. The State Supervisor of Paroles recommends clemency. He has been imprisoned for more than two and one-half years. We feel that this recommendation is proper.

3. Upon his release, applicant will be employed by Richard Long, Fishers Ferry, Pa. He will be on parole until May 24, 1937.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Charles Leroy Barr—No. 493

November Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Charles Leroy Barr, convicted of robbery and receiving stolen goods, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Cambria County, on February, 1926, be commuted from six years to five years, expiring on February 18, 1931, and that his minimum sentence for larceny, breaking and escaping, imposed in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Centre County, on June 21, 1927, be commuted from 3½ years to 9 months, expiring November 18, 1931.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant was convicted in Cambria County, of robbery and receiving stolen goods, and sentenced to a term of three to six years in the Western State Penitentiary. On June 11, 1927, in company with another prisoner he escaped from Rockview. He was apprehended a few days later and sentenced to an additional term of imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary of 3½ to 7 years, this sentence to begin at the expiration of his original sentence. He has served almost six years with a very fine institutional record. His accomplice was commuted last June.

2. The Board feels that applicant has been sufficiently punished for both offenses. The trial judge is not opposed to clemency and the State Supervisor of Paroles recommends commutation.

3. Applicant has employment awaiting him, and will be on parole until June 21, 1934.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

W. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Thomas B. Baird—No. 529

November Session, 1931.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Thomas B. Baird, convicted of perjury, false entries, embezzlement, false statements, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of York County, on June 11, 1923, be commuted from twenty years to eight years, five months, expiring on November 11, 1931.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant was cashier of York City Bank. He was arrested for embezzling the bank's money and making false affidavits. He used the money for speculation. The shortage was discovered in April, 1923, and rendered it necessary for the bank to liquidate through the Department of Banking. As a result of merger, no depositor lost money, although the stockholders did lose money. Applicant assisted the Department of Banking in the recovery of money that otherwise would never have found its way into the funds for distribution. He is 66 years of age and has served almost 8½ years.

2. The president judge, the trial judge, the district attorney, the trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary and the State Supervisor of Paroles all recommend his release. We feel that his sentence can properly be commuted.

3. Applicant has a position awaiting him upon his release with Hon. Andrew J. Sardoni, Kingston, Pa. He will be on parole until June 11, 1945.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Tom Zima—No. 531

January Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the Allegheny County Workhouse sentence of Tom Zima, convicted of sedition in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Beaver County, on December 12, 1927, be commuted from five years to four years, one month, expiring on January 12, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. It is our opinion that the sentence of the trial court was too severe and that the applicant has been sufficiently punished because: (1) He has already served approximately two years, one month of his sentence of five years, (2) There was no evidence of any overt act, (3) This was the applicant's first offense, (4) Prior to his conviction the applicant had an excellent reputation for good citizenship, (5) No good will come from the further incarceration of the applicant.

2. The applicant has a wife and child who are in urgent need of his support and care.

3. The Superintendent of the Allegheny County Workhouse informs us that "the lesson taught has brought about a complete reformation."

4. The applicant has been assured employment by the Sanitary Company, Monacca, Penna.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Charles Russogulo—No. 642

January Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of Charles Russogulo, convicted of murder first degree, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County, on April 5, 1918, be commuted from imprisonment for life to a minimum of 13 years, 9 months, expiring on January 5, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Three other men and applicant shot and killed two men. The applicant alleged that these men were members of a blackhand gang who were attempting to blackmail him and others and threatened violence. At the time of the trial the applicant was unable to produce sufficient evidence to convince the jury of the truthfulness of his allegations and a conviction followed. However, the district attorney's office of Allegheny County now states that after-discovered evidence tends to verify the allegations of the applicant, and there is a reasonable doubt in our minds that the offense which the applicant committed was first degree murder. Accordingly we believe that the applicant has been sufficiently punished. He has served a period of 13 years, 9 months in the Western State Penitentiary.

2. The assistant district attorney who conducted the Commonwealth's case and the Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary recommend that the sentence be commuted.

3. Employment has been assured for the applicant by Domenick Pavia, general contractor, 331 Ludson street, Pittsburgh, Pa.

4. The applicant will be on parole for the remainder of his natural life.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

In re Application of Peter Muselin—No. 532

January Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the Allegheny County Workhouse sentence of Peter Muselin, convicted of sedition, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Beaver County, on December 12, 1927, be commuted from five years to four years, one month, expiring on January 12, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. It is our opinion that the sentence of the trial court was too severe and that the applicant has been sufficiently punished because: (1) He has already served approximately two years, one month of his sentence of 5 years, (2) There was no evidence of any overt act, (3) This was the applicant's first offense, (4) Prior to his conviction the applicant had an excellent reputation for good citizenship, (5) No good will come from the further incarceration of the applicant.

In re Application of S. Walter Matthews—No. 660

January Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of S. Walter Matthews, convicted of entering with intent to steal, larceny, assault and battery with intent to kill, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on January 29, 1926, be commuted from seven years to six years, expiring on January 29, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant has served approximately six years of his minimum sentence and it is our opinion that as this was his first offense, he has been sufficiently punished.

2. Mr. William R. Green, 5018 Locust Street, Philadelphia, Pa., who appeared on behalf of the applicant agrees to employ him. Applicant will be on parole until January 29, 1940.

In re Application of Newton A. Lingle—No. 633

January Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Newton A. Lingle, convicted of breaking and entering, larceny, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Centre County, on September 13, 1929, be commuted from five years to two years, four months, expiring on January 13, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. We believe that by reason of the applicant's having already served approximately two and one-half years of his minimum sentence he has been sufficiently punished for a crime which was his first offense.

2. The trustees of the Western State Penitentiary and the State Supervisor of Paroles recommend a commutation.

3. Employment has been assured to the applicant by R. W. Lingle, R. D. 1, Spring Mills, Pa. He will be on parole until September 13, 1934.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of William Jones—No. 533

January Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of William Jones, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Delaware County, on March 28, 1929, be commuted from ten years to two years, ten months, expiring on January 28, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant was a boy fifteen years old when he held up and robbed a theatre. He pleaded guilty and was given a sentence of from ten to twenty years in the Eastern State Penitentiary, and ordered to pay a fine of $1,000.00. It is our opinion that on account of his youth and because this was his first and only felony or misdemeanor committed by applicant that the sentence imposed by the trial court was too severe and since he has already served two years, ten months of his sentence, he has been sufficiently punished.

2. Dr. Leopold, a member of the Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary, and Dr. Bowman, the moral instructor, both recommend a commutation for the reason that a further incarceration will in all probability permanently break the spirit and morale of the applicant.

3. The trial judge, district attorney, trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary and the State Supervisor of Paroles recommend a commutation of the applicant's sentence.

4. Sylvan H. Hirsch, Esq., 1632 Bankers Trust Bldg., Philadelphia, Pa., a member of the Big Brother Association, Philadelphia, Pa., has agreed to sponsor applicant.

5. The applicant has been assured employment by the Hirsch Roofing Compound Company, 2218 Market Street, Philadelphia, Pa. He will be on parole until March 28, 1949.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Jack Gustaferra—No. 641

January Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of Jack Gustaferra, convicted of murder first degree, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County, on April 5, 1913, be commuted from imprisonment for life to a minimum of 13 years, 9 months, expiring on January 5, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Three other men and applicant shot and killed two men. The applicant alleged that these men were members of a black-hand gang who were attempting to blackmail him and others and threatened violence. At the time of the trial the applicant was unable to produce sufficient evidence to convince the jury of the truthfulness of his allegations and a conviction followed. BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Carl Radke—No. 699

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Carl Radke, convicted of operating automobile without consent of owner; larceny, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on April 8, 1931, be commuted from eighteen months to ten months, expiring on February 8, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Through an error of the Clerk of the Court of Quarter Sessions, the applicant received a sentence of from 18 months to 3 years in the Eastern State Penitentiary, instead of the correct sentence of six months in the Workhouse; and as he has already served over ten months of the incorrect sentence it is our opinion that he has been sufficiently punished.

2. The trial judge, the trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary and the State Supervisor of Paroles recommend clemency, because the applicant has active tuberculosis. The district attorney recommends clemency because of the error made by the Clerk of the Court.

3. The applicant will be on parole until April 8, 1934.

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

In re Application of John McClain—No. 689

February Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of John McClain, convicted of rape, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Chester County, on November 10, 1930, be commuted from five years to one year, three months, expiring on February 10, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant was not represented by counsel and wrongly pleaded guilty to the charge of rape. Both judges of the Chester County Court concur in this statement, "At the time this young man pleaded and we imposed sentence upon him, the correct facts were not made known to us. Had they been, of course his plea would not have been accepted." They recommend clemency.

2. The applicant has served one year and three months of his sentence. He will be on parole until November 10, 1940.

In re Application of Leo Lawler—No. 579

February Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Leo Lawler, convicted of robbery, carrying concealed deadly weapons, entering to rob, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on November 15, 1927, be commuted from forty years to four years, three months, expiring on February 15, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Since the November session at which the applicant's sentence was commuted to five years, we have received a letter from the trial judge, the Honorable Howard A. Davis, to the effect, "I think the ends of justice would be well served if the commutation could take effect at once." He further states that the applicant's father died recently, the widowed mother now has two children to support, the applicant will be able to secure employment, and "I am sincerely impressed with the rehabilitation of this young man, etc." We are willing to comply with the suggestion of the trial judge.

2. The applicant will be on parole until November 15, 1967.

In re Application of Joseph Kelly—No. 746

February Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the death sentence of Joseph Kelly, convicted of murder first degree, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County, on November 19, 1931, be commuted from death to imprisonment for life.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. Applicant pleaded guilty to the charge of murder. Subsequent to the plea the judge determined that the crime was murder of the fire degree and sentenced applicant to death. There is grave doubt in our minds that the crime to which the applicant pleaded guilty was first degree murder. Our reasons follow:

(a) The applicant received a severe blow on the head some years previous to the commission of the crime. Subsequent to the blow he was generally regarded by those who knew him, as partially insane.

(b) He was under the influence of intoxicating liquor at the time of the commission of the act.

(c) There was no evidence of an intent to commit a homicide or any other felony.

2. The district attorney of Philadelphia County sent his representative to the public hearing before the Board and stated that in his opinion the applicant ought not to be electrocuted.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,

In re Application of Paul Harry—No. 697

February Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Paul Harry, convicted of attempted rape, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on September 24, 1929, be commuted from four years to two years, five months, expiring on February 24, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant, 76 years of age, was convicted of the charge of attempted rape. At his first trial he received a sentence of from 2 to 4 years. At the second trial before the same judge, although the applicant could scarcely speak English, the court refused the request for an interpreter, and imposed a sentence of from 4 to 8 years. As the applicant has already served over 2 years and 4 months it is our opinion that he has been sufficiently punished.

2. The trial judge, the district attorney, the trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary and the State Supervisor of Paroles recommend clemency.

3. It has been agreed that the applicant will remove to California where relatives will look after his welfare, and it is upon this condition that we make our recommendation. He will be on parole until September 24, 1937.

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,

In re Application of Percy Fletcher—No. 635

February Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Percy Fletcher, convicted of murder second degree, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County, on February 2, 1926, be commuted from seven years to six years, expiring on February 2, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant, a World War veteran, honorably discharged, and another person were involved in an affair which resulted in a fatal cutting of a third party. Separate trials were had and the applicant, with no criminal record and a good reputation, was convicted of second degree murder. The second party involved in the cutting had a bad reputation and a criminal record, and although the principal aggressor, was convicted of voluntary manslaughter. The applicant has now served over six years in the Eastern State Penitentiary, which is a longer period of time than the principal aggressor served.

2. The trustees of the Western State Penitentiary, as well as the State Supervisor of Paroles recommend clemency.

3. The applicant will have employment upon his release with Charles Madie & Sons, Coraopolis, Pa. He will be on parole until February 2, 1940.

In re Application of Sam Einsig—No. 667

February Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Sam Einsig, convicted of pandering, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Schuylkill County, on June 24, 1926, be commuted from eight years to five years, eight months, expiring on February 24, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. We believe that the applicant has been sufficiently punished for the crime of pandering as there is some doubt in our minds as to his guilt.

2. During his incarceration, the applicant has learned the baking trade and he has been assured employment by G. Cerbone, 617 Morris Avenue, New York City, and by the Manhattan Bed Company, Inc., 1053 Metropolitan Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y. The condition upon which we make our recommendation is that he removes to and remains in New York.

3. The applicant has served 5 years and 8 months in the Eastern State Penitentiary. He will be on parole until June 24, 1942.

In re Application of Rinaldo Cappellini—No. 687

February Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Rinaldo Cappellini, convicted of arson, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Luzerne County, on February 2, 1931, be commuted from two years to one year expiring on February 2, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant was not represented by counsel and pleaded guilty to the charge of arson on a promise from the district attorney to nol pros the same charge againt applicant's wife. The evidence to be used in the trial was the same and both the applicant and his wife had the same alibi. The district attorney admits that the facts which the Commonwealth would have presented at the trial would not have caused a conviction. Therefore, we believe that the applicant has been sufficiently punished, as he has served over one year in the Eastern State Penitentiary.

2. The trial judge, the district attorney and a United States Probation Officer, Mr. H. J. Mowles, recommend clemency.

3. The applicant will be on parole until February 2, 1935.

In re Application of Charles H. Burdic—No. 537

February Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Charles H. Burdic, convicted of attempted rape, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of McKean County, on October 8, 1930, be commuted from two years to one year, four months, expiring on February 8, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. A letter from the trial judge, the Honorable J. W. Bouton, states that there is some doubt as to the truth of the story told by the witnesses for the Commonwealth and the applicant "has a wife, who by the way is a cripple and the family are in destitute circumstances."

2. Mr. Charles Griswold of Eldred, R. D. No. 2, Pa., has agreed to employ the applicant at a salary of $15.00 per month with board for his entire family.

3. The applicant has served over one year and four months of his sentence. He will be on parole until October 8, 1934.

In re Application of Harry Smith—No. 316

March Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Harry Smith, convicted of breaking and entering, larceny, receiving stolen goods, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Beaver County, on July 12, 1930 be commuted from five years to one year, eight months expiring on March 12, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant and another were convicted for the same crimes. The property stolen consisted of a few packages of cigarettes. The commission of the crimes was a result of improper associates and drinking. The accomplice was paroled by the trial court. We believe the applicant has been sufficiently punished. he has served twenty-one months of his sentence.

2. The district attorney who presented the Commonwealth's case, the trustees of the Western State Penitentiary, and the State Supervisor of Paroles recommend a commutation.

3. The applicant will be on parole until July 12, 1940. Employment has been assured by Mr. Copping, Reynoldsville, Penna.

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Earle Kingdon Klock—No. 714

March Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Earle Kingdon Klock, convicted of robbery, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelpha County, on August 11, 1925 be commuted from ten years to six years, seven months expiring on March 11, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant an eighteen year old sailor in the United States Navy and three others held up and robbed a storekeeper. The offense was committed while on a drunken spree. The applicant was a participant in the only one crime. The accomplices committed a number of other hold ups. They all received a ten to twenty year sentence. Two of the participants have been released on parole. We believe the applicant has been sufficiently punished as he has no criminal record. He has served six years and seven months of his sentence.

2. The trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary and the State Supervisor of Paroles recommend a commutation. The district Attorney of Philadelphia County sent his representative to the public hearing before the Board and stated that this was a meritorious application.

3. The applicant will be on parole until August 11, 1945. Employment has been assured by the Solvay Process Company, Solvay, New York.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Paul Berger—No. 728

March Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the mimimum sentence of Paul Berger, convicted of rape, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Northampton County, on September 19, 1929 be commuted from four years to two years, six months expiring on March 19, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant and two others were involved in a rape case. The two accomplices have been paroled. We have considerable doubt whether the applicant was really guilty of the crime charged; and it now appears that the prosecutrix was a girl of doubtful reputation. We believe that the applicant has been sufficiently punished. He has served two years six months of his sentence.

2. The assistant trial district attorney, the trial district attorney and the State Supervisor of Paroles recommend a commutation of sentence.

3. Employment has been assured for the applicant by Mr. S. H. Kelly, Superintendent of School Buildings, Bethlehem, Penna. He will be on parole until September 19, 1937.

Respectively submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,

The above recommendation is approved:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Lee Zechman—No. 780

April Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Lee Zachman, convicted of statutory rape, larceny, and accessory before and after the fact, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Snyder County, on February 24, 25, 1930 be commuted from five years to two years, two months expiring on April 25, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant pleaded guilty to a charge of rape and to larceny of a few baskets of peaches. He was sentenced to from 5 to 11 years. We believe that he has been sufficiently punished. Our reasons follow:

(a) After discovered evidence has shown that the prossecutrix in the rape case was a girl of easy virtue.

(b) The value of the goods stolen was only a few dollars.

(c) Applicant has served over two years of his sentence and will be on parole until February 1941.

2. The trial judge and district attorney recommend commutation.

Respectively submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of James Priest—No. 779

April Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of James Priest, convicted of murder first degree, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on April 28, 1931 be commuted from life to eleven years expiring on April 28, 1932 with leave to apply for a pardon, after April 28, 1934.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant was convicted of murder in the first degree and was sentenced to death. Ths sentence was commuted to life imprisonment. We believe that sentence should be further commuted for the following reasons:

(a) There is grave doubt in our minds that the crime committed was murder of the first degree as after discovered evidence tends to prove that the shot which killed the applicant's wife was fired in self defense.

(b) The District Attorney of Philadelphia sent his representative to the public hearing before the Board, to say that in his opinion the applicant has been sufficiently punished as he is not of the criminal class and that he doubts whether this was a first degree case. He also stated that the trial judge, now deceased, was of the same opinion.

(c) The applicant has been incarcerated in the Eastern State Penitentiary for eleven years, which is more than the minimum sentence for second degree murder.

2. The family of the murdered woman have always maintained that the applicant was not guilty. They retained counsel to apply for a commutation of sentence. Employment is guaranteed.

Respectively submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

W. A. SCHNADER,

April Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant was convicted of arson on the testimony of a jealous woman who admitted to having committed the act. There is grave doubt in our minds as to his guilt. We believe he has been sufficently punished. He has served over a year of his sentence.

2. The trial judge and the Supervisor of Paroles recommend a commutation.

3. The applicant's wife and children are entirely dependent upon him and are in destitute circumstances.

4. Employment has been assured by E. L. Ousler, Baltimore, Md. Our recommendation is that commutation be conditioned upon the applicant's return to Maryland.

In re Application of Joseph M. Haley—No. 782

April Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Joseph M. Haley, convicted of larceny by clerk, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on January 31, 1919 be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. In August of 1918, the applicant, a boy 19 years of age, was an attendant at a gasoline station. For a period of three weeks he charged some purchasers for more gasoline than they actually received. The excess money he retained. Full restitution was made and the trial court, after a plea of guilty, suspended sentence. There is no criminal record against the petitioner previous to or subsequent to the commission of this offense.

2. The trial judge and the Supervisor of Paroles recommend a pardon.

3. The granting of a pardon will enable the applicant now unemployed, to secure a civil service appointment. His wife and three children are dependent upon him for support.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant when only 19 years of age, was convicted of robbery. One accomplice was killed while fleeing from the officers and another acquitted. We believe the applicant has been suficiently punished. He has served almost eight and one half years of his sentence and will be on parole until January 1944.

May Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Albert Young, convicted of assault and battery, aggr. assault and battery, attempt rape, rape, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on February 20, 1929 be commuted from seven and one half years to three years, three months expiring on May 20, 1932.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The crimes for which the applicant was convicted were alleged to have been committd on a girl who from her record in the Morals Court appears to be incorrigible. The applicant pleaded not guilty, had no counsel to defend him, and was tried and convicted in about seven minutes. We believe that there is considerable doubt as to his guilt.

2. The applicant is 38 years of age, served his country honorably during the World War and has been employed continuously since then. This was his first conviction. Employment has been assured if he is released.

3. The trustees of the Penitentiary and the Supervisor of Paroles recommend a commutation. The district attorney of Philadelphia, through his representative stated at the open hearing that he did not oppose a commutation.

2. Employment has been assured by Mr. William Hoener, Detroit, Mich.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. The applicant was convicted of rape. An indictment and conviction was secured through the efforts of a private prosecutrix. She was known to have borne ill will and malice against the applicant. The district attorney who prosecuted the Commonwealth's case informed us, "at the time that I prosecuted I had the greatest doubt concerning his guilt." He also stated that from facts learned since the trial he is convinced of the applicant's innocence. In addition the Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary, and the Supervisor of Paroles recommend commutation.

2. The applicant was only twenty years old at the time of the commission of the alleged crime. His reputation up to the time of his arrest was of the finest. He was and is the sole wage earner in a family of five. Employment has been assured

In re Application of Peter Jackowsky—No. 820

May Session, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Peter Jackowsky, convicted of statutory rape, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County, on March 31, 1931 be commuted from four years to one year, two months expiring on May 31, 1932.

1. The applicant was convicted of rape. After discovered evidence proves that the girl was a notorious prostitute. The report of the officials of the penitentiary states that this was "a rape case only in the technical sense." Accordingly, we believe the aplicant has been sufficently punished. He has served over one year of his sentence.

2. This was the applicant's first offense. His reputation was very good as was his employment record.

In re Application of Alfred Hoffman—No. 817

May Sessions, 1932.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of Alfred Hoffman, convicted of conspiracy, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Monroe County, on July 23, 1931 be commuted from two years to four months expiring on June 4, 1932, and that his fine be reduced from $1525.00 and costs of prosecution to $200.00, and costs of prosecution.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

1. In January 1931, labor troubles arose at Stroudsburg, Pa. The American Federation of Full Fashioned Hosiery Workers, upon reguest of the employees there, sent the applicant to assist in organization. A strike ensued, during the course of which many acts of violence were committed. The applicant was arrested and convicted on three counts of conspiracy. No other persons were ever convicted on any other charges, although many, all residents of Monroe County, were identified as having committed overt acts of violence. Accordingly we believe the applicant has been sufficiently punished.

2. The applicant has signified his willingness to subject himself to parole under the supervision of this Board. A copy of the agreement signed by him and duly witnessed is attached to this recommendation, and made a part thereof.

3. Employment has been assured.

Annual Report of the Delaware River Joint Commission of Pennsylvania and New Jersey

To the Honorables, the Legislatures of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and of the State of New Jersey and the Council of the City of Philadelphia.

In a year marked by unsettled business conditions and an almost universal desire on the part of the public to avoid unnecessary expenditures the toll-supported Delaware River Bridge connecting Philadelphia and Camden attracted more vehicles and returned to Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Philadelphia the largest net revenues in its history. To be able to report this record for 1931 of a publicly owned enterprise is a source of gratification to the Delaware River Joint Commission.

The financial history of the bridge may be summarized as follows:

Year	Gross Receipts	Expenses	Net Return
1931	$3,479,837.93	$430,856.72	$3,048,981.21
1930	3,517,730.64	500,597.53	3,017,133.11
1929	3,331,754.46	398,496.20	2,933,258.26
1928	2,827,786.83	378,590.01	2,449,196.82
1927	2,435,784.40	346,678.59	2,093,921.89
1926 (half year)	1,110,108.38	158,109.47	946,682.83

New Jersey received in 1931 $1,524,490.61; Pennsylvania $762,245.30 and Philadelphia $762,245.30. Since the bridge opened on July 1, 1926 gross receipts have amounted to $16,702,502.64 and after deducting all expenses of maintenance and operation New Jersey has been paid $7,244,587.08; Pennsylvania $3,622,293.52 and Philadelphia $3,622,293.53, a total of $14,489,184.12.

The total of 12,308,225 vehicles in 1931 reflected a slight gain over the figure of 12,285,359 in 1930. The bus division showed a decided curtailment. Unemployment and the slowing up of retail business resulted in a diminished patronage upon the buses and the companies accordingly reduced the number of trips between Camden and Philadelphia. In 1931, 1,278,879 buses passed over the bridge compared with 1,484,443 in 1930. The 1931 mark was the lowest since 1927. However a large gain was registered in the pleasure car and light truck division, the increase being from 10,578,206 in 1930 to 10,770,393 in 1931. The heavy truck class also showed satisfactory growth, due in large part to the number of oil and gasoline tank wagons crossing the bridge. In 1931, 225,977 heavy trucks were counted compared with 189,704 in 1930. The increase in heavy trucks has been constant from year to year, 1931 showing a doubling of the 1927 figures. This is particularly noteworthy because the rates of toll upon the ferries for heavy trucks are considerably lower than on the bridge. The saving of time by the use of the span more than makes up for the added toll in the estimation of the truck fleet operators.

In 1931 the daily average receipts were $9,533.80 and the daily average vehicles 33,721. The average Sunday and holiday traffic was 44,226; a slight falling off from the figure of 44,768 in 1930. Horses were rarely seen upon the bridge in 1931, the total being only 54. Back in 1927 the bridge was crossed by 2407 horses and in 1930 by 179. Practically all the horse drawn vehicles now use the ferries.

Although the total traffic in 1931 showed an increase the gross receipts were less than in 1930. This was due of course to the curtailment of the buses which are charged a toll of 50 or 75 cents and the monetary loss was not completely made up by the increased number of pleasure cars and light trucks at 25 cents each. However, the net revenues were greater due to the reduction in expenses of $500,597.53 in 1930 to $430,856.72 in 1931.

This decrease may be attributed largely to the building of the building of the pedestrian underpass and other improvements in the Camden Plaza in 1930. There was no reduction and little change in the operating and maintenance forces of the bridge in 1931, and on the first day of 1931, 137 persons were on the bridge staff and on the last day of the year 141.

Numerous minor repairs and adjustments were made to the bridge in 1931 by the maintenance force. Much of the work consisted in the resetting of expansion block castings which had worked loose under the pounding of heavy traffic. A great deal of spot painting was done wherever rust developed. At the close of the year the bridge was found to be in excellent condition. The structure was under daily inspection and whenever repairs were necessary these were made without delay.

The bridge police made 174 arrests in 1931 and extinguished eighteen fires in motor vehicles. Disabled cars towed from the bridge by our appartus numbered 592. Four persons committed suicide and three attempts at suicide were prevented. Five persons were killed in an accident on May 26, 1931 when the cars in which they were riding collided. These were the only fatalities upon the bridge during the year.

New Commission Created

In the Spring of 1931 legislation was introduced in Pennsylvania and New Jersey creating a new commission and transferring to it the powers and responsibilities greatly amplified of the existing Delaware River Bridge Joint Commission. The measures which were approved by the Honorable Gifford Pinchot, Governor of Pennsylvania on June 12, 1931 and by the Honorable Morgan F. Larson, Governor of New Jersey on June 30, 1931, were identic in both states and provided for the taking over of the Delaware River Bridge by a body corporate and politic to be known as the Delaware River Joint Commission. The legislation set forth that this would constitute the public corporate instrumentality of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey for the following public purposes:

(a) The operation and maintenance of the bridge owned jointly by the two States and the City of Philadelphia, as its interests may appear, across the Delaware River between the City of Philadelphia in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the City of Camden in the State of New Jersey, including its approaches, and the making of additions and improvements thereto;

(b) The effectuation, establishment, construction, operation and maintenance of railroad or other facilities for the transportation of passengers across the said bridge, including extensions thereof to the vicinity of Race Street and Eighth Street in the City of Philadelphia and to the vicinity of Carman Street and Haddon Avenue in the City of Camden.

(c) The investigation of the necessity for additional means of communication between the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in the vicinity of Philadelphia and the State of New Jersey opposite thereto, and between the ports of Philadelphia and Camden and the sea, and making of such studies, surveys and estimates as may be necessary to determine the feasibility and cost of any such additional means of communication, whether the same be by bridge tunnel, canal, or otherwise; and

(d) Cooperation with all other bodies interested or concerned with or affected by the promotion, development or use of the Delaware River;

(e) The procurement from the Government of the United States of any consents which may be requisite to enable any project within its powers to be carried forward;

(f) The promotion of the Delaware River as a highway of commerce between Philadelphia and Camden and the sea;

(g) The promotion of increased commerce on the Delaware River, both freight and passenger, and, for this purpose, the publication of such literature and the adoption of such means as may be deemed appropriate;

(h) To study and make recommendations to the proper authorities for the improvement of terminal, lighterage, wharfage, warehouse and other facilities necessary for the promotion of commerce on the Delaware River;

(i) Institution, through the Attorneys General of Pennsylvania and New Jersey, of or intervention in any litigation invloving rates, preferences, rebates, or other matters vital to the interests of the ports of the Delaware River;

(j) Any other functions which may be of mutual benefit to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey, insofar as concerns the promotion and development of the ports of Philadelphia and of Camden and the use by commercial vessels of their facilities.

Wide Scope Given

To carry out the purposes enumerated above the Commission was granted the following powers:

(a) To have perpetual succession;

(b) To sue and be sued;

(c) To adopt and use an official seal;

(d) To elect a chairman, vice-chairman, secretary and treasurer, and to adopt suitable by-laws for the management of its affairs. The secretary and treasurer need not be members of the commission.

(e) To appoint such other officers, and such agents and employes as it may require for the performance of its duties, and fix and determine their qualifications, duties and compensation.

(f) To enter into contracts;

(g) To acquire, own, hire, use, operate and dispose of personal property;

The membership of the new Commission remained the same as the existing Delaware River Bridge Joint Commission under whose direction the bridge was built and operated. The new Commission organized on July 1, 1931, and in accordance with the act the members of the Commission from New Jersey on behalf of the State of New Jersey and Governor Pinchot on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania signed a formal agreement between the two states creating the new Delaware River Joint Commission.

The agreement is reproduced in full in the appendix to this report.

Under the terms of the legislation the control, operation, tolls and all other revenues of the Delaware River Bridge became vested in the Commission on July 1, 1931. The agreement provided that the Commission must repay to Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Philadelphia the amount of their investments in the bridge as of July 1, 1931, together with interest and that this repayment should be made on or before June 30, 1932 "or as soon thereafter as practicable." The funds to repay the States and the City were to be derived by the Commission through the sale of bonds by the revenues of the bridge.

A balance was struck between the fiscal officers of the States and the City and of the Joint Commission showing that the debt of the new Commission upon the day it took over the revenues of the bridge amounted to $33,187,310.54. Of this New Jersey was owed $13,491,366.59; Pennsylvania $9,701,598.59 and Philadelphia $9,994,345.36.

New Jersey originally contributed $15,900,235.33 to the construction of the bridge. Interest paid by New Jersey upon the bonds issued for this sum amounted to $4,574,124.63. The Delaware River Bridge Joint Commission had returned to the State of New Jersey from the revenues derived from five years operation of the bridge the sum of $6,438,313.86 which was credited with interest earned of $544,679.52. The net amount therefore owing to New Jersey was arrived at in accordance with the law by adding the principal and interest and subtracting the amount heretofore repaid plus interest upon the repayment at 4¼ per cent.

Pennsylvania contributed $10,563,000.00 out of current appropriations and issued no bonds to procure funds for the bridge project. Interest was allowed in accordance with the law at the rate of 4 per cent upon this investment amounting to $2,615,452.88 and from the total thus reached were deducted repayments amounting to $3,219,156.91 with interest at 4 per cent of $257,697.38.

The City of Philadelphia had contributed $10,601,765.10. Interest paid upon the bonds amounted to $2,887,452.70. From this amount was deducted repayments of $3,219,156.91 with interest at 4½ per cent or $27,715.53.

To expedite progress Governor Pinchot as Chairman of the Joint Commission on August 6, 1931, appointed the following committees:

The Finance Committee formally organized on August 12, 1931. Several meetings were held by this committee and conferences arranged with representatives of the largest investment banking houses in the country. The Committee found that a bond issue aggregating approximately $44,000,000 would be required to make repayment to the States and the City and to meet the cost of extending the high speed rail transit line from Eighth and Race Streets, Philadelphia to Haddon Avenue and Carman Street, Camden, by way of the Delaware River Bridge. The estimated cost of this transit project was $10,000,000. Inasmuch as at the time no proposal had been received from the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company for the operation of the proposed line the Committee considered first a bond issue of $34,000,000 from which the necessary repayment could be made. This subject was gone into in great detail and all plans made for advertising for bids upon the issue in accordance with the decision of the Commission to sell the bonds publicly.

Before these plans could be carried into effect the bond markets of the world were demoralized. The Finance Committee met with the banking advisers who declared that it would be impossible to sell the bonds in view of the fact that municipal bond prices generally had fallen without warning from the highest level in twenty years to approximately the lowest in ten years. The confidence of investors was so severely shaken that the bankers emphatically protested against any attempt to market the bonds and announced that their respective syndicates would not bid. The Committee after a survey of conditions found that the truth of the advice was borne out by the failure of the great cities of the country to sell bonds bearing rates of interest much higher than the 4¼ per cent proposed for the bridge revenue bonds. On October 2nd the Finance Committee recommended to the Joint Commission that the bond sale be deferred until market conditions improved. There was no betterment in the financial outlook up to the end of the year. The Commission is unanimous in its desire to sell the bonds at the earliest moment but it does not believe that an immensely valuable public asset like the Delaware River Bridge should be mortgaged for thirty years at a ruinously excessive rate of interest.

Revenues Ample for Bonds

Without exception the bankers agreed that under ordinary conditions the bridge obligations would be most attractive. The fact that the net revenues of the bridge had been maintained and were even greater than during the boom years of 1928 and 1929 stood out strikingly as indicating the safety and stability of the bridge investment. The attractiveness of the issue was enhanced by the consistency of bridge traffic and revenues even in a depression year. The Committee feels that careful investors will scrutinize this return with appreciation when the time becomes ripe to sell the bonds.

A chart covering past and prospective finances of the Commission is reproduced in this report showing that a bond issue of $44,000,000 at 4¼ per cent might reasonably be expected to be amortized in twenty years. The Finance Committee has recommended the term of the bonds to be thirty years.

The recommendation of the Finance Committee in regard to deferring the bond sale was approved by the Joint Commission October 17, 1931, and the Commission decided upon a policy of making returns in the form of partial payments to Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Philadelphia from cash on hand derived from toll collections. In October, 1931, the Commission accordingly repaid $500,000 with an additional sum of $5,234.38 representing interest upon the $500,000 from July 1, 1931, to September 30, 1931. On December 31, 1931, the Commission made a further payment upon its principal indebtedness of $1,083,382.22 with interest of $23,928.85 upon this amount for the six months from July 1, 1931, to December 31, 1931. This brought the total repayment for the six months period during which the new Delaware River Joint Commission was in control of the bridge to $1,612,546.45, representing the entire half year net earnings.

By this computation the debt of the Joint Commission as of July 1, 1931, was reduced to $31,603,927.32. To this should be added interest upon this indebtedness aggregating $659,951.53. The total indebtedness of the Joint Commission after making partial repayment on December 31, 1931, amounted to $32,263,878.85. Of this amount New Jersey was owed $12,969,699.88; Pennsylvania $9,491,647.18 and Philadelphia $9,802,531.79.

On December 8, 1931, a resolution prepared by the Joint Commission calling for Congressional approval of the agreement between Pennsylvania and New Jersey was introduced in Congress by the Honorable Charles A. Wolverton of New Jersey. The resolution was sponsored in the United States Senate by the Honorable David A. Reed of Pennsylvania.

Committee Considers Rail Transit

Stress had been laid by the Legislatures of both States in conferring upon the Commission the power to finance the building of the much needed high speed transit connection between Philadelphia and Camden. The legislative provisions on this subject were the result of a series of meetings of a committee composed of representatives of the Cities of Philadelphia and Camden, Delaware River Bridge Joint Commission, South Jersey Transit Commission, Pennsylvania Railroad, Reading Railroad, Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company and Public Service Coordinated Transport. After giving much time and thought to the consideration of using the spaces set aside on the Delaware River Bridge for rail purposes this committee recommended that the Eighth Street-Locust Street subway be extended from Eighth and Race Streets in Philadelphia to Haddon Avenue and Carman Street in Camden. The Legislatures approved this program.

The Transportation Committee of the Joint Commission met and organized August 21, 1931, and a number of meetings were subsequently held. Inquiry was made of the Pennsylvania Railroad and of the Reading Railroad if any change had occurred in their previously announced joint verdict against the use of the Delaware River Bridge for railroad purposes. The Committee was advised by both companies that there had been no change in the situation. The Committee conferred with representatives of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company and the Public Service Coordinated Transport on August 28, 1931. Senator E. W. Wakelee, Vice-President in Charge of Law, representing the Public Service Coordinated Transport said that his company could not be considered as a possible operator of the high speed bridge line. This left the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company as the only possible agency. Mr. R. T. Senter, President of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company advised the Committee that it would be necessary to make an accurate survey of the present inter-state means of communication before his company would be in a position to make any proposal to operate the line. Following out his suggestion a sub-committee was appointed consisting of C. C. Schaefer, Traffic Engineer, Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company, Martin Schreiber, General Manager in Charge of Plant, Public Service Coordinated Transport, and Joseph K. Costello, General Manager, Delaware River Joint Commission, to make the survey. A count was taken of all persons passing from Camden to Philadelphia during twenty-four hours of Thursday, September 10, 1931. The sub-committee on September 30, 1931, made a report including the following summary:

1. The present means of transportation between Philadelphia and Camden is not satisfactory to the travelling public.

2. The proposed extension of the Eighth Street-Locust Street subway transit line from Eighth and Race Streets, Philadelphia, across the Delaware River Bridge to a terminus at the Broadway Station of the Pennsylvania Railroad would be attractive to the public as offering convenience and certainty of operation.

3. High speed trains similar to those used in the Broad Street subway can be operated between the proposed station at the Camden City Hall and the shopping center at Eighth and Market Streets in Philadelphia in seven minutes.

4. The new line can reasonably be expected to have a a patronage of 65,000 passengers a day within a year after operation. This will give a yearly patronage upwards of 22,700,000.

5. If the decision is made to go ahead with the construction of the new line, this improvement can be built, equipped and ready for operation by the Fall of 1933 when the Locust Street subway will be completed as far west as 18th Street.

6. The new line will have the advantage of connection with a subway completed as far as 18th Street. The popularity of the line can be expected to increase when the Locust Street subway is constructed as far as West Philadelphia.

7. In order to transport the patronage expected and to maintain a headway that will interest the public it is estimated that 40 cars must be supplied for initial operation. These cars cost approximately $40,000 apiece.

8. The success of the new line will depend to a pronounced degree upon the facilities for the exchange of passengers between the buses and the high speed trains. In view of the announcement last year that the City of Camden had acquired the site and prepared plans for an adequate bus terminal to the west of the new City Hall we have prepared our estimate of traffic upon direct and easy transfer from the buses to the trains.

The facts collected in the traffic survey appear in diagram form in this report.

Formal Proposal Received

On December 16, 1931, the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company offered the following proposal:

Dear Sirs:

Since the submission to your Commission on September 30, 1931, of the report of your Sub-Committee estimating the expectable volume of high-speed bridge traffic, we have given the matter further detailed study in an effort to arrive at a definite basis or bases upon which we can offer to undertake the operation. In addition to the proposed connection of the bridge tracks with the 8th-Locust Subway, we have also studied a plan for connecting the bridge tracks with the Market Street Subway, as advocated and requested by the Mayor of Camden and other local interests.

As a result, we are writing you this letter submitting on behalf of Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company for your consideration two definite proposals which are based on the two plans mentioned and are submitted in the alternative:

I. The 8th-Locust Street Proposal

This proposal would contemplate the construction by your Commission of a high speed line complete for operation from Haddon Avenue and Carman Street, Camden, across the bridge and under Franklin Square to a connection at 8th and Race Streets with the 8th-Locust Subway.

The cost of the tracks and facilities (exclusive of cars) has been estimated at $7,300,000. There would also be needed forty-four new cars which would cost an additional $1,800,000. The total estimated capital cost to your Commission would thus be $9,100,000.

Your Sub-Committee has estimated that these facilities, if operated in connection with the 8th-Locust Subway and the P. R. T. System in the manner hereinafter described, would attract in the first full year of operation, 22,700,000 passengers. This estimate of traffic and our proposal are based upon the essential assumption that local bridge traffic by bus will be discontinued. Local bus service means bus service between Philadelphia via the bridge and points within a radius of thirty miles of Camden. Conversely, it has been assumed that through bus service, viz., to and from points more than thirty miles from Camden, will be continued over the bridge at least for the present.

The service which we would plan to give under this proposal would involve direct operation of high speed trains from the Camden terminal via the 8th-Locust Subway to 18th and Locust Streets, or to any western terminus of the Locust Street Subway as later extended. This direct ride would be at a single fare. Fare regulations based upon present fares in Philadelphia would be as follows:

1. Base Fare:

A total through fare of 10c divided 2½c to the Joint Commission and 7½c to P. R. T.

2. Free Transfers:

(a) North and south on the Broad Street Subway to all stations.

(b) Between Broad Street Subway (both north and south) and all intersecting surface lines outside the central delivery district.

(c) Whenever the 8th-Locust Subway is extended into West Philadelphia, free transfers with intersecting surface lines west of the Schuylkill River.

3. Exchange Privileges:

(a) 6c exchange privilege to all intersecting bus lines outside the delivery district.

(b) 3c exchange privilege from all intersecting bus lines outside the delivery district.

Based upon your sub-Committee's estimate of total expectable traffic, our own studies indicate that this proposal would result in the following revenue to your Commission:

2½c per bridge line passenger	$567,500
Plus revenue from remaining through bus service	250,800

Or a total revenue to your Commission of.... $818,300 which exceeds by $130,900 your total 1931 bus revenue of $687,400. Conversely, we estimate that the result of this proposal to P. R. T. would be an annual margin above actual cost of approximately $120,000 which, while small, we consider a sufficient margin of safety against actual loss.

The foregoing proposal is of course, dependent upon the completion of the 8th-Locust Subway and its operation by P. R. T.

II. The Market Street Proposal

In addition to our study of the 8th-Locust Proposal, we have also as stated, studied the plan for connecting the bridge tracks with the present Market-Frankford Subway-Elevated, as advocated by the Mayor of Camden and other local interests. This plan would afford direct delivery along Market Street, as is now being given by the bridge bus service. We believe that, from a physical and engineering viewpoint, it is just as feasible as the 8th-Locust plan and could be accomplished by constructing a subway from the bridge plaza south under 6th Street to a connection with the subway under Market Street at 6th and Market.

The total cost of this construction we estimate at approximately $8,300,000 instead of $7,300,000 for the 8th-Locust plan. However, the Market Street plan would not require presently, or for some years to come, any additional cars and there would thus be a present saving in this regard of $1,800,000, or a net present saving as compared with the 8th-Locust plan of approximately $800,000 in capital cost.

Under this plan we would give direct through high speed operation from the proposed Camden terminus via the bridge, 6th Street and the Market Street line to the 69th Street terminal.

Fare regulations based upon present fares in Philadelphia would be as follows:

1. Base Fare:

A total through fare of 10c, divided 3c to the Joint Commission and 7c to P. R. T.

2. Free Transfers:

(a) North to all stations on the Frankford Elevated.

(b) To and from all surface lines intersecting Market and/or Frankford lines outside the delivery district.

3. Exchange Privileges:

(a) 6c exchange privilege to all intersecting bus lines outside the delivery district.

(b) 3c exchange privilege from all intersecting bus lines outside the delivery district.

The total fare basis suggested under this proposal is the same as under the 8th-Locust proposal discussed above, viz., total fare of 10c for all regular rides. However, we estimate that the total passengers carried under this Market Street proposal will be in the first full year of operation, approximately 24,400,000, which is slightly in excess of the Sub-Committee's estimate for the 8th-Locust proposal. Furthermore, our extra operating expenses would be less. In view of these two factors, we would be willing to undertake the operation of the Market Street proposal at a total fare of 10c for all regular riders to be divided 3c to the Joint Commission and 7c to P. R. T. This would mean, based upon the estimated traffic, a direct revenue to the Joint Commission of $732,000. There would be, we believe, a greater diversion from buses and we therefore estimate the remaining bridge revenue from buses at $198,100 as compared with $250,800 under the 8th-Locust plan. The $732,000 direct revenue from the bridge line plus the $198,100 remaining revenue from bridge buses would yield the Joint Commission a total revenue of $930,100 which exceeds by $242,700 the $687,400 of tolls from buses for the year 1931. The revenue to P. R. T. above actual cost is estimated at $271,300 which is a more adequate margin of safety against actual loss.

This proposal would be better financially for both the Commission and P. R. T. As to the latter, however, it must be borne in mind that the Market Street Subway is already carrying a heavy traffic and the accommodation of additional traffic from the bridge may well require in future years substantial expenditures by P. R. T.

Either of the above proposals would be acceptable to our Company. We are ready to discuss them in further detail at the convenience of your Commission.

Very truly yours,

R. T. SENTER
President.

Public Interest Shown

The Transportation Committee met December 28th to consider the above proposal. Details of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company's letter had appeared in the newspapers and been the subject of considerable public discussion. At the meeting of the Transportation Committee a resolution adopted by members of the Camden County Mayors' Association, Camden County Bankers Association and other groups on December 27th strongly opposed any connection with the Market Street subway on the ground that it was not equipped with standard gauge rails and therefore there could be no extension of the line beyond Haddon Avenue and Carman Street over the tracks of the existing railroads in South Jersey. The resolution strongly favored connection with the Eighth Street-Locust Street subway in which the rails are of standard railroad gauge.

Another protest was received from the Northeast Chamber of Commerce of Philadelphia against any connection with the Market Street subway and urging that the Eighth Street-Locust Street subway be used. Mr. James V. Moran, Chairman of the South Jersey Transit Commission, told the Committee that he was not disposed to approve any suggestion that would interfere with the original program. The Committee decided to withhold any recommendation until the Mayor-elect of Philadelphia, the Honorable J. Hampton Moore took office on January 4, 1932, as it was felt that he should have an opportunity to advise regarding Philadelphia's position in the matter.

The Commission plans to act upon the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company's proposal without delay in order that the means of communication between Philadelphia and Camden may be improved at the earliest possible moment. The Commission realizes that this is one of the most important problems with which it can deal in 1932.

The condition of the approaches to the bridge in Philadelphia to which reference has been made in previous reports is still most unsatisfactory. A slight improvement was made in 1931 when the Delaware River Bridge Joint Commission by agreement with the City Council of Philadelphia paid for the repaving of Race and Vine Streets between Sixth and Franklin Streets. The cartways were widened from twenty-six feet to fifty feet by taking the sidewalk and a small slice off the north and south sides of Franklin Square. New sidewalks were laid inside the Square. Even though the improvement extends only for a block and a-half the beneficial results have been apparent.

In conclusion the Joint Commission most cordially invites the members of the Legislatures of Pennsylvania and New Jersey and the Council of the City of Philadelphia to inspect the bridge at any time and to inquire into any detail of operation.

Respectfully submitted,

COMMUNICATION FROM THE SCHOOL DISTRICT OF NEW CASTLE URGING ABATEMENT OF SCHOOL TAXATION

SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF NEW CASTLE, PA.
H. M. Marquis, Secretary-Business Manager
116 East Street, New Castle, Pa.

July 14, 1932.

Hon. Bart E. Richards, Care of the House, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania:

My Dear Representative:

At the meeting of the Board of School Directors held on July 13, 1932, the following resolution was unanimously adopted by the Board of School Directors and I was directed to forward to you a copy of this action with the request that you use your best efforts to attain the ends as set forth in the same:

"Whereas, The several school districts of this Senatorial District, as well as the other school districts throughout the State of Pennsylvania, are suffering financially from the inability of the people to pay the high taxes necessarily assessed, to maintain the necessary activities of the school districts in an effort to continue the standard of education approximately as established.

"And Whereas, A large proportion of the expenditures of each district consist of charges fixed by legislative enactment, which under the present conditions have become burdensome,

"Therefore, Be It Resolved,

"First: That the Legislature take action as will abate to some reasonable degree the payments required under the present law for the Teachers' Retirement Fund as established by existing legislation.

"Second: That such a reduction be made in other fixed charges established by action of the Legislature, including teachers' salaries, as will establish the same in a proper proportion to the present reduction suffered by other branches of employment.

"Third: And to take such other steps as will relieve the school districts of this district and the State at large, from the assessment and collection of the excessive tax rate required at the present time.

"And Be It Further Resolved, That we request you as our Representative to inaugurate such action as above suggested or to assist in any way possible the accomplishment of the end desired, as expressed in the foregoing resolution."

Very sincerely,

H. M. MARQUIS,
Secretary.

Although this report shows a certain number of employes who are classified as chauffeurs, we wish to explain that they were originally appointed as chauffeurs, to be assigned to the various agencies, to operate cars for the executive heads of the departments. The policy of the present Administration has been adopted by the various agencies, with very few exceptions, that the so-called chauffeur spends only a part of his time driving, and the rest of his time is utilized by the various departments in performing miscellaneous office duties. In cases where they work directly out of the garage, such as in the Department of Highways, when they are not driving, their time is taken up by performing various duties in the garage, such as making minor repairs to automobiles.

We have not included employes who are classified as chauffeurs and who operate trucks.

*Cost of surface treatment included for projects reported under column (C) "Roads Constructed and not yet Surface Treated."

Mileage reported under this column on statement submitted in compliance with Senate Resolution dated December 16, 1931, has been revised. Subsequent inspections revealed considerable mileage of stone, slag, gravel, shale and red dog roads, originally classified as improved township roads, to be not substantial enough to serve as a base for a new surface. Accordingly these roads are properly classified as unimproved.

In addition to the mileage shown under Column (E) "Roads Projected for Construction During Fiscal Year Ending May 31, 1933," a program of 1,000 miles will be undertaken to be allocated to the counties in proportion to the total miles of rural routes in each county, or approximately 5% of the total rural route mileage. The individual projects comprising the 1,000-mile program have not been finally selected, as the original program prepared by the Department totaled 2,000 miles, which has to be reduced due to a decrease in revenues.

*In order to secure a higher type pavement or increased mileage, the local authorities made contributions in the counties as shown in this column.

House Bill No. 50 For Unemployment Insurance—Mr. Hoopes.

House Bill No. 68 For 30 Hour Week—Mrs. L. M. Wilson.
